chapter 1

Porsche was called by the minor family to assist them in the mission of Italians in the last month meeting. Kinn was just pissed over it as he knew what was Vegas intensions.well, he just have to follow his father's order. But kinn isn't kinn if he does everything according to someone.

Vegas was waiting for Porsche outside of his minor mansion ,he was all the way just smirking knowing that his plans are going to be succeed and his father will finally be shut for a while.

After waiting for another few mins he saw a car coming his way .Not any car its the car of the main family.

The car stopped and Porsche came out but to Vegas surprise he saw the other two bodyguards get down the car and stand behind Porsche on the either side.

Vegas was just pissed looking at the head bodyguard and the techno of the main family.

" Khun kinn sent us here with Porsche khun Vegath,he thought Porsche won't be able to handle everything alone that too when it's his first time working with the minor family " the head bodyguard ,pete finished with a bow and of course with a wide smile plastered on his face like always .

Vegas just wanted to punch him but he knew he can't so he just nodded and looked at Porsche with a smile which can be mistaken as a smirk.

"Come on ,Porsche let's go" Vegas just put his arm around Porsche's shoulder and started walking with him and the two bodyguards just followed them looking at each and every thing and person with curiosity as well as suspiciously.

As they were walking through the buildings they came across many stalls, a small club and people sitting here and there eating or just playing cards .

As they were walking pete eyes fell on the statue of the Lord placed there ,he hurriedly stopped in his way and started to pray the Lord .

Arm , as he noticed what pete did just followed his actions though his believe in God is not as strong as pete.

After a few meters away when Porsche and Vegas noticed none of the bodyguards were following them they stopped on there way and just looked back and saw what the two bodyguards were doing .

One was busy praying to the god.
And the other one was busy pulling the head bodyguard to make his away ahead.

Porsche just looked at them with an embarrassed face and Vegas face shown a surprised expression looking at a certain bodyguard.

It was new that the people in this mafia world believe in the god and his power. But seeing the head bodyguard praying to the Lord with such concentration made all the people present their look at him as if he was an alien.

" These people can't even keep a good incense stick to my lord. " Pete just whispered and then started walking forward with his mate.

"If u r finished with ur praying session let's walk fast or u want me to buy u a packet of incense stick huh?" Vegas Loud voice boomed in the whole place but pete just gave a nervous smile to Vegas and bowed to hiM as an apology.

Vegas just shook his head and again started walking with Porsche.

Finally ,when they entered the area of the mansion. Kan theerapanyakul was having his lunch with his bodyguards . Many of them were eating .Some were just carrying things and making their way towards the mansion.

" Here u can eat whenever u want there is no time fixed for meals in the minor family" Vegas said and made his way with Porsche to a table where Macau theerapanyakul was sitting and having his meal

" The best thing of minor family hihi" the head bodyguard just murmured to himself as a wide smile just took over his face.

The two made there way too but not before Bowing to the head of minor family and the bodyguards.

As pete and arm sat opposite of Vegas ,Porsche and Macau. They were handed a glass of beer and meal. Though the meal didn't satisfy pete but he knew he has no place to complain .

"Ai ,pete " arm called him out in an intoned manner.

"Yes" pete just whispered in the low tone.

" The guy next to u is staring at you" arm said while trying to keep a blank face .

Pete eyes widened as he slowly looked beside him and indeed a guy was staring at him .He tried to smile it off but not the guy as he continued to stare.

He looked at arm and whispered to him " man,is he going to eat his meal or eat me ??" And again looked beside him while arm was having a hard time controlling his laugh looking at Pete's face.

After a while they finished having lunch and Vegas took Porsche with him and started walking towards his meeting room.

Meanwhile with pete...

Arm got up and started to walk forward but pete had other plans.he hurriedly got up and just started collecting his phone and wallet from the table in such a rush that the glass of beer and a plate of salad fell right on the man sitting beside him.

Crunch!!!!!!!

Everyone turned there face towards the sound and they caught Pete Bowing to the man who was previously sitting beside him.

"Iam so sorry, I didn't mean to do that " pete said and bowed to him then just " Don't u ever dare to stare at me bastard !! You don't know what iam capable of now go take a bath in this chilly whether " pete whispered and stared to walk forward with a last smile.

Arm just smirked at him and they slowly high fived each other .. How can they forget the little revenge tricks thought by their boss khun tankhun theerapanyakul.

Meanwhile the others knew what happened their but none dare to interfere because they know the guy is the head bodyguard and the favourite of tankhun they can't even think of messing with him.

Arm and pete walked towards Vegas and Porsche ,both were looking at them with different emotions .Porsche had a confusion laced face and Vegas had a blank one but the eyes were filled with surprise and who can read him better than the head bodyguard.

Pete smiled at them and just " shall we go khun Vegath ?" But Vegas just ignored him as he saw how pete was just looking at him with strange eyes and started walking forward .

In the meeting room-----

Vegas was explaining the plan of how to take down the Italians and who will be paired with whom and how they gonna sneak into the factory.

"This is the plan .Did u all understand ??" Vegas asked to all the bodyguards present there who nodded their heads as Vegas got the approval he nodded his head and turned to Porsche who was just standing next to him the entire time while keeping his head and his face was just blank.

Meanwhile with arm and pete

Arm phone kept vibrating the whole time Vegas was explaining the plan but he managed to stay focused. Pete leaned towards arm and just asked with a smirk.

" Is it pol?" Arm looked at him with surprise but nodded as a yes.

" Go go talk to ur boyfriend. I guess he is going insane without you"

" Aye pete no we aren't boyfriends why do u think so "

Pete rolled his eyes and just said
" Do u think iam dumb?? You look at pol literally with that star filled eyes " arm just shook his head trying to hide the blush crept on his face.

"Whatever" and his phone vibrated again ." Can I just go and talk to him. I think khun tankhun is troubling him "

" Or maybe ur absense is " pete smirked and suddenly moaned out of pain as arm just elbowed his stomach little bit too harshly.

" Ow !!"

Everyone eyes were again on them and this time Vegas was pissed off.

" Are u guys out of ur mind or its kinn who didn't taught u guys how to behave in someone's house. Iam seeing u two since the beginning and the whole day u two are just causing trouble and u guys call urself as a head bodyguard and a fuckinh techno. Fuckinh shit don't know how to behave I highly doubt we are gonna success in this mission with these two fools."

There was a silence for a few mins in the meeting room.Arm and pete immediately ducked their heads down and bowed to Vegas and apologized. Porsche was just looking at them with an unamused face and the rest of the minor family bodyguards were just trying to control their laugh .

Cuz it was a huge satisfaction to them seeing the major family's bodyguards getting scolded by the heir of minor family in their mansion.

Vegas again started to explain the plan and this time Arm and pete didn't dare to raise their heads they were just looking down at the chart placed on the table.

After repeating the plan with highlights and all Vegas looked up and lastly asked " Do you all understand ?If not ask me not anybody else and if u have a better plan care to tell me ." Vegas said looking infront of him at the bodyguards of main family.

When no one made any noise Vegas nodded his head and just said " I want u guys to give ur best and yes be your usual self not the other way around"he said and just made his way outside the room.

But the last sentence he said made everyone immediately look at Porsche who was just looking down. The bodyguards of minor family just looked at each other with a knowing smirk and one by one started making their way out too.

When it was just the three bodyguards of main family Porsche immediately walked to his frnds and " what are u guys doing today?? Did tankhun replaced ur brain with his ????"

Arm just sighed and looked at Porsche " I think we should go out and talk we can't trust this room who knows who is listening to us" And the other two nodded and the three of them just came to the garden of the minor family where there were not many bodyguards.

" Now care to tell me u both" Porsche started right away.

Arm was going to say but he was not as fast as pete who already started with a wide smile on his face.

" Porsche u know what it's all this guy's fault. Pol kept calling him and he ignored his boyfriend's phone call and when I said that he should talk to his boyfriend what if he is missing u but noo he was saying pol is not his boyfriend and all and he even dared to punch me in my stomach " pete completed and started panting affer rambling in one breath now.

" I didn't punch u I just elbowed u " arm said while adjusting his glasses.

" Look he didn't deny the fact that pol is his boyfriend " pete said and smirked AGAIN.

"Aye Arm u don't need to hide it everyone in the main family ships u guys even kinn" Porsche said and looked at his friend with a sheepish smile.

" What khun kin-" he was cut off by

"DId U JUST CAllED KHUN KINN WITH HIS NAME ONLY" pete yelled out but was immediately smacked by Porsche.

"Shut it will u?" Porsche annoyingly said.

"Aye I already knew something was surely going between you and khun kinn after all iam the best observant" pete said with a wide grin

" Pol is calling me I will just hurry up and come back okie .Don't assume shit idiots" with that arm literally ran trying to just find a place to talk to his pol peacefully.

"Bastard is still trying to hide"pete just huffed out in annoyance.

"Porsche do u kNow why every bodyguard was staring at u~~~" pete asked in a playful tone and Porsche just shook his head as no.

" U r completely unaware of how u wrapped the two most dangerous mafias around ur fingers literally both are I guess head over heels for u"pete finished with a smirk

"Which both what are u saying ai'pete"

"Khun kinn and khun vegath u idiot"

At the new information Porsche's eyes widened as he hurriedly shook his head as a no

"What the fuck ai pete Vegas don't - he was cut off by pete "try to tell that urself everyone knows how he is trying to be always around u and in the meeting room too the last sentence was meant for u" pete finished with a serious expression on his face which was rare to see.

"But I only love kinn" Porsche mumbled but pete obviously heard it and started teasing him.

The garden was filled by Pete's constant teasings and laughs and porsche's cursings.

They both were unaware of a presence for the whole time.

"At last u r back to ur usual self"

"Khun Vegas you are being called by khun kan".

" Ruining my peace" Vegas mumbled as he last glanced at the garden and walked towards the office.

chapter 2

It was the day of their mission. Vegas was monitoring everyone and was just making sure that everyone know how and when to tackle the enemy.

Vegas along with Nop and the bodyguards of major family was in the car driving towards the factory. Arm was sitting in the passenger seat with Nop driving.pete,Porsche and Vegas was sitting in the back seat.

Vegas and Porsche were talking about something continuously and arm was busy with texting.As pete was the only remained one doing nothing he was just looking outside of the window,he was all the way just praying to his lord that everything should go as they planned because he still need to see his Grandma.

As he was looking outside he noticed that certain black cars were following them.firstly Pete shrugged it off thinking it's some normal cars going in the same direction but as soon as he noticed that the cars were following each turns and twists like them he understood that they were being followed.

"Khun Vegath some cars are following us !!!" He said in a high pitched voice and just started to shoot the tires of the cars which were behind them.

Vegas as soon as he heard what pete said did the same followed by Arm and Nop just increased the pace of the car.

A few cars came to stop their way from the front but Porsche just started shooting them.

At one end they were cornered by the cars.

"Fuck!"cursed Vegas as he followed the others getting down the car.

The number of members standing in front of them were much less than the number of members following them.This made Vegas smirk.

"Vegas !You are finally in my hands now" said the man with a mask on as his hands held a gun pointed towards Vegas.

"Aren't u just a dog running and desperate to just find your owner."

Vegas said with a smirk following on his lips

" Master! Even though iam a dog iam your dog didn't u say that the other night we spent together " the man voice just changed into a sweet tone.

The others who just listened what he said gagged.Porsche was just looking at him with a disgusting face and the others were just having a blank face.

"Keep your fucking bedroom things up to your disgusting bedroom bitch!" Porsche roared in anger.

The man turned to Porsche with rage in his eyes and just pointed his gun on his forehead "Aren't you talking alot ,do you want to die so soon huh?"

"Ryan, I don't have time for this bullshit now" Vegas said with a blank face .

" Master how could you have time for me when you are already busy with someone huh!'" the said guy Ryan started walking forward and stopped at the end infront of pete.

He raised Pete's chin with the gun and looked at Vegas with a smirk

" Isn't he the guy you are seeing now?"

Vegas's along with the other bodyguards eyes widened when they heard what he said .

" Shia! What the heck are u saying ?" Pete finally Voiced out after everything his face scrunched in disgust,and looked at Vegas who was already looking at him with a dead stare.

*Oh god! You fuckinh naive man its not me it's Porsche. why did u even think of me. Khun Vegath will kill me after he will kill you.*pete thought while looking down.

"Master is he so good that you left me. "He said and then just yanked Pete's hairs in his fist ,pete just groaned in pain "huh! Tell me master, did he satisfy you that well ,looking at him from this close he is nothing but a disgusting piece of shit baby ,how did u even take him that close to you that too a fucking bodyguard" he kept yanking Pete's hairs while spitting those words while his other hand was holding the gun.

There was a complete silence for the following few seconds as he was going to say something again Vegas started.

"Ryan look we need to go somewhere I will deal with you later so, for now let us go" he said in his english accent which made the guy infront of him almost moan in pleasure.

"Ah!Master I missed the voice of you. The way you used me that night while just cursing me in that accent of yours " the guy was busy in his fantasy that he failed to notice the gun which was yanked off his hand.

He opened his eyes once he felt the cold metal of the gun against his forehead. The others smirked in satisfaction as they slowly picked up their guns from the ground.

The bodyguards of ryan pointed their gun towards the one who was pointing the gun at Ryan's forehead.Pete.

" If u shoot me,I will shoot your young master. Their is no loss for me but you will surely end up dead if your boss finds out that you failed to protect his son " Pete said and the bodyguards of Ryan just dropped their guns.

Pete then slowly turned his head towards Vegas and " khun Vegath do you want me to kill him here or you would like to take him home"

" I don't take trash home " with this being said he turned around and just started walking towards his car.

Pete smirked and just looked at Ryan " your time ends here khun ryan, and yes iam not the one khun Vegath is seeing "

But ryan just smirked and said " the theory of ryan never goes wrong, Vegas is surely after you and you will find it out so soon."

Pete just shook his head and pointed at Porsche and said " khun Vegath is after him not me " but ryan again smirked shooking his head as No he just pulled the trigger by himself.

Porsche hurriedly grabbed Pete's hands and just told him to run as the bodyguards of Ryan were starting to take out their guns.

They finally drove off from there without the bodyguards following them.

"Take back to minor mansion" vegas said and Nop nodded.

chapter 3

Vegas, as soon as he got down from his car started to walk towards the meeting room with heavy steps and as usual his blank face.

"We should follow khun Vegas " said Nop as he started to walk after Vegas without waiting for the other three.

" Like we can do something other than following him "Arm said and the other two just nodded and they made their way towards the meeting room.

The bodyguards of the minor family were just looking at them with confusion laced faces.

In the meeting room

The bodyguards stood straight as soon as they acknowledged the presence of their boss.

After a few minutes the bodyguards of the main family were also standing among the minor family bodyguards.

Vegas looked at everyone with a stud face and then looked down his face was showing nothing but a perplexed expression.

"Nop,bring the chart" uttered Vegas and Nop hurriedly got him the chart.

Vegas for a second analysed the chart and then looked at his watch.

" We are running out of time ,we have to hurry back to the warehouse if we want to tackle the gang ,if we don't do it today we can't catch them for the few months following ,I want you guys to form a team of 4 members each and get to the gate of the mansion in just 10 mins."Vegas said it in his calm voice though all the bodyguards remained there without saying anything.

"FORM THE TEAMS NOW!!" this time Vegas lost his cool.

The bodyguards started to run out of the room to make the teams.Vegas turned towards the bodyguards of Main family and just said " you three and Nop will form a team" and went away from there.

The said bodyguards looked at each other and with a nodd they started following Vegas.

"Who will be with khun Vegath then?" Pete asked with pure curiosity to his subordinates.

"Khun Vegas alone is enough" said Nop as he looked at pete who was still not sure but nodded.

After exactly 10 minutes all the bodyguards were there with their teams "we are ready khun Vegas" everyone said in unison and Vegas just nodded his head.

"Get it done!"were the only words uttered by Vegas when they all just started their way for the mission .

After atleast 15 mins they were infront of the warehouse ,which was dead silent.The warehouse was the only building in the area.As far as our eyes can travel their was nothing near the warehouse.

Everyone looked around the warehouse finding the goons surrounding the building but their were none.

"Nop with his team will follow me inside the warehouse and all the other teams surround the warehouse.If you see anyone trying to escape you know what to do" with this being said Vegas ran inside the warehouse followed by Nop and the bodyguards of the main family.

Vegas was going alone, Arm,pete were together and Nop,Porsche. They were paired by Vegas as soon as they entered.

"They will probably in the 2nd floor of the building ,I will go there.Nop ,you guys on the third and the other two will be here. guarding. "explained Vegas as he hurriedly made his way to the second floor.

"We should get going " Nop said and Porsche nodded and they headed towards their assigned floor.

"Won't I be given a chance to use this sniper rifle" Arm whispered to pete and just stared at the rifle In his hands.

"Pol will not appreciate it if u died in here" Pete said and just rolled his eyes.

"Yeah yeah I know you don't have to remind me about that every minute " Arm said now looking around the floor.

"How can I not ?Your boyfriend literally called me and said to guard you,his bAbY" pete said now suddenly feeling the urge to tease his mate.

"We aren't boyfriends pete"
Arm stated trying to clear his statement.

As pete was going to say something back both of them heard a gun shot. The both bodyguards of the main family became conscious as soon as they sensed the presence of a third person in the floor.

They both looked at each other and nodded before going in the different directions.

Pete and Arm just came to the same spot as they found nothing.

"Arm,I think they are aware of our presence now,you go to the third floor and I will go to the second."pete said as they nodded at each other and dashed towards the assigned floors.

Pete,hurriedly started making his way towards the second floor.As he reached their ,it was dead silence as they were no one here.

As he was making his way forward trying to find his boss. He was suddenly pulled hard by someone behind the boxes. His eyes widened as he just started wiggling hard in the hold. He was ready to punch and then he heard a voice saying ....

"Don't you dare to make a sound,we can't let them know about us now". There he heard a cold deep raspy voice just behind his ears.

"Kh-khun Vegath" stammered pete as he felt the presence of Vegas just behind him and his hot warm breaths were hitting his nape.

"Why are you here? Didnt I assigned you with the techno to guard the ground floor." Questioned Vegas as his eyes kept looking around making sure that they were hidden.

"Eh ,khun ac-actually we heard a gun sh-shot so ,we thought you guys needed us." Pete said while stuttering In between because of the closeness between them.

"Hmm" hummed Vegas , not even caring to move away from the said bodyguard.

Pete pov

I was startled as soon as I heard the gun shot. My mind only thought of khun Vegath as he was only by himself In the second floor.

I hurriedly ran towards the second floor trying my best to not make a single sound as it will alert the goons.

As I was searching for him,a hand suddenly tugged my arm very harshly and there my heart beat quiken I was all ready to punch the man but then the familiar cologne hit me and I restrained myself from doing anything .

The way he was so close behind me that I could feel his hot breath on my nape and then he spoke in his deep raspy voice and my heart
Just started to run a marathon.

Shia!Pete stop stuttering. What will he think of me now.wait why would he think of a former bodyguard?? I should stop thinking about khun Vegath like that.

Why isn't he moving back ??God!!! Let him go away please.why my heart is beating so fast...Am I that scared of him?????

Third person's POV

As pete was lost in his thoughts.His face was showing different expressions as each passing second ,as vegas was just behind him ,he could sense the discomfort of the man.

He cleared his throat and just moved back and there pete sighed in relief but the relief was not long lasted as they heard a gun being shot in the air.

Bang!!!

chapter 4

Bang!! Bang!!

The loud voice of the gun shots boomed throughout the warehouse.Vegas and Pete's eyes widened as soon as they registered that the gun shot was from the third floor.

As the gun shot alerted the goons too , they all started to walk to the third floor.Vegas and pete decided to just walk behind them without them noticing.

After a few mins they all were on the third floor.Vegas and pete were hidden behind the pile of boxes and kept their eyes on the goons standing in a group.

They can see everything very clearly from the spot they were hidden , they saw a man who was laying on the ground with his chest bleeding.

They both sighed in relief as the man was none of the bodyguards who were keeping their eyes on this floor.

"Why did u shoot him" asked a man who was looking like he was in his late thirties to the man who was holding the gun.

" He was a spy sent by red foxes ,we just heard him talking on his phone about the drugs which we are gonna export now."said the other man.

Vegas eyes furrowed as he heard the gang's name.

They weren't supposed to be in the picture. Was the only thing in his mind.

"Shit! Why did u kill him then, the boss would surely want him alive to get the information about them." Said other man as he kept his hand on his forehead already thinking about the consequences.

" Its of no use he is dead now,it would be good if we just don't let boss know about him being a spy then maybe we will be able to survive" said another one as all his mates nodded agreeing with him.

"Let's just load the product in the truck and get out of here ,iam hungry already " said the last and all the other just tsked but nodded anyway.

As they were going to split ,Vegas pressed his earpiece and just "shoot" he whispered in his cold deep voice and without waiting further, he started to shoot the goons followed by Pete and the other three.

The goons were taken by surprise as they didn't expect any kind of attack. As Vegas and his team were well hidden the goons could do Nothing other than just trying to run or just shoot in different directions.

After a few mins of the fight,all the goons were laying on the ground in the pool of their own blood,but one was still remained ,the head of the gang-Big Wan.

Vegas along with the bodyguards surrounded him, aiming their guns at him. Big wan had his gun too which was aiming at Porsche.

Vegas had a black cloth with him,he looked at Porsche and just nodded,Porsche slowly took the lead and pressed his gun against Big wan.

Before Wan could take an action,all he could see is black ,yes he was caught by Vegas.

Vegas pressed the ear piece and asked in his usual cold tone "is everything fine out there?" As soon as the bodyguards heard him. The head among them answered "its all clear khun Vegas".

Vegas nodded and just uttered a "move"and started walking down the stairs followed by the bodyguards who were dragging Big Wan with them.

They all finally reached the minor mansion. Vegas got down the car and just started walking towards the meeting room followed by the bodyguards while Big wan was sent to the basement.

As everyone was present in the meeting room ,Vegas looked at them and nodded with a slight smile and just said "good work everyone,I will explain the plan to catch the Italians later in the evening." The bodyguards nodded.

"Did any Goons try to escape during the fight or was there anyone outside the warehouse" asked Vegas.

"There were two members who tried to escape khun Vegas but we caught them in time and they are in the basement now along with big wan" a bodyguard answered with his head down.

Vegas nodded " jazz and prey ,you two will handle the two guys in there and I will take care of big wan. You guys can leave now".

The bodyguards bowed to him and started making their outside the room which includes the bodyguards of main family too. As they were in the queue to leave vegas just told them to stay for a bit.

Vegas along with Nop and the bodyguards of main family were only present in the room. He looked at Porsche carefully for the following second and then just asked him "Porsche are you hurt somewhere? "

Nop,looked at his boss with widened eyes as he heard what he just said.

Porsche on the other side just hesitantly shook his head and uttered " I just feel a sting around my shoulder,I will visit the doctor later."

Vegas nodded and said "we can't afford you hurt Porsche,as you know you are the most important person in this mission."

Then He just looked at Nop and said "Nop, do u have any injuries or something?"

Nop hurriedly shook his head just said "no khun Vegas"

Vegas turned around and started walking towards the desk not before saying " you guys can go now have your meal and get ready for tomorrow."

The bodyguards went out without uttering a single word. Nop took the main family's bodyguards towards the dining area where the bodyguards if the minor family were already eating.

They four sat in the dining table and were served the food. Well,the food was western like pasta, souseges,steak,salad and soup.

Arm and Porsche faces beamed with happiness as soon as they registered the foods served to them. Well, it was far better than those nutritious food in the main mansion. They immediately dived in the food.

On the contrary to Pete ,his face fell as he looked at the food infront of him, he glared at the food placed before him and just started poking them with his chopsticks hardly.

Pete's POV

God!!!Why meeeeeee??

Why do I hate these western foods whyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyy????

Sometimes I really hate myself for only loving the southern dishes.

Aish! Khun Vegath seriously leaves no chance to ruin my mood.

Firstly ,he ruined my peace of mind by constantly making my mind a mess by his presence.

Secondly, he didn't even care to ask me whether i was hurt or not. I really hate him for that.

Why always Porsche? Why not me??

Aya pete ! No you shouldn't talk like that about your best friend. Its not his fault that the one you like likes him right?

Wait!!! Yahhhh I promised myself not to talk about this .... Dumb Pete

The concern here is food ,here iam dead hungry but these food will surely upset my stomach and my heart too.

Do I have a choice ..... Absolutely no.

Third person's POV

With his internal war pete started to swallow the food. His eyes were continuously glaring at the food ,and in the contrary his lips were pouting ..

He looked around the table and area finding for certain someone but he couldn't.

"Where is khun Vegath ?Isn't he hungry yet he should eat by now right?"

Yahh iam thinking about him again. pete he is the same bastard who didn't ask you about your injuries let him die in hunger .Huff!"

Pete even though tried to ease himself by giving reasons to be angry at his khun Vegath,his heart still felt heavy thinking about it.

He got up from the chair and just looked at his friends who were already looking at him " iam done already. Iam going to my room to sleep. Take care both of you"

With that being said he quickly marched out of the area.

Nop,looked at his plate which was barely even touched and just said

"He barely even ate his food ,how can he go like that. You guys should call him "

But Porsche just shook his head " let him be,maybe he isn't hungry."he said and Nop just shrugged it off.

Meanwhile with pete--

He started to make his way to his room but the mansion wasn't familiar at all he felt like he is just moving around in it..

He was walking forward stomping his feet and with furrowed eyebrows,looking for someone to ask help and just then he heard a voice.

"Looking for something"?

chapter 5

"Looking for something"

Pete eyes widened and for a sec he stilled in his place , but he composed himself and slowly turned around to face the man of the said voice.

As he turned around , He eyes met with that cold ones ,they both said nothing as Pete's eyes ever so slowly trailed down to the man's body,who was wearing a green silk shirt with black pants which looked perfect on him.

"Looking kha-" he stammered unable to talk it out loud and clear but once he looked at the man who was already looking at him with squirted eyes ,he just lost all his will to lie.

" Khun-vegath , your mansion is just so big that I forgot the way to my room" he let it out in breath with that nervous laugh of his.

"Oh! That's it. Its okie come I will take you " Vegas replied and started to come towards pete.

" No,No its okie khun -vegath just tell me the directions I will find it myself there is no way I will trouble you " pete immediately said as he didn't want Vegas anywhere near him at the moment.

" Its okie I,will take you,cmon , cmon let's go " Vegas said while keeping his arm around his shoulder and started dragging him.

After a minute they both reached a corridor which was almost empty there was not a single sound throughout the hallway.

Pete wandered his eyes around and just spotted a room with a green door. His eyebrows furrowed looking at this new way.

"Khun-Vegath this isn't the bodyguards rooms." Pete said still looking around.

"I know." Was the only thing Vegas said.

"Eh! Then why are we here khun Vegath?" This time pete dared to look at the man standing in front of him.

"Because it's my room. Now come let's go in." Vegas casually uttered like it was very normal for him but for pete his eyes widened and his heart stopped beating for a moment as he heard his khun.

"Kh-khun ve-vegath wh-" he was cut off by Vegas as he just pulled him inside his room by his arm.

" You talk alot" Vegas said as they were now inside his room.

Pete said nothing he was just looking at the room in pure astonishment. Not even his boss khun tankhun's room is like that. It was just simple yet classy.

The fancy bed with that simple blanket seemed very comfy to pete then he looked at the interior design of the room the ceiling which was just so pure white in colour and especially everything in the room was just so clean and tidy. It was like no one ever lived in it.

"Like it?" And it was the voice which brought pete out of his train of thoughts.

"Ah yes , khun-vegath it is so cool." Replied pete still looking around the room.

"That's good " whispered the mafia which was not caught by Pete who was still busy admiring the room.

" Are you into simple things khun Vegath " pete asked in a flow but when he realized what he did ,he was about to apologize but Vegas was quick.

He looked at Pete for a few seconds and nodded with " yeah iam so into the simple things " he uttered in english.

" Oh sorry! if you didn't understand I just said that iam-" he was cut off by Pete.

" Its okie khun Vegath I understood what you just said." Pete replied with a small smile on his face but as his face looked so calm ,his heart was at turmoil with just one thought "did khun Vegath just apologized to me" his thought was cut off by....

*"*So you know english?" Questioned Vegas in a slight surprise tone.

"Eh I just understand a little english ,khun-vegath iam not so good at it."pete replied with an awkward laugh.

"Perfect" Vegas mumbled to himself.

"Huh? Did you say something khun Vegath?" Pete asked as he wasn't able to understand.

"Ah no I didn't say anything". Replied Vegas while looking elsewhere from the bodyguard.

Pete nodded and just stood awkwardly in the middle of the room.

"You can sit there " Vegas said while pointing towards the bed as he was already sitting on the couch.

" No, khun Vegath I cannot sit there ,my duty doesn't allow me to be in the same level as my boss." Pete said with his head high as he talked about his duty with such pride in his tone.

"*Indeed the head bodyguard"*was the thought which crossed Vegas's mind.

After that ,silence filled the room.Both were just so quiet.pete was continuously taking glances at his khun Vegath who looked just so handsome while sitting on the couch with legs on one another.

"Pete don't look at him like that what if he caught me staring at him oh god no I love my eyes" well,yes these were his thoughts while looking at his crush.

He looked at his watch and it has been already 10 minutes they are here in his room. Pete again looked at him and gathered some courage and spoke.

"Khun Vegath shall I go now "pete broke the silence and Vegas almost replied to him in the next second.

" Why? don't you like it here ? Ah I mean I actually want to ask you about something well,more like about someone ". Vegas spoke while slowing walking towards pete.

"About what khun Vegath ?" Pete asked in a low voice though he already knew what was he gonna ask but still he hoped that his assumption would be proven wrong.

But who was he kidding ???

" About Porsche"

Did you hear the noise of something breaking? well,its my heart.

…….. Pete

chapter 6

"About Porsche"

Well, the atmosphere was suddenly so suffocating for pete.He looked at his khun with empty eyes and with a blank face. His face was just so void of emotions.

But still its his Duty to always answer his khun. He took a deep breath and tried to form his words.

"Wh-what about Porsche, khun Vegath " he replied with a question as well.

"I just want to know more about him" was the answer given by Vegas as his lips curled into a small smile which was enough to make pete want to run away from there. But he chose the contrary . To stay.

"So, you called me here to enquire about Porsche ,khun Vegath?" pete asked with a hope that the answer of his khun will not just crash his hopes.

But again the fate wasn't in his side....

"chai chai, I wanted to know everything about him and who would know him better than his best friend " Vegas said as his eyes just remained on pete.

And pete could only nod with a fake big smile completely contrary to his heart.

" I understand khun-vegath so, what do you want to know about him?" Pete asked as he started looking around the room just to avoid those eagle like eyes.

"Will you really help me in order to know him more"

Pete looked at his khun who was looking at him too with a pair of strangely pleasing eyes.

So he only nodded "yes khun Vegath."

"What does Porsche love to do the most?" And the quest started.

"He loves spending time with his brother chay, likes to go to bars and clubs and just listen high notes songs."

"What about his plans about his near future" .

"Near future... He just want this mission to be successful so that he can get some days off ..Yup!!"

"You guys are gonna have days-off after the mission?"

"Probably yes khun Vegath "

"Oh I see so, what are you planning to do in ur days-off?" Vegas suddenly asked about pete which left him quite perplexed.

"Iam planning to visit my hometown khun-vegath"

Vegas was quite for a few seconds then slowly looked up at pete and said...

"Oh!Okie I guess but you should tell Porsche not to worry, this mission will surely be successful" Vegas said with a confident laced tone ,there was no hint of any doubt ,neither in his tone nor on his face.

"Yes khun Vegath."

"What about his relationship with his brother ?"

"Chay and his relationship is just on the right track. They both love each other alot. And chay is indeed a sweet and lovely boy."

Pete said with a genuine smile on his face as he described the relationship between the two brothers.

Well,at this information Vegas's ears perked up,he locked eyes with pete and just said the words which were already on tip of his tongue.

"You like guys like him?"

Silence. That's what filled the room.pete was just too shocked to answer and Vegas was just looking at him with a blank face still waiting for an answer.

"Say"

And pete just shook his head as "no"

" I want an answer in words mr.head bodyguard" Vegas this time said in his deep ass voice.

"Kh-khun Vegath what do you mean by that ? I mean Chay is my brother too" pete finally uttered in a firm tone but still stuttered at the beginning.

Vegas didn't say anything for a few more minutes and then once he raised his face and just whispered

"You can leave now "

Pete,having no more choice just nodded his head and bowed to his khun and left the room but not before glancing at the mafia.

After pete left ,Vegas just looked around the room and just tsked. With the only thought in his mind "how can someone like this bright room er!The things I do for ...."

His thoughts were cut off by the loud bang on the door of his room. And the next second Macau entered the room with a cheeky smile on his bright face.

"Hia! I see what were you doing here" he said with the same cheeky smile.

Vegas just rose his eyebrow while looking at his brother "and what were I doing mr.young master Macau"

" Do you want me to narrate how you were spending your time with brother Kinn's bodyguard"

And this time Vegas eyebrows furrowed.

"Kinn's bodyguard?"

" Come on Hia now that I caught you red handed spending time with that bodyguard Porsche ,don't you dare make a story."

"Wait what Porsche ? What are you even saying Macau? Porsche was never here"Vegas said now trying to keep up with his blank face.

"Hia! I just saw Porsche going to the ground floor from this corridor.so,I thought you are finally making a move now." Macau stated.

"Oh! No ,no Macau he wasn't here iam all alone here ,since the beginning "

And Macau could only nod with "hia since when did you start spending time in such bright rooms as long as I know you ,you like dark rooms with that rbg's right?"

And Vegas nodded " I just wanted to come and check whether they had done their duty well or not ".

And Macau looked around the room and whispered"they did it better than anyone could." And Vegas could only nod.

"But Hia why did you suddenly think of this room. Any specific reason?"

Vegas just shook his head as a No

" I just wanted to."

The brothers continued their talk for a while then.

At the evening

Time went too fast and it was already 7 in the evening. Yet the bodyguards weren't called for the meeting.

Arm was busy in his laptop. Porsche was busy on his phone and Pete just looked at them with a bored face.

"Why don't we go and have some food ,iam hungry already" pete proposed an idea while looking at his friends.

"Pete iam doing some work in here."

"Iam talking to your khun kinn"

Were the answers he got.

Sighing loudly with an empty stomach he went out of his room in search of food.

After a while When he was wandering around in the mansion. His eyes caught something which left him heavy-hearted.

He silently turned around his heels and walked away from that certain area..

Somewhere in the mansion

Vegas was dragging Porsche to a certain room while holding his wrist.

"Porsche, did you like the room. You can stay here from now on"

"Vegas, don't you think it is so much for a bodyguard?" Porsche asked while looking around the room.

" Nah!I prepared this room for you. No one has a say in this" uttered Vegas while having a small smile on his face.

" Then ,thank you I guess" said Porsche having his signature smile .

The room

chapter 7

Pete laid on his bed and covered himself from head to toe with the white sheets provided for the bodyguards.

He ignored all the calls of his friend Arm, and just laid there feeling numb. A single tear rolled down to his cheek and he just wiped it away harshly.

Despite his eyes were crying ,his lips still had a smile tugged on it. Pete was just trying to not to cry out loud. Though the reason of his cry wasn't that big in Pete's eyes.

He leisurely laid there, without doing anything. He could hear arm talking on the phone and calling pol with sweet names.

After a few minutes he heard the door being opened.

"Ai'Arm ,pete let's go to have dinner ,Vegas is waiting for us outside."

Pete ears perked up at the name which Porsche mentioned.

"But pete is sleeping " arm said while looking between pete and Porsche.

Porsche just shook his head "nah he isn't sleeping" which this being said he made his way to Pete's bed and sat at the corner.

"Ai'pete are you watching porn or something under this pure blanket hm? said Porsche while poking pete.

"You and your nastiness" Arm snorted in disgust.

"You and your Boring ass" Porsche said in return sticking his tongue out.

"Iam not boring you idiot" defended Arm.

"Yeah,and iam Washington" replied Porsche rolling his eyes.

"You-"

"Get the hell out of this room you bastards!!!!!"

Pete suddenly yelled which made his two mates flinch.

"Ai'pete you idiot why did you yell suddenly, wanted to kill your only best frnd, this handsome sexy man"Porsche said while keeping his hand on his chest with his eyes slightly widened.

And the other two just rolled their eyes.

" You are no less than khun tankhun"

"You and your delusions."

Porsche rolled his eyes and just " you guys are just jealous of my beauty".

"Yeah very" mocked Arm.

"Are you guys going by yourselves or want me to drag you out" pete said while glaring at them both.

"Ai'pete let's go and have dinner na, I have heard that there are many delicious dishes plus drinks"Porsche said with shiny eyes..

"Delicious dishes like what,pasta and sandwich huh " said pete In a mocking tone.

Ai'pete come naa- " Porsche was cut off by the knocks on the door.

And then a voice was heard.

"Porsche, are you guys coming "

"You guys should go now ,he is waiting "pete said and just started to lay again.

"Pete why won't you come " asked arm.

" I just um.. yeah I ate just a while ago so,iam full already and I also want to talk to grand maa yes that's it!" Pete completed with a wide smile on his face though it didn't reach his eyes.

"Oh-okie then" agreed arm.

"Are you sure pete" Porsche asked while looking at pete with furrowed eyebrows it was almost like he didn't believe his friend.

" Chai chai!! Iam , you guys should go now " pete now started to nudge Porsche to go.

Arm and Porsche nodded. As they were going pete suddenly called out for them.

"Ai'porsche if he as- ah no nothing enjoy your meal guys!!" He completed and just looked down.

"Pete ,are you-" Porsche was cut off by.

"Iam okie Porsche ,you go"

"We will talk once i come back"

And pete could only nod.

Once they were out of the room , pete just sadly chuckled.

"stupid pete why would he ask about you, you aren't him" and just laid their looking at the blank ceiling.

Outside of the room:

"We are ready to go Vegas " said Porsche and Vegas just nodded.

He looked at the sides and his eyebrows furrowed.

"Where is your other friend?" Questioned Vegas.

"Ah! Pete, actually khun Vegas he already ate a while ago" arm replied to while adjusting his glasses.

Vegas just nodded without saying anything and started to walk towards the dining area.

Pete strirred to different sides on his bed ,changed into many positions just to get some sleep.. but it was just not possible for him with his stomach being completely empty. He looked at his phone and it was 2 in the morning.

"Aish!! I should have ate that pasta , why is lord punishing me like this" pete mumbled while looking at the ceiling and then turn his head towards his two friends seeing them sleeping peacefully.

Then his eyes fell on his best frnd as he remembered what they talked before going to sleep.

"Pete I think you were right when you said that Vegas likes me "

"Why ?What happened? Why did you think of this "

"Today he shown me a classy room and said that I could live in there and when I said that it's so much for a bodyguard and he told me that he made that room for me"

"Why would he do so for a bodyguard?"

Pete was just quiet for a while and then he looked at his best friend who was already looking at him for an answer.

" I already told you that he likes you. You see I was always right about this. Iam just the best observant" pete said cheerfully with a wide grin on his face though his heart was broking little by little by.

" Ai'pete this isn't good"

" Don't think so much. Everything will be fine just believe in my lord".

At this point pete was confused whether he was advising his friend or to himself.

" Aish ! I shouldn't think all this and be like this. This will bring no good for me.

Come-on pete , so what if he doesn't like you back its his loss huh!"

Well,he tried to distract himself from the pain.

" I should go and search for some food. I hope they serve food now"

With that being decided by him, he slowly got up and made his way out of the room ever so quietly just to not wake his friends up.

He hurriedly ran towards the serving room of the minor family only to get disappointed seeing the door being locked.

" Pete you and your unlucky ass" he mumbled to himself and just started to make his way to the room again with his head down.

As he kept walking without looking up,he suddenly collied with a hard substance. He closed his eyes at the impact.

When he opened his eyes ,he was met with a hard toned chest ,his eyes widened in shock as he slowly trailed his eyes up to look at the person.that's when he heard the oh-so familiar voice.

"Why are you wandering out so late?"

" Kh-khun Vegath I-i was just looking around hehe" pete said with an awkward smile on display.

Pete was about to back off thats when he realized that he was being held by his khun.His eyes widened in the realization.

"Why do I feel like you are lying ?" Vegas whispered in a hushed tone slightly leaning his head into Pete's neck.

Pete sightly flinched as his neck came into the contact of Vegas's lips.

"K-khun ve-vegath wh-why would I lie t-to y-you" pete stuttered ever so badly and Vegas just chuckled still burying his head into Pete's neck.

He then raised his head and looked at Pete so deep in his eyes , his face slowly trailed close to pete and then he whispered "are you hungry?"

Pete eyes were still widened but now it felt like they would just pop out of his eyes socket ,he fisted his sweat pants and slowly shook his head and then nodded while looking down ..

"Yes or no" Vegas again just mumbled into his face as he could feel the hot breath of his khun

"Ye-yes khun Vegath" pete merely agreed still looking down not daring to meet his khun eyes.

As pete wasn't looking at him ,he failed to see the soft expressions Vegas held for him.

Vegas slowly trailed his hand to pete's hand and held it slightly intertwining them.

And pete felt like his soul just left his body as soon as he felt those warm hands against his rough ones.

"Let's go and get you some food then" said Vegas and started to run with pete ,their hands still intertwined with each other.

chapter 8

Vegas just dragged pete all the way to his room. Their hands still being interwined with each other.Pete was still just staring at their hands which were clenched with each other.

"Let's get in" Vegas deep voice penetrated in Pete's mind which was enough to bring him out of his trance.

"Huh?" Was the only thing came out of his mouth.

Vegas just looked at him for a few seconds and then started to come closer to him and pete just started step back. He took a few steps. After a few more steps he was in between the wall and his khun.

He eyes widened in realization that there is no way to escape and Vegas just smirked still leaning close to him.

He traped pete in between his arms and just moved his face closer to his.

"Where are you trying to escape?" He mumbled in his face.

"Kh-khun ve-vegath y-you are so close" pete let out in a hushed tone.

"So?" Vegas just rose his left eyebrow ,his smirk still evident on his god-like face.

And pete just couldn't bring himself to answer his khun. His heart was just beating like drums, he was scared that his khun will hear it as they were just so close.

And suddenly Vegas just started to laugh out loud looking at the said bodyguard's face which looked too pale to his liking.

" How could they hire you to protect themselves , you are such a baby" Vegas let out still laughing.

Though pete was offended by his khun he couldn't bring himself to say a single word, all he could do was stare in pure astonishment,as it was his first time to see Vegas laughing. He suddenly felt an urge to keep looking at him , at his this cute laughing face just for forever. To make him happy and smile like this.

He was just so quiet ,admiring the view infront of him.

After a while ,when Vegas laughter died down ,he suddenly realized and just started to fix his clothes and put a blank face,but was interrupted by pete.

"Khun Vegath ,you look so endearing while laughing like that" pete said it out in his trance.

And his khun was just too shocked to answer back. As he registered the bodyguard's words , he immediately ducked his head down.

"Kh-" and he was cut off by "let's just go and have dinner"

Pete eyebrows furrowed in confusion "khun Vegath didn't you have your dinner yet?"

"Eh- about that no, I didn't ,I wasn't hungry then ." He said still looking here and there but not exactly at the bodyguard.

"Khun Vegath how can you not eat in time ?Do you even know how important dinner is, that too especially for a person like you ,who is just working day and night. You don't even care about eating dinner. Do you? Look how thin you are-" he was about to continue but...

"Wait a sec did you just call me thin??""

"Yes ,I did. "

"Hey, this is not called thin ,this is a well built one" states vegas looking down at his body.

"Well built ?? You call this well built" pete said looking at Vegas from up to down.

" Not only me, everyone knows this is well built, except you" Vegas then said rolling his eyes.

" If you are well built then iam too but my grand maa says iam so thin" he said in a low voice.

"Of course you are thin, you should eat more and more. Grandma is right" this time Vegas was the one who was checking pete out.

" Eat what?All you keep is pasta and sandwich?" Pete this time was glaring at Vegas totally forgetting of the fact that he is his khun.

And vegas just rose his eyebrow"you should have told me about what you want to eat ,why did you eat it if you don't like it ?"

And at this one pete eyes lighten up with happiness " will you really make the food I say?"

"I would do that But I don't know how to cook" Vegas said with a small smile.

"Oh I s-" he suddenly stopped as his mind recollected all the talk from the start, the way he complemented, the way he argued and the way he scolded his khun about the food. At this comprehension his face just lost all the colors, his eyes were just showing terror.

Which made Vegas anxious "hey ,wha-" he was cut off by pete. As he started to bow to him, continuously mumbling apologies.

And Vegas was just so confused , one second he was happy and another second he just started to bow???

"Stop it" he demanded and the sub ordinate immediately stopped and stood there with his head hung low.

"What's wrong?" Vegas voice surprisingly came out gentle and calm.

"Khun Vegath ,iam sorry. I shouldn't have crossed my line. I heartily apologize to you , I just didn't realize what I was saying . I-"

"You are apologising for showing your concern? Are you sorry about that?" Vegas sounded disappointed.

"No. Of course not khun Vegath. Iam not sorry for caring about you."

"You care about me?" Vegas asked while looking at pete with his Honey brown eyes. Pete was just in loss of his words.

" Yes. I do , ah -no , I mean yes. I mean it's my duty and responsibility to care and protect you khun Vegath" pete answered slightly shuttering.

"Hmm" Vegas just hummed in response with a contagious smile.

" We should really go now " with this being said he entered his room. Pete followed his khun.

As they entered, pete was just fascinated by the room. Though the room gave him a few chills and vibes like his khun. But the head bodyguard was just so into the admiring that he ignored it.

The room:

The fact that the room was just in black was even more thrilling.

"Did you like it?" Vegas questioned.

"Yes khun Vegath its just so beautiful"

"So, do you like it more than the room I shown you other day?"

And pete face fell as he heard the room being shown the other day. How could he forget that the man infront of him, was the admirer of his best friend,how could he so easily forget the reason behind his sadness was just that room. He just wished that he wasn't the one to see the room first.

So, for pete each and every room no matter , they are clean or just filled with mud and dust is better than that classy room.

"Yes ,far better than that khun Vegath."

"That's great, now come let's eat"

They both sat on the couches near the window , though pete first sat on the ground , Vegas ordered him to sit on the other couch. Pete just have to follow his khun 's orders.

Soon they were served their food, which were noddles.

Pete eyes filled with joy and happiness looking at the noodles..he hurriedly took the bowl from the servant , thanking her and just dived into his food., Finally sighing in satisfaction and in the pure happiness.

And Vegas was just looking at him with a soft smile.

chapter 9

The next day:

Everyone were getting ready for the mission. Vegas ,was called by his father to his office. The bodyguards of minor family were gathered together and yet again were discussing the plan.

"Let's hope we all come back alive" Porsche said looking at his friends and both of them nodded at his words.

"We have our earpiece. Porsche ,arm if you guys think you won't be able to handle it ,just run out of the place without a second thought. Okie?" Pete looked at his friends with a concerned face.

Arm looked at Pete and slightly smiled saying " Pete ,I know you are tensed but the thing is,we are bodyguards we can't just run away for our lives..we have to protect the lives of the people we work For."

Pete just sighed "you are right..Its not like someone will care if we, the mere bodyguards will die"he finished with a sad smile on his face.

"Hoiii ,bold of you two to assume that "

There they heard a high pitched voice which left them to shocked to even respond.

"Staying with that evil bastard , don't you guys recognize me now?" The said man looked at the main bodyguard and the techno with a stud face.

"KHUN TANKHUN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!" The bodyguards yelled in both surprise and in pure happiness.

"Yes, its me , who else did you expect ??Obama huh?" Tankhun said having a sadist smile on his face.

Arm and pete hurriedly ran towards their khun as he was standing a few meters away from them ,followed by Porsche.

As they were now face to face to tankhun, the both bodyguards stared at their khun for a while with an unreadable face.

"Why are you here tho?" Porsche finally said breaking the silence among them.

Tankhun ,looked at Porsche and raised an eyebrow while saying "I know you aren't so happy to see me here, neither am I ."

"Did I ask you about that ? Insane man" Porsche said the last words in a whisper tho.

" Huh you are crazy I don't even kNow what my idiot brother saw in you by the way he is waiting in the parking lot , run now --shoo, shoo" tankhun said while doing signs with his hand.

"Kinn is in parking lot???? For real ??? Are you not kidding really?????" Porsche yelled out in mixture of shock and enthusiasm.

" Bastard want the world to know " tankhun whispered to himself and just looked up at Porsche with a disgusted expression "yeah ,he is shoo now g-" he couldn't even complete his sentence as Porsche already ran towards the parking lot in a speed of light.

"Desperate bitch tsk "

"Khun tankhun , how come you are here? I mean you don't like it here right?" This time it was pete who asked, having a huge happy smile on his face and arm also looked at him waiting for an answer.

"Of course I don't like it here, I will never ever like it tsk. But how come I let my bodyguards go without my blessings huh???" He finished with a proud smile. Meanwhile arm and pete brust into a fit of giggles and jumped on their khun.

"Yahhhh!!! Are you crazy ?? Get away you heavy pigs, are you eating food or human flesh , smelling so disgusting ewwww!!" Though Tankhun was saying these things , his face still had a small content smile present looking so satisfied, with finally able to see his bodyguards after a whole three days.

"Khun tankhun we love you so much !!!!!!!" Both bodyguards shouted out loud, finally having a feeling like home in their khun 's arms.

Tankhun just pushed them away and replied with a sassy smirk "Everybody does "

"Khun tankhun , did you come alone ?" Pete asked as he found no one with tankhun.

" Yes khun where is pol? Didnt he come with you ?" Arm said still looking here and there trying to find a certain someone.

Tankhun and pete looked at each other and tankhun just winked at pete who understood what his khun is about to do.

" Oh pol, that bastard didn't come with me. He had some work in the house"

" Work? What work khun?" Arm sounded a little too desperate as his eyes furrowed in Confusion.

" Oh yes work. Nowadays he is with that bob alot. He comes to take pol and he happily goes with him. It seems like bob likes pol or something" tankhun said trying to control his laughter as Arm was literally fuming in anger.

Arm POV

As I heard the name of that bastard bob. My blood started to boil in anger. How the fuck he dared to go to my pol again even after I warned him.

You don't love your life right. Fine lemma just go and finish him.

I looked at khun and bowed to him." I need to go now khun tankhun. Will be back"

I bid goodbye to khun tankhun and ran towards the exit of the minor mansion ignoring the calls of pete.

Nothing is more important than killing that fucking bastard now.

As I was about to exit the main gate. There I heard a voice calling out for me.

"Ai'Arm"

Pol? What is he doing here? Wasn't he supposed to be in the main mansion now.

My thoughts were cut off as I heard the voice just behind me.

"Arm, where are you running to?"

Its the voice I missed the most. I slowly turned around and there I saw him.

Pol, looking just so endearing with that beautiful smile of his.

The only smile which makes me forget the world.

"Ai'Arm are you not listening?" And finally i came out of my trance.

My one sided love for my none other than best friend.

Urgh!!!!!!! Is truly a torture.

"pol ? You here but khun tankhun said you didn't come "

I asked the thing which I wanted to know so bad.

" Khun tankhun said that ? But I was here since the beginning it's just I had a call to attend so ,I got late. How can I not come to wish you the best ??"

He was here for me???

"You came here for me?"and the words just rolled down.

"Huh? I mean yes ,iam. "

Fuck, my heart is beating so loud.

"Ai'Arm I want you to come out of this mission without any bruises. I know this is too much but just don't die in there . Do you understand?"

How can I just not love this man???????

I smiled at him, the smile which holds my whole emotions for him.the smile which reaches my eyes.

".You are worrying too much. I will be fine.you just take care of everything in there okie?"

Hell ,cant I just say take care of yourself ??

"I will . You just focus on the misson. "

And I just nodded.

"Hoii , you bastard finally here . Done with you call with BOB?" Khun tankhun said while coming towards us with pete beside him.

Wait ,did he just say BOB?? Was pol actually talking to him? Why was he calling pol and what for - my thoughts were cut off as pol began to speak.

"Ah! Yes khun tankhun ,he just called me to remind me of his ramen. That's it." He said turning towards me with a smile on his face.

The smile which was for that Bob not me.

Ah! They got close. Maybe so close.

Third person's POV

"If you guys are done with my crazy cousin.let's get going." A voice said cutting off the talk among them.

Arm, pol and pete immediately turned towards the voice and bowed.

Meanwhile tankhun, who was just glaring at the newly arrived man.

"Who are you calling crazy you psycho ?" He roared in anger glaring at the man.

"Yo-" he was cut off by

"Khun -vegas , everything is ready"

It was Nop.

And Vegas just nodded.

He looked at tankhun and said "you need to go now."and tankhun surprisingly without throwing any tantrums nodded ,he looked at his bodyguards with a thumbs up and started moving forward.

Pol, looked at Arm, as he was about to say something , arm walked out from there confusing both Pete and pol.

Pol face fell tho.

Pete looked at him and just "pol don't worry I will take care of him.. you should go now"

Pol nodded and just went away.

Now there were only Vegas and pete.

Vegas looked at pete with a smirk and asked.

" Is there something going on between your friends?"

Pete was just shocked but he hurriedly shook his head as a no.

And Vegas nodded " they look suspicious haha"

Pete having no choice just gave him an awkward smile in return.

"Shall we move now khun Vegath ?"

Vegas just shook his head " nah, we have alot of time now" which again left pete in shock.

If we had alot of time,why did he tell khun tankhun to go???

Was the only thought he had but it was soon long gone as he noticed Vegas coming closer to him.

" Are you full?" Vegas asked as their faces were just so close.

And yet again pete was in lost of his words. Vegas slowly trailed his hand to Pete's chin.

" Iam asking you something"Vegas said this time his voice was low and deep.

"Kh-khun Vegath yes I had and iam full " pete uttered looking here and there just making sure that No one should catch them like this.

"Good boy" Vegas said with a wink and left from there.

Leaving pete with all his confusions.

Chapter 10

As everything was getting prepared for the mission. Vegas was called by his father. He snorted to himself while gritting his teeth and just made his way to his father's office.

As he was infront of his father's office room. He took a deep breath and calmed himself down and knocked the door ,and got in as soon as he heard a faint "come in".

Vegas POV

As I entered the office , I was greeted by the presence of my father's half covered face behind the pile of papers and the files.

"Swadee kha pa" I greeted him and just like always he ignored.

"Are you moving according to the plan?" Was the first thing asked by him. I should really stop expecting.fucking shit hurts everytime.

"Yes pa. Everything is going according to it"

"Oh really ? Then why don't I see a progress huh?" He asked in a mocking tone.

" Pa, iam trying my best, to make him believe that I love him. Its hard for me too"

" I don't care what's it for you. I only want a result that too just like I planned. Its final."he said looking at me sternly , the expression which iam looking at since my childhood.

"Khub pa" I said.

" You can go now and yes be successful in this mission.so, that we can show that main family ,who is is the one having more potential." He said having a smirk on his face.

"I need to go now pa" I said and got nothing in reply.

I sighed and just started to walk towards the door. As I was about to go out I heard him call my name.

"Vegas."

"Yes pa" I said looking back at him.

"Call mr. Jiva on your way back" he said and just started to do his works.

Why don't you just wish me luck for my battle like uncle does to his son.

As I came outside. It was nothing as I left.The bodyguards were just gathered together and looking at a specific direction.

What's even is happening?

As I made my way towards them, I heard a few squels and a annoying high pitched voice.

"Hoi! Bastard you finally here, done talking with BOB?"

My crazy cousin is here !! A headache urgh!

As I walked up there , I saw his both Bodyguards , that techno and the tall man , pole maybe....

They look suspicious , like stealing glances at each other and all.

As I kept looking at them, my eyes fell on the petite figure among them looking between my cousin and the bodyguards with a curiosity laced face.

The face which makes me wanna do things.... Wtf Vegas.

They were all talking and I just went up to there and...

"If you guys are done with my crazy cousin , let's move to the misson"I said as I heard an annoying high pitched voice just after that.

" Who are you calling crazy you psycho?"

He dared to call me that!!!!! He should be lucky that he is Cousin and I can't do things to him.

"Yo-" I was cut off by Nop as he said it's time for the mission.. I looked at my cousin and told him to go and he left without any tantrums ???? That's new...

Then the bodyguards the tall one was going to say something to the nerd but he just left? I knew it for sure there is something .....

As they both left .. my eyes finally settled at the head bodyguard.

He was looking here and there as I started to lean closer to him. He is so fun to tease.

As our faces were just inches apart , I slowly whispered in my low tone voice intentionally " are you full?" And just like I expected he panicked and just started looking everwhere except me.

"I asked you something" this time I demanded the answers.

" Yes khun Vegath I ate and iam full." He said as he slowly stuttered. His eyes clearly are displaying the fear of getting caught like this.

Fuck, this innocence!!!

"Good boy" I asked as I winked knowing the effect I had on him.

Third person's POV

All were in the cars ,ready to pull off for their mission. Some were nervous knowing how dangerous the Italians are, some were just following their duties and some bodyguards had their utmost faith in their master.

They know the guy they are following is the best known for his strategies. The people from foreign comes to meet him , talk to him so that they can just grab a small piece of his mind, way of thinking and planning.

But heck, they fail infornt of the cunningness he holds. That's what Vegas theerapanyakul is.

As pete and Vegas already handled the brokers between the Italians and goons. They were just waiting for the boss to come and collect their products. The exclusive ones.

After a few more mins of waiting,Vegas finally saw his prey , coming to him as his eyes scanned the whole place.

As soon as the Italians got to know that they aren't the one who were going to handle them the product. They held their guns at Vegas and the other bodyguards without delaying a single second.

And Vegas just slightly smirked coming closer to the boss.

" you cheated us" said the boss in italian. Vegas just moved slightly forward and was immediately stopped by a bodyguard of the boss.

He looked at him with a unreadable face and then turned to face the boss.

" We aren't the one who cheated you. It was your own members who teamed up against you with those red foxes"

"Do you think iam foolish to believe you?" The boss spitted it out in pure anger.

" Do you think we are foolish enough , to go around make enemies while our leader is still weak?" Vegas this time reasoned out tho it was very hard for him to utter that "leader". As he said that the boss was silent for a sec which made Vegas smirk.

" Why are you helping us?" The boss questioned looking at Vegas suspiciously.

" So, you will be able to feel the heaven soon... With those luxuries" he said having a smirk on his face. And his words surely impressed the other.

" But on one condition" Vegas said and the boss looked at him questionably.

"And what is that?"

"Provide us all the information about the red foxes ,and also the contracts between you two and yes with a promise that you will help us with your everything. Do we have a deal." This time Vegas started to move forward and stood infront of the boss.

The boss contemplated for sometime,his eyed the truck and then looked up to Vegas and nodded with a "deal" as they both shook each other's hands.

Vegas smiled and then said " as we already had a deal , to celebrate it we will give you all the product free of charge"

As the boss and his bodyguards heard it , they all howled in happiness.

"Let me show you your products" he said and started to move towards the truck. As he was just infront of the truck, he looked back at the boss with smirk and unlocked the truck.

And the truck revealed the worst nightmare of the Italians. As soon as the truck was opened.the sounds of bullets filled the the warehouse.

The italians had no chance to compose themselves and ready themselves. There were pete,Porsche and Arm were there in the truck having their gun all ready and already taking down their enemies like it was piece of cake for them.

Porsche, got down the truck and handed Vegas a gun. As they both started to shoot and move ahead.

They both togetherly started to take down the goons. At one end both were cornered by four of the members but they still managed to get through it. Porsche was the one who was taking the lead. He wasn't Ike its his first mission.

As someone was about to shoot Porsche, Vegas was fast enough to cover Porsche and to shot the man.

They was a sudden silence filled the whole place. They both looked around and most of the members of Italians were already dead. The other bodyguards were still engaged in their own fights. Vegas then looked at Porsche and asked " are you okay?"'

Porsche looked at him for a brief second and nodded with "yes ,iam . Thank you."

And for a sec they just continued to stare , until they heard a gun shot at their direction. They both moved their head and looked behind them.

The man was just behind them, already in his pool of own blood. As they both moved their eyes to the truck , they saw pete was aiming his gun ,as his eyes met with Vegas he thrown his gun back in the truck and jumped off.

Vegas and Porsche hurriedly moved and started to walk towards the boss of the Italians, who was already so injured but still was trying to trail towards the door.

Vegas and the bodyguards stood in front of him, blocking his way, the boss directly looked into Vegas's eyes with anguished eyes "you traitor" he spitted out in his weak unsturdy voice.

But it had no effect on the man standing in front of him he just took out his and aimed at his head Saying just "rest in peace"with a smirk following his face.

And the man was dead just like his sub ordinates.

Vegas looked back at all his bodyguards, especially the bodyguards of main family.

"Good job!" He announced and just started to walk towards the exit. As they were all moving. A sudden sound boomed throughout the place.

Bang!!

The whole place was just silent for a few seconds following the sound,until they heard a shriek.

"Aughhh bastard!!! Why me ????"

"PETE" Porsche and Arm shouted as they saw their friend falling on the floor as his stomach was oozing out the blood,as his face was slowing loosing his natural color and was going pale.

"SHOOT" the head bodyguard of the minor family,Nop commanded as they divided into a group and started searching the whole place. Porsche, Arm and Vegas were on Pete's side.

"Die ,you pathetic piece of shit" a loud voice boomed again and everyone stilled on their places.

"Yah who are you calling pathetic you fucking bastard... Let m-me j-just grab my gun"pete shouted in return stuttering in between.

"Aye pete stop it" it was porsche who warned him as he was keeping his hand on Pete's stomach to stop the bleeding.

But the head bodyguard had other plans.

" N-not until I fi-nish my beloved co-co-compainion" he said as he removed his upper shirt and tied it to his stomach to stop the blood which was just oozing out.. Grabbing arm's gun he ran towards the stairs which led to the first floor and the only one floor of the warehouse.

"Aye pete , pete you bastard " Porsche yelled and just started to run after him ,followed by Arm and Vegas.

As they reached the first floor, it was quite big , the three started to search for the head bodyguard. After a few mins of searching , the three came across the two men standing ,facing each other.

It was Pete and the other man,whose identity was still unknown.

As they were behind the unknown man,they can clearly see the bodyguard who was glaring deadly at the man ,slowly walking towards the man., There was no trace of fear on his face despite being shot.

The man was also moving towards pete , as he was about to punch him , pete kicked him in his abdomen as he fell on the ground.. pete went to him in a fast pace and just started throwing punches on his face and especially jaw with all his strength.

Vegas ,Porsche ,arm and along with all bodyguards were just witnessing the scene infront of them with widened eyes and dropped jaws.

" Bastard. Come on call me pathetic.. co-come on c-come on " he said each word with a punch.

"SHOUT OUT LOUD WITH ALL YOU CAN" he roared at the man who was already in the state of being unconscious..

"Ye- pete" it was Arm who called out for him, as all the others were just so shocked to even utter a single word because this side of the soft looking head Bodyguard was surely so surprising.

"F-fucking s-shit" he mumbled as he just shot the man right on his forehead.

He slowly got up and stood straight, looking blankly at the now dead man.

" Y-your l-loss.. r-rest i-in pe-peace"

He then looked up , observing all the eyes on him with a shocked expression ,he passed them a light smile before he fell on the floor being unconscious.

" PETE"

Vegas yelled running towards the said bodyguard, picking him in bridal style as he ran towards the exit ordering his bodyguards to ready the cars.

chapter 11

Vegas along with the other bodyguards reached the hospital with pete still in his arms. Tho, they were trying to make him conscious again it was of no use. It was like the head bodyguard didnt wanna wake up. No matter what.

Soon the doctors came and took him into the operation theatre. The main family was quickly informed and just after a few mins Tankhun and kinn along with Pol and big was in the hospital.

" Ai' Porsche, how can this happen? Who is the one who shot my Pete huh ,tell me ???" Tankhun interrogated Porsche as soon as he reached to them.

"Tankhun ,don't shout in here its the hospital" kinn said trying to calm his brother.

Porsche then started to speak..

"We were returning back after Vegas killed the boss but suddenly a gun shot was heard and then we heard pete screaming in pain " Porsche spoke looking at both kinn and tankhun who were looking at him with widened eyes.

" Then?" Was the only thing uttered by tankhun in his trance.

"Then.. the bodyguards started to search for him but he dared to curse Pete and he lost his cool and killed him by himself " Porsche completed with a sigh leaving his lips.

" That bastard ..... Why didnt you guys directly bring him here ,.... Why did you let him run after that leach whyyyyyyy???"

Tankhun said as his body slowly dropped on the floor and loud shrieks of cries escaped from his mouth. Arm and pol hurriedly ran towards their khun trying to calm him down.

Where all this mess was going on one side ,on the other side Vegas was just staring at the operation theatre with a blank face. Kinn looked at him and walked towards him. He stood infront of him and starting to speak...

" Vegas... Thank you for bringing our bodyguard to the hospital. I think you should go now,uncle must be waiting for the good news".

"No." Was the only said Vegas said and turned towards the OT.

"Huh? What do you mean Vegas?" Kinn asked while looking at the other man with furrowed eyebrows.

" Don't you understand I said I won't go "said Vegas In a firm tone.

" And why is that?"

" You don't have to know" he straight forwardly said without giving a chance for the other to speak further.

Tho Kinn was not satisfied by the answers he just shrugged it off and went to Porsche.

Finally an hour later the wait was over as the doctor came out of the OT. Everyone from the main family present there ran towards the doctor and just started to bombered him with questions.

" Doctor, is he fine ?"

"Doctor, when will he wake up"

"Is he alive yet or turned into a ghost already "

" Do we need to do a lung transplant?.... That bastard will spend all of my money "

"Khun tankhun what are you even talking about" Arm asked as he looked at his khun with a "are u serious" look.

" And Porsche do you wanna know that pete has become a zombie and is coming to hunt you down " pol said with a disappointment laced face.

"Hoi! I worry about my bodyguard and kinn will pay the amount for his surgery.. do you get that kiiiiiinn?" Tankhun expressed his thoughts and let last looked at his brother with a serious look which says try to deny me you will have a tour of hell while being alive and kinn definitely didn't want that..

And for the whole time the doctor was looking at them as if he is encountering all the patients from the mental asalym at once.

But as soon as kinn noticed the look on the doctor's face,he cleared his throat and spoke " how is he doctor?"

The doctor nodded to himself before saying " he is fine ,we have successfully removed the bullet which was shot into his abdomen , as he was late to bring,he had lost more blood Than he should have. So, the chances of him waking up are not until tonight. "

Everyone listened to the doctor very intently and nodded to the words he let out.

"Can we shift him?" Was the question asked from the very back. The doctor looked at the said person and nodded.

"Yes khun Vegas he can be shifted" and Vegas nodded with a satisfied look on his face..

" Kinn let's move him to the main mansion." Vegas said while looking at kinn and he could only nodd with a "yes that will be good for him"

" I will get the discharge papers ready" doctor said and left with a bow.

"You psycho why are you still here ... Because of you my bodyguard is in there sleeping huh" tankhun said while slapping Vegas here and there.

And Vegas simply rose his eyebrow while looking at him " I didn't tell him to kill that guy like his life depends on it" he replied with a shrug. He simply then turned around and started walking out of the hospital.

"Bastard" was the curse which followed him outside of the hospital.

After a whole one hour pete was finally shifted into the main family in the unconscious state.He was still surrounded by his friends who were just joking around looking at his pale face.

Tankhun looked at his bodyguards and smiled lightly as he sat between the three. " What are you guys still doing here? Its already 8 in the evening.Arent you guys hungry ?"

The three of them just shook his head as a no at once and tankhun sighed "hoii don't worry about my pete that much, he won't like it and he won't appreciate you guys starving because of him ... So ,you guys should just go and have your food and probably rest too." He said and at the very moment he was sounding just like a adult man.

"But khun tankhun how can we l-"Arm was cut off by his mate Pol.

"Arm you should really go and have some food. You haven't eaten from the morning" said pol expecting an answer from his friend but sadly wasn't received one. Arm just nodded and went out of the infirmary room.

"What's going on between you and arm ?" Porsche finally asked already fed by the ignorance of Arm and pol's continuous tries.

Pol just sighed and shook his head a No before saying " nothing.... I don't know what happened, anyway Porsche you should go now.He doesnt like eating alone. Go."

"Are you sending me for him ?"

"Aish just go man" with that being said he pushed Porsche out of the room.

"Khun tankhun you should have some rest too . Its quite late for you and yes tell them not to come here again ,I will take care of pete" pol said while looking at his khun.

"Yes okie but inform me as soon as he wakes up okie . I need to punish him " Tankhun said while looking at Pete's pale unconscious body with worried eyes.

And Pol just smiled looked at his khun 's worry laced face and his words. He sat beside his friend and just stared him for a few secs and then started speaking.

"Ai pete can I ask you something?" He waited for his friend to answer and then just laughed at his foolishness.

"Thank God you are unconscious , I will be able to tell you something I have never intended to tell anyone."

"Pete do you know why is Arm ignoring me ?" He asked as a lone tear escaped his eyes.

" Do you know why do I feel like I won't get to see him smiling at me like before?"

"Do you know why do I feel like someone is just stabbing my heart continuously everytime he ignores me?"

"Do you know why I feel like I want to hug him tight so that no pain will ever try to shade him?"

" Do you know why I feel like someone is snatching him away from me ?"

"If you don't know the things I asked above then could you please tell me why do I feel so different with him ? Why do I feel myself more infront of him? Why do I always am the real me only infront of him? Why do I feel like my heart is running a marathon everytime he acts to flirt with me.? Why ... Am I the only one to feel this ?"

" Isn't it effecting him looking at me trying hard to make him talk to me again?"

"Its been a whole day already , he isn't missing me right..... Hell maybe pol is the only one missing his best friend.

"Best friend ah.... Sometimes I feel like I never wanna be his best friend ... It feels like we are best friends of name only."

"We dont share our worries anymore... We don't share our lives anymore... We don't talk anymore like before.. the Arm I knew before was much different than the one I know now.. "

" Am I the only one feeling all this... Why do I feel like this... Why do a best friend feels like this.... Is it okie to feel like this.... Why do I feel like keeping him to only myself... Why"

And with this he broke down ... The bodyguard who was always smiling no matter what is crying alone without the world knowing. That's how he is.... Never ever expressing the sadness to the world.

After crying for like hours he just slept on the couch placed beside the bed.

Pete stirred in his sleep groaning in pain as he tried to lift his body up. His throat was aching as the sudden thrist knocked down his throat.

He looked around the room and his eyes fell on the sleeping figure of his friend. He tried to call out for him but his voice wasn't coming out as he suddenly felt like he couldn't talk at all.

As the last option left for him ,he slowly started to reach out to the jug of water placed beside his bed. As he got a hold of the jug he tried to lift it up but it was all in vain. He couldnt even bring himself to lift it.

As his hands were shivering on the jug , an other hand was placed on his own.

He looked up from the jug to the owner of the hand. The owner of the hand quite surprised him.

"Kh-khun ve-vegath."

chapter 12

As pete looked up at the owner of the hand , he breath was caught in his throat as he felt like he was dreaming looking at the heir of the minor family infront of him and helping him was just felt like a dream to him.

"Kh-khun Ve-vegath?" He slowly called out in his weak unsturdy voice but wasn't received a reply. The man infront of him was just busy pouring water into the glass and when he was done with it he raised the glass up and slowly took a step towards the still shocked head bodyguard.

"Can you get up?" Was the first thing he asked ,his tone was low octave ,eyes staring deep into the bodyguard.

Pete could only shook his head and look down. At the said moment he was just feeling so worthless despite being the head bodyguard how come he could be so weak. He felt pathetic infront of the man standing before him.

A sigh left Vegas's mouth as he kept the glass on the table and moved towards pete to help him sit up the bed. He slowly brought his hands to the back of the bodyguard and started to guide him to sit up. As he sat up on the bed ,he kept a pillow behind his back.

"Here" with this being said he slowly brought the glass of water close to Pete's lips and ever so gently made him drink it.

"Th-thank you khun Vegath" pete expressed his gratitude while bowing his head in the process.

"Ah! Its okie iam not here to have your thank you" he said as he sat on the stool placed near the bed. Pete could only nod as response.

After a whole min of silence. Pete finally raised his head and asked "khun Vegath em.... What time is it?"

Vegas looked around the room and tsked seeing that there is literally no clock in here. He took out his phone and checked the time before saying.

"Its 5 in the morning"

Pete's eyes widened as he heard the answer. He looked at his khun with the same widened eyes and asked in a slow confused tone " khun Vegath how Come you are here at this time? I mean everyone must be still sleeping".

Vegas looked at him with a blank face and nodded before saying

"yes ,they are still sleeping and the guards at your gate are sleeping too without any care of this world". At the end he just rolled his eyes.

And pete just ducked his head down in the embarrassment as he tried to frame his words " ah, no no khun Vegath they must be tired ,you see they stand their all day in the bright sunlight so ,it must be tiring for them other than that they are the best"he completed with a bright smile on his face with a thumbs up.

A small smile crept on his face as he looked at the bodyguard but he immediately cleared his throat and said " enough of your colgate ad you need to rest now" and pete pouted as he heard his words.

"By the way khun Vegath why are you here so early in the morning ?" He asked as he kept looking at Vegas with curious big eyes.

And Vegas just started to come closer to him without saying anything. Pete visibly gulped so hard as he kept looking at Vegas with his eyes blinking rapidly.

Vegas as he came closer to pete,he rested his forehead against him and cupped his face with his right hand as he slowly caressed his cheek before saying " what if I say I came here for you?" He said as his lips slowly formed into a smirk as he noticed the bodyguard's face loosing all its color and his widened eyes.

After being satisfied with the view he moved back and just kept his hands into his both pockets while saying "Relax.. do you really think I will just come here for a mere bodyguard ?"

Pete face turned into a sour one as he registered his khun words. He ducked his head down and slowing shook his head as no.

Vegas,as he noticed the expressions of him , he let out a sigh as he again started to move towards him and this time he stood a meter away from him ,he brought his hands to pete's chin and made him look up.

As his eyes met with the bodyguard, they both kept Looking at each other for the following seconds and then Vegas started speaking in a soft tone surprising himself as well.

" Get well soon do you get that ? We are delaying the party because of you so, bring yourself together and try hard to be healthy again."

Pete kept looking at the man infront of him who just made him feel the utmost care of this whole world in just a few words. He unknowingly nodded as a response with a ever so soft "krub" satisfying the man as he passed a smile to him and just went out of the room without looking back.

And as soon as vegas left the room ,he squealed like a high school girl whose crush just looked back at her. He was Continuously Chanting the only thing "khun Vegath"

"Khun Vegath" ,"khun Vegath" haha "

After squealing for a while , he ducked his head down as he slowly brought his hands to his cheek which was caressed by Vegas ... He caressed the same spot as his lips curved into a shy smile , his face was slowly turning into the bright shade of pink as he kept remembering the moments.

"Esh! Petee no ,no don't remember ah! Why do I feel like my face is burning .... Calm down pete ,CALM DOWN aiiiish " he said as he slowly fanned his face

After being quiet for the few seconds he looked up at the ceiling and just stared into it without saying a word ,his lips still was curved into that bright smile , he ever slowly brought his hands to his chest as he felt his fasten heartbeats ... His heart was feeling giddy , even though he had pains all over his body now ,he for the first time felt the happiest.

Khun Vegath ,you are making me fall harder for you

chapter 13

Pete was sleeping soundly ,his face still had that small soft smile ,it was like he was having the best sleep of life but then someone just decided to ruin it.

"Hoiiiii Pete Get up!!!!!!!!!"

An annoyingly high pitched voice was heard as pete just pulled his blanket up trying to block the sound but soon the blanket was snatched away from him and the bright ray or sunlight disturbed Pete's morning and the heavenly sleep. He sat up on the bed still dozing off while sitting and yet again he heard the same annoying voice.

"Aye bastard get up now ... Didnt you sleep all day yesterday even the snails doesn't sleep this much."

"Khun tankhun I want to sleeeeeeep" he finally uttered in his sleepiness exaggerating the last word.

" I won't let you sleep noooooooow" tankhun did the same which made the bodyguards present there cover their ears to not let them bleed.

"Ai'pete khun kinn is coming to meet you ,you better be ready" this time Arm said in a soft tone while ruffling Pete's hair and pete just leaned into it.

Well someone present there in the room surely didn't like it.

"Pete, how do you feel now tho?" Pol finally decided to speak but his eyes were on the man standing before pete.

" Iam fine pol-ah" he said while smiling towards him and got one dazzling smile in return.

"I will ask that to my bodyguard .. who are you to ask that huhhhhh?" Tankhun said while glaring at pol as his eyes sneakily glanced at Arm who was looking at pol with strangely worried eyes.

"Iam sorry khun tankhun.. I just wanted to know" pol apologized with a bow.

" Chai.. chai.. this world best fashionable man will forgive your poor ass" tankhun said sassily as he flipped his hairs.

"Krub" pol said and just kept looking down not daring to meet anyone's eyes.

Tankhun looked at him and then at Arm who was still looking at him with worried yet longing eyes. This made him twitch his mouth in annoyance "bastards".

As they were talking or more like tankhun was talking they heard a Knock on the door and then a deep voice following the knocks.

"How are you doing Pete, feeling well ?"

As they heard the voice of the man the bodyguards immediately bowed to him and stood silently in the corners of the room and pete just gave a nervous smile in return before saying...

" Khun kinn .. yes iam all fine feeling alright .. everything is good haha" and ended it with an awkward laugh.

Kinn looked at him with a raised eyebrow but anyhow nodded before saying " if that's the case then you can rest today and work from tomorrow and yeah... Good job!!!"

With this he went out of the room.

"Kap khun ka" pete shouted in the response.

As kinn went out of the room ,Porsche entered while panting heavily .

"Ai why do I feel like a dog has ran after you ... Did you steal its food?????" Tankhun asked as he kept looking at Porsche with furrowed eyebrows.

"I-iam n-not like you" Porsche said as he kept panting in between.

"You bastard !!!!!!!" Tankhun loud curse boomed throughout the room but it still didn't effect Porsche as he went to pete hugging him,,, without sparing a single glance at the man glaring at them.

"Do you feel okie?" Porsche asked as pete nodded his head which was pressed against his stomach.

"That's good" he said.

"Why are you panting tho? What happened?" Pete asked as he looked up at Porsche with those big Bambi curious eyes.

" You look cute hoiii, and I just ran here from my room hehe racing !!!!" Porsche exclaimed with that signature smile of his.

"What can we even expect?" Tankhun tsked and Porsche just rolled his eyes

As they both glared at each other.

Breaking their glaring Competition pol came to tankhun as he stood infront of him confusing tankhun as well as his friends.

"Khun tankhun "he called out as he got a hmm in reply he looked up and then ducked his head down before saying

" I-i wa-want to g-go to my h-home" he finally let out being a stuttering mess. Tho his words weren't that clear .. the members present in the room surely understood as their eyes widened as they registered his words.

"You w-wanna go?" Tankhun asked back trying to confirm .. he was blinking his eyes rapidly as he stared at his Bodyguard with his eyes still widened as he waited for the answer.

Pol nodded unable to form the words as he was still looking down

, he couldnt see the shocked looks of his friends and his boss.

"Why?" Was the thing asked by tankhun as it was very confusing to them.

"I-i just want to feel my h-home again ,my family again" uttered pol and finally raised his head as he looked at his boss.

Tankhun was silent for a while , the room was just so pin drop silence and then their khun decided to break it.

"Okie... I won't stop you ... How many days ??"

Pol looked at him with a big smile and said "thank you very much khun tankhun.. thank you and I ah- will stay their for like 10 days hehe"

"10 DAYS" tankhun along with his two friends excluding arm shouted together shocked by the number of the days he would be leaving.

"Eesh! Why do you guys yell like that?"
He expressed annoyingly.

"Pol you will be really going?" Pete asked as he looked at his friend with puppy eyes.

Pol smiled at him before saying " yes pete I want to"

"Aye but why so sudden ... You never went there then why now " Porsche was the one who was asking him now.

Pol glanced at Arm .. secretly tho and said " tho I never went, I wanna go now. so, I think this is the time "

Pete and Porsche nodded with the disappointment laced faces

"When are you planning to leave then?" Tankhun asked " today khun tankhun"

"WAIT WHAT TODAY??????" The three of them shouted again receiving the glares from the said bodyguard.

"Yes today .. I have already packed my bags and my bus is in an hour. So I will soon get going" he said as he kept looking at arm who was just looking down.

"What If I had not given permission to you?"

"I would have begged you hehe"he said while having a sheepish smile.

"Bastard".

"Okie then khun tankhun take care of yourself .. don't eat too many southern dishes you get sick easily .... Pete take care of yourself and be careful of evil spirits and Porsche stop being this nasty with khun kinn... You can do that in room not in corridors eesh!"

"YAAA!!!! Do you have to see that??" Porsche shouted being slightly embarrassed. And pol could just laugh looking at Porsche embarrassed face.

" Why are you being like you won't be coming back huh?"tankhun asked seriously making Arm snap his head to pol who was already looking at him with longing eyes.

As their eyes met with each other ..Pol just passed a smile to him before saying " where would I go leaving behind my only home?"

Pete ,Porsche along with tankhun looked at Arm as they listened to their friend.

Meanwhile Arm could no longer bring himself to move a single muscle of his body. It was like he was frozen then and there. His mind was just repeating only one thing " I wanna go."

They both kept looking at each other till Pol broke the eye contact and without saying anything just moved towards the door. As he was at the door he turned around and looked his friends with a big triumphantly smile on his face and said " wait for me idiots will you?????"

Pete,Porsche smiled in return before shouting out as loud as they can "we will idiot... Come back soon."

And tankhun smiled before shouting " who are you calling idiot you bastard I will make you rot in hell if you won't come back within 10 days".

Pol took a last glance at them lastly at arm smilingly and just gone from there.

chapter 14

Double update 🥺

As pol went out of the room , tankhun ,pete along with Porsche snapped their heads to arm who was still just looking at the door with sadness all over his face.

"You should run after him idiot"

Arm turned his head towards Porsche who just rolled his eyes at him.

"Eh why should I do that?" Arm uttered as he tried to play it cool.

"Seriously Arm after ignoring him the whole day ,you are saying why should you go after him? Really,?" This time pete said as he shook his head in disappointment looking at his friend.

"Huh? I didn't ignore anyone ... What are you even talking about pete .. you should rest your head is seeing things" Arm said looking here and there trying to change the topic.

"Arm..Really ?How could you say that you didn't ignore?" This time it was Porsche who asked being disappointed as well.

"I really didn't ig-" and arm was cut off by....

"You think we are fools?"

The three bodyguards looked at their khun with widened eyes as he suddenly started speaking.

"Huh tell me do you think us as some fools or you think whether that guy is a fool who is running behind you since yesterday trying to talk to you, trying to make you talk to him. Why?why do you think ignoring is the only best thing you can do? Why are you punishing him? Huh if you don't like him talking to you ,you should just clearly tell him to not run after you like a fool he is."

Tankhun said everything looking staring into the eyes of his bodyguard who was still looking at him with eyes wide from being his glasses.

"k-kHun tankhun i-" he was yet again cut off by Him.

"Arm.why are you doing this? You do know right that ignoring isn't the solution. If something is bothering you regarding him you can just tell him. Aren't you guys best friends ?"

And arm just nodded to his question.

"Then,since when best friends started ignoring each other but yet again we all know that you guys like each other more than best friends haha"

He slightly laughed but arm just shook his head as response.

"No khun tankhun. He doesn't like me the way I like him. I know that ignoring isn't the solution but do you know that it's the hardest for me. Its hard to just be the best friend to him. Its hard to see the people trying to court him and I could do nothing other than faking my laugh."

Pete,Porsche and tankhun looked at each other for a brief second as the three shook their heads as a no and then tankhun began to speak.

"Oh god!!!! How come you are the idiot one handling the whole main family's techno... Its beyond me. "

Arm just glared at his khun getting a glare back In return.

" Do you really think pol doesn't like you?" Porsche asked as he laughed a little.

"Idiot, pol doesn't like you ..he is in love with you for ages. Do you think he act like himself infront of all of us.. no, he is himself with only you."

" Do you think he prepares food for all of us ... Nope he only does it for you"- pete

"Do you really think pol worries about everyone's eating habits? No ,you are special to him"-porsche

" Are you really blind to see how pol looks at you the whole time ... His eyes are always on you "

"Do you really think he let's everybody court him...Hell nah he tells people to ask him out infront of you so that you can be jealous and confess to him soon."

The three of them after completing their things looked at Arm who was just looking at them with a dropped jaw being very shocked as he couldn't even believe his friends now.

"W-what?" Was the only thing he uttered still so shocked over the bare Truth he was blind to.

" Are you that slow??? The conclusion is pol is in love with you and you need to run now as pol is already leaving and is at the main door" a new voice came from the door.

As they all turned towards the door... There stood big and ken with all their glory.

Arm neither glancing nor caring of anything in world for now just ran out of the room in a speed of light.

As arm left .. big and ken bowed to tankhun and stood there smiling at each other which made tankhun to look at them with furrowed eyebrows.

"Why are you two smiling like some idiots now?"

Ken cleared his throat and immediately looked away from big and then casually glanced at his watch " oh god ... We completely forgot big, khun tankhun you are called by khun korn.. that's why we actually came here." Big hurriedly nodded with " let's move now khun."

Tankhun nodded and just went with them.

Meanwhile with armpol

Arm ran as fast as he could to the main gate of the mansion... As he reached there he saw no one. He frantically started to search here and there but found no one.

A lonely tear left the shade of his eyes as the thought of losing pol set his heart on fire. He slowly dropped on the floor whispering only one name "pol".

As he thought of getting lost in the dark ,a sudden ray of light engulfed him, not allowing the darkness to consume him.

"Arm?"

As arm heard his name being called out by the one he was here for, he didn't waste a single second as he immediately hugged the buff man standing before him.

"Pol, i-i am so sorry ... p-Please don't go.. pl-please don't leave me.. please."

Arm didn't know that he was crying until the man infront of him pulled him out of the hug and wiped off his tears.

"Arm... What are you even saying huh ? Why would I leave you.. iam just visiting my home that's it.. will come back soon." Pol said while cupping arm's face as he gave him the softest smile ever.

" You are still leaving because of me."arm sadly uttered looking down at his feet.

"Emm...maybe yes or maybe not.. haha I just wanna clear my mind and bring my peace of mind back that's it. You don't have to feel guilty about anything okie?" Pol said as he slowly bent forward to look at arm.

" Pol.... I don't want you to go" arm said in the lowest tone possible as he was already feeling nervous infront of his best friend.

Pol laughed a little before saying "aren't you cutest arm...eeee haha .. I will be back soon. Don't sulk"

Arm facial expressions suddenly changed from a soft to cold one as he heard pol.

He slowly started to move towards pol ..As pol stated to step back. Arm as he caught the sight of wall behind pol smirked as he pinned pol on the wall making the said man's eyes widened in pure astonishment.

"A-arm w-what ?-"

He was cut off by the arm as he placed his index finger on his lips .. stopping him to talk further. Arm slowly moved his head and nuzzled his nose to pol's ear as he sniffed him making pol shake in pleasure.

" You think iam a baby? Baby... You don't know this baby can show you the heaven on this earth" he whispered in his ear as he ever so slowly bit it and then licked it making pol almost moan in there.

But pol controlled himself as he was still so confused about all this... He decided to put it first " a-arm if this is some kind of prank you are pulling on me .. believe me I will kill you this time"

Though it was meant to be a warning his tone was the softest.

"Pol... I never lied to you ... Neither the so called pranks were fake... I just did what I want to and called it a prank so that you won't suspect me." He honestly replied and the answer was enough to shock pol to the core.

"That means -" he was again cut off arm.

"It means that the time I kissed you, Confessed to you, acted possessive of you, proposed you and all wasn't fake or any pranks."

"Arm ... I-i " and yet again arm cut him off.

"Let me say..... Pol I don't know why or how I fell for you, I seriously can't think of anything or anyone after you.. I want you... Wanted you and I promise it will be only you..... Aish .. pol i- I genuinely love you... No not as a best friend ... I love you as a man loves another man."

Pol eyes became teary as his heart was finally at peace... The god has finally answered his prayers ... He was just the happiest person Alive now.

Pol kept looking at Arm without saying anything which was enough to Increase the nervousness in him.

"Pol you do-" and this time pol cut him off saying...

" You better order My ramen everyday if not I will divorce you the next day itself " he said as he laughed at the end along with arm.

" As you say my queen haha"

Pol tho it was meant to be a joke still blushed so hard ,giving arm chances to tease him and to stare him as well.

Meanwhile with pete

As tankhun left the room , he and Porsche were just talking about random stuffs and then Porsche got a call from kinn and he left saying it's an urgent work.

Pete then decided to sleep again as he had nothing to do and nobody to talk to in that giant infirmary room.

As he was about to lay down that's when he heard a oh-so deep and familiar voice... Maybe the voice he was missing since the last night....

"Oh! Are you planning to sleep?" The voice started to get closer to him as the man took steps towards him.

"Ah- swadee kha khun Vegath.. and no iam just going to lay as it's boring in here hehe".

"Yes it is btw how are you feeling today?".

Pete was silent for sometime contemplating to what to say the truth or the lie he told to everyone.

As he was about to choose the second option ... Vegas spoke

" I need the truth.. which is hidden from everyone"

-vegas

chapter 15

Vegas... As he entered the room his eyes fell on the figure on the bed sitting leisurely .. with those pouting lips. He stood there without making a single sound and just observing the man In the bed who was hissing in pain here and there and his lips were formed into a constant pout.

However his eyes furrowed in confusion as he observed that the bodyguard was having a difficulty to even move his hand or just stretch his body... As he saw that he was going to lay down ....Wanting to talk to him he walked towards him finally making him aware of his presence.

"Oh- are you planning to sleep?" He said it out as he kept his eyes still on him.pete snapped his head towards the direction and his eyes slightly widened as he looked at the man standing infront of him.. but this time he composed himself and smiled slightly before saying...

" Swadee kha khun Vegath.. and no i was just going to lay down its quite boring in here." He let out looking at his khun.

Vegas nodded "yes it is btw how are you feeling ?"

Pete looked down immediately as his face shown how hard he was thinking of something, Vegas noticed that and slightly shook his head to himself as he said " I want the truth.. which is hidden from everyone"

Pete eyes almost popped out of his sockets as he heard his khun.. he didn't say anything for a while and then just looked up saying "Iam all fine khun Vegath"

Vegas just rolled his eyes at the answer " I already told you I want the truth ... Still you dare to lie to me?"

Pete gulped as he slowly met the eyes of his khun and sighed before saying "em.. I feel numb. It feels like my body has forgotten how to move... And I have a slight headache and above all i-iam very hungry and cr-craving for s-southern dishes " he after saying everything immediately ducked his head down.

And for Vegas,he was quite surprised on one side he was getting worried about his health and on the other side he wanted to laugh at the bodyguard's cuteness.

Cute ---- was the first thing which came in his mind. But as he registered his own thoughts he cleared his throat and came towards the bodyguard as he ever so slowly brought his hand to the bodyguard's forehead checking the temperature.

And pete could just close his eyes shut feeling the soft hand on his forehead. Oh- how he wished it could stay there forever. But it didn't last long as vegas retrieved his hand back.

" Your temperature is normal.. I think your body is feeling numb because it has been in rest mode for a whole day... So you better take a walk or something.. but don't run .. it will cause you pain.. ah I mean that your body will be tired soon."

Pete cleared his throat as he had a big smile on his face.. suddenly feeling all energetic after hearing the concern in Vegas voice. And for the response he nodded with a simple "krub".

Vegas again began to speak " oh and one more thing the party is day after tomorrow and for this party Porsche has suggested a dress code and it would be casual wears and we will be going to his friend's bar."

Pete smile dropped as he heard his best friend name from his khun 's mouth ... Yeah how can I forgot about them both... Dumb pete.

Pete was lost in the thought as his face slowly turned expressionless and Vegas was quick to notice that but nonetheless said nothing.

After a while of them being completely quiet ...Vegas glanced at the man and just without saying anything went out of the room... Leaving pete alone with the feeling of loneliness and thousands of thoughts.

However pete sighed out of irritation and just slept off all his thoughts....

The party day

Pete was back in his room yesterday and also joined his duty back however the thoughts of a said man still bothered him even if he was engaged in the most busy work.. and today it seemed like even the fate wants him to go to the party...

Even though he said he don't feel like going his friends kept bugging him to come and then he thought to ask khun tankhun that maybe he will need him in here but for the first time tankhun told them that he had some plans with kinn and the last option for pete was kinn but to his unfortune when he went to kinn ,he was already busy with his brothers.

Having no option left for him , he randomly started to select the clothes and that's when he suddenly remembered that a certain someone will be there too in the party. He selected the only best pair of cloth he had in the wardrobe. He got ready In a few mins and stood infront of the mirror staring at his reflection. He stared at it constantly as a wide smile plastered at his face looking satisfied by his look.

After 20 mins of ride from the main family the bodyguards... Porsche,pete,arm and along with pol reached the club of yok. Pol was dragged by his now boyfriend Arm who was not gonna leave him for a single second.

As they all entered the club .. it was filled with the smell of alcohol mixed with the sweat ,the bodyguards of minor family were already drunk and were dancing without any care of the world .... A few dancers were there on the stage swaying their hips on the music.

Pete looked around the club searching for a certain someone ... Whom he didn't see for two days straight.. tho pete tried to convince himself that he is here atlast for his friends but in his small part of heart..he know he is here for a certain someone.

As they were all still standing in a group bickering about where to go first a voice interruped them "oh -porsche you are finally here."

Everyone turned their heads towards the voice and their stood the heir of the minor family looking dashing as ever with just a simple white shirt beneath a black jacket along with those tight black jeans.

Pete, as his eyes fell on Vegas .. he was frozen on his spot unable to utter a single word out even though arm and pol bowed to him with a polite greeting he did nothing but just stand there. His mind was suddenly just filled with the thoughts of the man standing before him ,he was so lost in his world that he was deaf to his friends call.

Finally when arm nudged with his elbow he came into his senses as he hurriedly bowed to Vegas clearing his throat in between.

There was a thick silence in between them and that's when Porsche decided to answer.

"Yes, we are here, a little late because of pete haha"

"Oh I see but the thing you should know is you look good tonight" Vegas said in english as he checked out Porsche and Porsche just laughed muttering a thank you in between.

Meanwhile pete felt a sting in his heart as he heard that. He looked down at himself at his clothes.. all his efforts were gone vain as the man infront of him didn't even glance at him.

He without thinking further just made his way towards the bar area and sat on the stool and chugged down the liquid in one go without caring about his health. Arm and pol tried to stop him but he wasn't planning on listening to them.

After the continuous drinks .. he was feeling like the world is revolving.. he was smiling for no reason and then pouting .. muttering something in intoned way ..Asking non sense stuffs to the bartender and then laughing out loud for nothing.

And yes he was drunk....

As he was still swaying on the stool while laughing not aware of the eyes staring at him the whole time.

his eyes caught a figure who was smilingly talking with someone.

His eyes saw Red as he marched towards both the men and stood between them shouting out loud.

"KHUN VEGATH"

chapter 16

Vegas and his junior from college yim were busy talking about their things. Tho, Vegas was just pretending to hear him as his whole attention was on the one talking non-stop to the bartender. He was well aware of the condition of the said bodyguard but nothlessly stood there without trying to do anything.

As vegas kept looking at pete ,yim was getting annoyed .. he turned his head towards the same direction and caught the sight of pete laughing at the Bartender while drinking the alcohol. Yim rolled his eyes and then just grabbed Vegas's arm as he made Vegas turn towards him.

Vegas was already annoyed and yim was just adding fuel to the fire. But as yim's father is one of the partners of his father,he could do nothing but tolerate him and his skin ships.

"If only I could peel that disgusting skin of your body" were the thoughts running in his mind contrary to his smile on his face.

As yim was talking about how awesome Vegas is, suddenly a figure dashed over and stood between them facing Vegas.

Vegas eyes slightly widened as the bodyguard stood just a few meters apart him and yim blood boiled as he couldn't bare the courage of that mere bodyguard coming in between him. As he was about to say something he was cut off by a loud shout.

"KHUN VEGATH.. HOW COULD YOU"pete shouted out loud totally unaware of his surrounding as he kept glaring at Vegas.

Vegas was quite surprised but chose to say nothing and see what the drunk head bodyguard can do.

But yim was annoyed and mad for many reasons. He without wasting a single second grabbed Pete's color from behind and made him face himself.

Pete was turned towards him in such a fast pace that he was about to fall down if Vegas didn't catch him by his waist.

As yim catched the sight of Vegas 's hands on a mere bodyguard's waist he lost his cool. He yanked away Vegas hands as he glared at pete who was returning back the same.

"How dare you to remove h-his hwands" pete asked him in a unclear way as he paid no attention to the guy infront of him and turned towards Vegas who was just staring at him with no specific emotion on his face.

He then smiled widely at him as he held his both hands and rested them on his waist "hwere yow should k-keep them here onwly okie?" He asked with a cute pout on his face and Vegas just simply nodded his head as a reply.

"Vegas are you serious? Remove your hands from his disgusting body" yim yelled at him as his face was turning red from anger tbh jealousy its the same Vegas who never looked at him deliberately is resting his hands on a mere bodyguard was just too much for him.

But as the words left his mouth pete turned towards him still holding Vegas hands by his ,he glared at him as he said "who are you cawlling disgusting you.. .. you rotten potato" after saying that he just started giggling loudly which made Vegas laugh a little as well.

"You fucking bodyguard what do you think of yourself? How dare you call me something like that you dickhead and first of all move yourself away from my boyfriend" yim yelled as he pushed pete away from Vegas.

Pete after hearing that turned towards Vegas as he glared at him ..... "Is he your boyfrnd?" He questioned vegas as he still was still boring holes on his face.

Vegas suddenly was feeling like a little fear was developing in his heart as he hurriedly shook his head as no.

And pete immediately smiled at him with a thumbs up shouting a "good bwoy"

And then turned towards yim " you lie alot potato.... Shouldn't do that otherwise god will fry you in a pan like some french fries " as he said that everyone around them brusted into a loud laughter including Vegas as his hold on Pete's waist got tighter.

Yim was lost at words listening to the bodyguard but he got his posture back as he again stared at him with the rage filled eyes "you think that I can do nothing about your poor ass.. it won't take me a single min to ruin you and your family... So you better stay In your limits"

Pete looked at him for a few seconds and suddenly shown his tongue out of his mouth in a way of teasing and then just mimicked him which was enough to make yim grab his collar.

He brought his face close to pete as started to speak in a low threatening tone.

"I know the poor bodyguards like you. You think you are the only one with this innocent facard nah my boy, there were many behind the man you are running for... You are just the same trying to get into his pants huh?"

Pete looked at him with a perplexed face as he furrowed his eyebrows in confusion and then slowly muttered "how can I get into his pants? Iam not small as shinchan and it's his pant not a well that I would jump into it haha " and with that he started to laugh again.

Vegas shook his head with a small smile as he went up to him and moved yim back as he looked at him with a stern expression " you should go now it's late and yup you don't have any rights to raise your voice on my bodyguard. So, know your place before opening your little pretty mouth."

Yim, was about to say something but Vegas just motioned him to go out and he just huffed as he went out of the club with heavy steps.

As pete caught the sight of yim running out he clapped his hands in joy feeling like he won the battle.

Vegas turned to pete as he was about to say something arm and pol stood beside pete and held him as they both bowed to Vegas " we are extremely sorry khun Vegas, he isn't in his senses ,I hope you will forgive him." Arm said as he still looking down.

"No." Vegas uttered staring deep into pete eyes who was looking at him with happy wide smile. Meanwhile arm and pol were already sweating as they heard Vegas reply.

"Khun vegas I will make sure he won't do something like this again or even come infront of you" this time pol tried to convince Vegas.

"Handle him to me and you can enjoy the party" Vegas said as he came forward grabbed Pete's hands and started to drag him outside of the club ignoring the calls of both the other bodyguards.

"Oh god save my friend from that devil " they both prayed for their friend who just unknowingly entered the den.

Meanwhile with vegaspete

Vegas dragged pete outside of the club , pete was continuously blubbering something which was unable to understand but it seems like pete was having the best conversation of his life.

Vegas stopped at a park which was very near to the club as he left his hands and pete whined loudly "how dare you leave my hands" he again shouted in a high pitched voice.

Vegas came towards him and just wrapped his hands on his waist as he stared at him hard " you are quite bold huh "

Pete just moved his head away and pouted hard which made Vegas smile as he said "why are you pouting now,look at me and answer "

Pete looked at him with a huge pout adoring his lil plump lips and said " you called his mouth pretty" after saying that he just folded his hands and looked away from Vegas.

Vegas looked confused as he decided to ask "whose?"

Pete looked at him with an annoyed expression while saying "don't act like you don't compliment everyone except me.... Do you even know HOW MANY EFFORTS I MADE TO DRESS GOOD SO THAT YOU WOULD SPARE ME A GLANCE " pete shouted at vegas's face at the end as he again just started to move towards the swing.

Before he could take any other further step Vegas grabbed his wrist as he pulled him towards himself and the force made pete to fall on vegas's chest.

Pete slowly looked up and Vegas looked down at hum with the softest smile he could ever give to someone as he slowly began to speak in his low octave tone.

"You talk about a glance? I felt like I was frozen on the spot when I caught the glimpse of you at the party. You don't need to make efforts to dress this good because for me you were always so beautiful even in that uniform of yours or the baggy night dress you wear... Or even in that hospital gown"

Pete tilted his head to the side "how come you don't compliment me then?"

Vegas sighed "I don't know ... I guess ah .. you I mean. I aish.. fuck it.. you make me nervous"

Pete eyes widened for a sec and the next second he started to laugh out loud as he thrown a few Little punches on Vegas chest still laughing.

And the sight was enough for Vegas to just forget the fact that he spilled the secret of his life to the exact person he needed to hide it from. Vegas kept staring at pete and his wide smile as he was still laughing at him.

"How can I not stare at someone like you?" Were the thoughts running in his mind

Pete after laughing for a while stood straight just to brust into laughter again. "Enough of you laughing at me...Stop now" Vegas said tho he sounded like he was requesting.

Pete immediately stopped and with a blank expression he looked at Vegas who was just looking at him with soft eyes " can I tell you something secret"

He whispered in vegas's ear. And Vegas could only nod.

" Do you know pete? He wants to go" he whispered,confusing Vegas.

"Aren't you pete ?" Vegas asked

And pete just shook his head "iam not" he said as he shook his head as no.

"Oh god ! Are you that drunk?" Vegas ruffled his hair being kinda frustrated.

"You listening to me you idiot?" Pete shouted and Vegas eyes widened "did you just call me an idiot? To Vegas theerapanyakul?"

And pete just nodded innocently " so what ? Why are you this shocked ??? Didnt anyone tell you that you are an idiot yet?"

And Vegas just stared at him hard "you can't call your khun as an idiot ... This is against the rules"

Pete tilted his head in confusion and then he suddenly blushed as he looked down confusing Vegas to the core as he asked "what happened?"

Pete shyly looked at him as he said in a low tone "I wanna call you oppa" he let confusing Vegas.

"What's that? Are you cursing me in some other language?"Vegas said as his eyes were filled with suspiciousness.

Pete just laughed as he went to sat on the swing as he sat in it he looked at Vegas and motioned him to come to him as he got there, pete smiled at him as he said "push it for me"

Vegas looked at him quite shocked as he pointed at himself "me?" And pete nodded like a lil child. Vegas sighed as he went around and started to push his swing but the complains were gone as he heard the loud happy giggles of the man he was doing it for. Which instantly brought a smile on his face.

"Stop, stop ,stoooooop " pete shouted as vegas hurriedly grabbed the swing and let pete get down. As he got down he started to complain "ah,the world is revolving so fast"

Vegas caught pete in his arms as he was about to fall down as they both kept staring at each other , pete suddenly let out a small smile as he started to lean towards Vegas.

Vegas breath hitched and his heart beat quicken as he felt the softest kiss on his forehead which lingered for a few secs. He looked at pete as the said bodyguard was already limp in his arms already falling asleep.

Vegas stared at pete for a while as he still couldn't believe what the bodyguard did but the thing he felt the weirdest was he liked it....

What are you making me feel... What do I name it.... I hope you don't remember this side of me.

Vegas

chapter 17

Pete groaned in pain as soon as he woke up ..Holding his head he screamed in pain as he was feeling like his head will brust into two now... As his friends heard his shriek of cries they hurriedly ran towards his room and brusted into it.

As they entered ,they saw pete was thrashing around in search of something ,pol and arm shared a look and walked towards their friend. Pol urged pete to sit on the bed and was massaging his head ,in the mean time Arm was in search of medicine.

As he got the medicine,he hurriedly gave it to pete and pete just gulped down the med in the speed of light. He was still having a massive hangover as pol continued to sooth him by massaging his head.

After a few Mins when the med finally started to work ,he started to feel better as his cries of pain and whine died down. "Feeling better ?" Pol asked in a low tone still working his hands on his scalp.

"Hmm.....But it still is aching" he let out a whine as his lips curved into a pout. He soon let out a small "owe" as arm smacked his head.

"Aye Arm ,is it the time to do that " pol said looking at his boyfriend with a stern face and Arm just looked at pete deciding to ignore his boyfriend's call.

"Why did you drink so much ? Huh ? A heartbroken man doesn't drink this much " arm huffed in anger as he rolled his eyes.

And that's when Pete started to look around the place only to see he was in his own room and when he heard of arm words ,he started to hear some voices in his head.

"You look good tonight Porsche"

The words kept repeating as he covered his ears with both of his hands trying to block the sounds. Pol looked at his friend distressed state as he started to distract his friend.

"Pete btw you know everyone were staring at you yesterday" he said as he looked at his friend with a sneeky look on his face.

Pete looked at him "why"

"Bruh..Cuz you looked so hwat yesterday" he said with a smirk this time.

And arm just rolled his eyes at his boyfriend's attempt as he was feeling a little jealousy crept in his heart.

"Pete ... Do you remember anything about what happened yesterday" arm asked and looked at pete with serious face.

It was pol who now rolled his eyes at his anti-romantic boyfriend.

"No. I don't. I only remember that I went up to the bar and started to drink" pete said cutting off the boyfriends glaring competition.

"YOU DON'T REMEMBER ANYTHING??????" Pol shouted out loud his face was filled with horror.

Pete flinched a little and then slowly shook his head as he asked "did I do something .... Did you guys carry me home yesterday?"

"Nope we didn't" arm and pol shook his head as a no.

Pete eyes furrowed in confusion "huh then how come iam here now if you guys weren't the one bringing me here ?"

Arm and pol looked at each other and sighed as they were getting confused too. Arm looked at pete "actually lemma tell you what happened after you got so high".

Pete nodded at his friend. And then arm started to narrate the drunken story of pete. He explained everything the way pete went up to vegas, the way he told him to hold his waist, the argument he had with yim and all.

"And at last khun Vegas took you out of the club" arm hurriedly gulped down the water after saying everything.

Meanwhile pete soul just left his body listening to all his deeds yesterday ,he was feeling numb as he just couldn't figure out what and how to apologize to his khun. And the way he was cursing himself inside his head is beyond our imagination.

"Aye pete you okay?" Pol was the one who brought pete out his trance. Pete just nodded still having thousands of thoughts inside his head.

"Pete get freshen up okie... Don't think so much ,we will togetherly apologize to khun Vegas and he will forgive you for sure..mm let's hope he will " arm patted pete's head and Walked out of the room along with his boyfriend.

Pol went out of the room but not before saying "you are quite bold while been drunk.... I loved the pete of yesterday even more haha".

Pete stayed quiet for the following few mins and then suddenly screamed out loud into his pillow.

"Why... Why ....Why do I have to drink so much..... Pete did you really tell him to do that?????? Oh god I want you to take me with you.... I don't wanna live anymore... Maaaa why is this happening ????"

After continuously scolding himself,cursing himself and thrashing around the room he finally got ready for his day. It was his day off and normally it is Pete's favourite day but today he didn't feel like doing anything. But he decided the contrary and went out of the mansion ,roaming here and there trying to distract himself.

As he walking on the left most side of the road , having a ice cream in his hand, he was blabbering to himself " I hope I won't meet khun Vegath any time soon.... Did I say something ridiculous to him....did I by chance say the things I never wanted him to know...."

As he was busy in his own world his eyes suddenly caught the sight of the most familiar person which he never wanted to come across this soon. His eyes widened in shock as horror swept over his eyes... He without wasting any further second ,ran towards the pillar standing a few feet away from him and hide behind it.

After a few mins as he slowly peaked out of the pillar ,he sighed in realief as he could neither see his khun nor his bodyguards. He smiled triumphantly as he patted his own shoulder but the moment didn't last long as he a familiar voice ranged through his ears.

"Tryna hide from me ?"

Pete couldn't breathe for a sec as his could literally feel like his heart had stopped beating. He wanted to run away from this man but then again it felt like the whole world is against his decision.

He ever so slowly turned around and hurriedly bowed to his khun and this time he didn't dare to raise his head to meet the eyes of the khun like everytime he does.

"You find the ground more interesting than me?

This time Vegas leaned down his head to Pete's to look at his face."look up" Vegas firmly stated and pete having no option left looked up to him ,the eyes which were staring deep into his with some unknown glitter.

"Having a hangover ?" Vegas started.

And pete shook his head "no khun Vegath"

"I see. So, do you eh-i mean remember anything from yesterday?" Vegas voice was not Stern and firm like always. Pete slowly shook his head "no, khun Vegath I don't actually remember anything... I just want to apologize to you about yesterday"

"Apologize about what?" He slowly took a step closer to pete and pete took a step back and there he was..... pinned to the pillar by khun. The icecream was long forgotten.

"I- k-khun ve-vegath ah, Arm t-told me th-" he stopped in the middle as he felt the arms around his waist holding it so tight.

Pete gulped down harshly as he slowly looked up at his khun who was just a inch away from him having a prominent smirk of satisfaction on his face.

"Sorry for telling me to keep my arms only around your waist huh?"

He husked in his low octave tone sending shivers down Pete's body.

"Kh-khun ve-" he was cut off as vegas started to speak again.

He slowly came forward and tilted his head towards Pete's left side of the face and started to whisper in his ear

"You know what? You don't need to apologize for that!" And just moved back with a wink.

Pete eyes widened in pure shock as he just couldn't understand his khun words and actions. His words forces him to believe that he likes his best friend but then why the actions says otherwise.

Neither of them tried to get away from each other. Pete tho was confused but he felt like he belonged there... In the arms of his khun.

But well ,for Vegas he wanted to move back but it was like his hands were frozen on the said bodyguard's waist and they were just not ready to move themselves.

Vegas's POV

Vegas.....What are you even doing.....

Do I really need to say the things I said to the bodyguard?

Why can't I just push him away like all the others..

Why do I feel like he makes me feel safe?

Wait what??? Vegas what the fuck no ..... Who is he to make me feel safe ...

You alone is enough for you Vegas..

I should just focus on the mission instead of getting distracted by his face.

Wait now someone has the capacity to even distract me ?? The Vegas theerapanyakul???

This bodyguard will surely pay for it.

Third person's POV

As vegas was busy in his thoughts they were cut off by Pete's simple question.

"Did you have your breakfast khun Vegath?"

Vegas looked at pete who was looking at him with his eyes with whole curiosity filled in them... One can easily find the worry hidden behind them.

Vegas slightly smiled at his question... It felt like it had been ages someone has asked him such type of thing.. " yeah! I had " he said in the most kind way he could.

Pete smiled widely as he nodded his head "that's good khun Vegath... You should always eat full!!!!!"

Vegas stared at the endearing smile of the said bodyguard as the words just slipped out of his mouth "you look beautiful while smiling like that !"

.....

Silence that's what filled between them... Pete as he slowly understood what did his khun just said .... His heart beat quicken as his face was slowly turning into a living tomato..

As for Vegas ,he hurriedly cleared his throat muttering a small "fuck" in between, he moved back and just walked away scratching the back of his neck.

What the fuck did I just say.

Vegas

Did he just call me beautiful

Pete

chapter 18

Vegas was back to the minor mansion ,as he was going to his room a bodyguard was quick to inform him that his father wanted to see him. He nodded as he started to make his way towards his father's office. On the way he was preparing himself for whatever his father wanna talk or do.

He knocked on the door and waited for the permission. He could hear a few whispers and some sounds almost sounding like moans ... He curled his hand into a fist and waited. A few mins later the door was opened and a woman walked out..not any woman ...She was the mistress of kan theerapanyakul and the step mother of Vegas and Macau. Tho the brothers didn't accept her ,they could do nothing about it. The woman was just a few years older than Vegas and did everything to grab Vegas's attention in the start with whatever intention she had. She glanced at Vegas with a smile almost a smirk showing off her perfectly carved teeth. She slowly opened a button of her top showing of the recently made purple Hickey on her milky white skin. Vegas tsked and just entered into the room.

"Oh! You here already"kan said as he fixed his shirt looking at Vegas with a blank face. Vegas just nodded his head and looked at his father to say whatever he called him for.

"How is the plan moving so far ?"

Vegas sighed , he didn't evn do something according to the plan recently as his mind was always occupied ... He slowly looked at his father "its going alright tho I couldn't meet him for a few days ... So, iam planning to-"

He was cutted off by kan as he stood up from his chair and moved towards him ... They both looked at each other and then kan placed his hand on Vegas's shoulder "you gotta propose him tomorrow"

Vegas eyes widened as his heart stopped for a sec ,he looked at his father with a surprise laced face and kan just smirked.

"My son... Its the time you do something for your pa finally , stop being so useless and utilize this charming face of yours like everytime you do"

Vegas just looked down " but pa this isn't the plan"

"Do you know the consequences of talking back to me ? I guess you still remember , don't make me repeat them just do what I say... You got no say in this." Kan said as he pressed hard on Vegas's shoulder ... That he almost groaned in pain.

"You can go now but I want the result very soon and yeah I have got my eyes on you Vegas .. never think that I don't know about the things you do and the people you meet."

Vegas was stilled at his place ,he anyhow nodded his head and bowed to his father while excusing himself.

"Let's see how you do or you will see what I will do with the boy of yours"..

.....

Vegas was walking towards his room ,his face was blank but his heart was at turmoil... He just couldn't understand why was his father hurrying the plan ... It wasn't even the good time to propose when everything was just going well for him.. he doesnt want to ruin it atleast not yet..

As he was walking in the garden suddenly someone jumped on his back and brust into a fit of giggles ... Vegas face turned sour as soon as he realized who it is. "God ! Not now please"

"Tawan... You here ? When did you get back ?"

The said guy got down from his back and looked at Vegas with heart eyes as his lips curled into a beautiful smile.

"I missed you Vegas." He muttered in a low soft tone filled with love. Vegas looked at him with his naturally blank face "yeah... I missed you too tawan." He said in a dried tone.

"Let's go to your room then" Tawan proposed and Vegas eyes slightly widened as he clearly know what the guy was indicating ... At the moment he surely didn't wanna do that... But the question was why he didn't wanna ??

"My room is getting cleaned ... Let's just talk here "

"Oh okie as you say"

They both sat on the bench in the garden. Tho vegas tried to make distance between them tawan was not accepting it ,he kept moving closer to vegas.. and at last they just sat beside each other having no space left between them.

"Now tell me how come you are here ? I mean you weren't supposed to be here before next month right." Vegas asked kinda desperate to know.

"Seems like you are not happy .. whatever it is,uncle kan told me to come here today ,so I came here.. didn't he tell you that we have fast forwarded the plan " he said as he kept moving his hand around Vegas's back.

Vegas looked perplexed "do you know about that too?"

"What do you mean by I know ? Uncle kan and I discussed it together and came to the conclusion that we have to hurry the plan"

"Pa discussed with you ?" Vegas asked and tawan could only nod.

Unable to digest the fact ,he stood and made his way outside of the mansion didn't even bothering to inform to his cousin who was just looking at him with a confusion laced face.

Vegas was wandering around unable to decide where to go. He was just walking where his feet were taking him. After a few mins he found himself infront of the main family.. which confused the hell out of him.

Vegas's POV

How could pa do this to me ? Doesn't he even trust me to discuss the plan with me....

How could he discuss it with that Tawan ...am I that low in his eyes..

Am I that useless to him...

Why pa why ??? Why don't you just treat me like a son.. why don't you just trust me why ?

I know iam not best out there.. but iam trying pa .. I really am.

Now iam infront of the main mansion.. why? I don't know it myself.. why would I come here when the sole reason of my distress is this family...

Third person's POV

Vegas Fixed himself as he walked inside the mansion.. the bodyguards bowed to him .. all were really confused about his arrival because no member of the either family visits without a prior notice. So, of course it was all confusing to them.

Once he entered the main area of the mansion ,he trailed his eyes everywhere finding for a certain bodyguard but couldn't find him. As a bodyguard was going before him,he called for him.

"Yes khun Vegas "

"Inform your head bodyguard to meet me in the garden within the next two mins"

Saying that he started to make his way towards the garden. The bodyguard hurriedly ran towards the room of the said bodyguard. He hurriedly knocked on the door as he kept looking at his watch.

"Ehh pete open the door fast if you don't wanna die so soon !!!" The bodyguard yelled in fear. After a few seconds the door was flung open by a half asleep pete "bastard ... What you want? He whispered in his sleep.

"Khun vegas is here to see you... You better hurry ,don't have time to explain so just run to the garden " saying that he ran to his work.

Meanwhile pete eyes widened as he couldn't understand the fact that Vegas have come here to see him ...

"Why would he come ?? Did he come only for me ?" The only thought set pete heart on fire.

He hurriedly washed his face and ran towards the garden ... Every bodyguard he encountered with was just looking at him with a sad look and some were just praying his shoulder murmuring "its okay".. confusing pete to the core.

As he reached the garden ,he took a deep breath as he was standing behind him. Pete bowed to him with a "sawadee kraap khun Vegath"

Vegas turned around and at the same time pete raised his head.. they both looked at each other without saying anything.... Vegas however felt good looking at that soft face of his.

"Khun Vegath ... Is everything okie? I-i mean did you really call for me ?" Pete muttered unable to hide his concern as soon as he noticed the gloomy eyes or his khun.

Vegas surely felt at peace as soon as the question "is everything okie ?" Was asked ... Sometimes it's just so good to have someone asking how we are and how is everything going with us ... Tho vegas couldn't say what made him call out for pete in his distress .. he still knew the guy infront of him is enough to make him forget the unwanted happenings in his life.

"Yeah.. everything is okie... And i just wanted to ..." There he stopped. He came here and called out for the bodyguard without even thinking what he wanted to talk to him. This wasn't the Vegas theerapanyakul the world know.

"Yes khun Vegath" pete said as he looked at Vegas wanting him to continue whatever he was gonna say.

"Eh its nothing... Its just .. I just wanted to talk "

Vegas let out the words tho he couldn't think of anything and the bodyguard wasnt really helping him to run His mind and find an excuse.

"Fuck why can't I just think of something"

Was the only thing he could think..

"Talk about what khun Vegath ? Is it anyhow related to me or the main family" pete remained his bodyguard posture tho he so wanted to drop it so bad.

"No,its not about the main family.. and why are you being like this ?"Vegas uttered clearly not liking the way pete was behaving.

Pete eyebrows furrowed in confusion "iam sorry khun Vegath ,I can't get you "

"Leave it.. its not helping at all." Vegas let out in an annoyed tone as he started to ruffle his hair. Pete was worried at this point.. why was his khun being like this was the major issue for him now..

"Khun Vegath ,is everything really okie ?You seem kinda stressed

" pete let out in a low tone clearly not wanting to annoy the man anymore.

"Fuck ! Nothing is okie. Not a single thing and i don't even know why would I come to you to make me feel any better.... This is a mess argh !"

Vegas let out being totally annoyed , he didn't even comprehend the things he said .. he just said what came into his mind at the moment.

Meanwhile pete ,he felt like his heart was running a marathon.. did he hear it right? Did Vegas really come for him ??all the way to the main mansion which he despise so openly ?? Did Vegas really come to him to make himself feel better ?

The realization of the reality was enough for pete to feel like he was having a beautiful dream again... But the thing is he knew very well it wasn't a dream at all.. it was real, they were real, Vegas's words were real and he himself was real.

He desperately wanted to say something ,but at the said moment he couldnt even find the words, he was just opening and closing his mouth like a fish unable to utter a single word.

Vegas let out a sigh of frustration at the silence he received "look.. you can just open your damn mouth and say something rather than ogling me like a owl "

"Kh-khun ve-vegath I" as he opened his mouth to say something ... Someone just decided to interrupt the moment.

.....

"Ai'pe- Vegas what are you doing here?"

Porsche

chapter 19

"kh-khun ve-"

As pete was about to say something he was cut off by a voice yelling out loud for him.

"Ai' pe- Vegas what are you doing here ?"

Porsche looked too confused as he caught his best friend talking to the heir of the minor family.

"Hey Porsche ! How you doing ?"

Vegas asked in his english accent giving a sweet smile to the arrived man. Pete looked at Vegas with a annoyed face and just cursed under his breath.

"Vegas ,hi ig iam all good !! How are you and why are you here?"

" I see you don't look too happy seeing me here huh ?"

"Ofc iam not happy ! Kinn will kill me seeing you here !"

Contrary to his thoughts he just shook his head with his endearing smile which had the power to even fascinate the heir of the main family and yeah it did have its effects on Vegas too.

"Nah ! Its not like that ,its not any specific time to meet right? So, I was just confused " Porsche said looking at Vegas while tilting his head.

"Oh ! I just happen to come here that's it ! And was having a small talk to the bodyguard."

"With pete ?What are you talking with him ?"

"You will know very soon,right bodyguard?" Vegas asked at the end while looking at pete.

And pete could only smile sheepishly while nodding his head like a electric toy.

"Having secrets with him?" Porsche asked to his friend the smirk taking over his face.

"What? Ofc not, iam not like some bastard who keep secrets from their best friend about their relationship" pete said sarcastically and sulked at the end.

" Hoiiii !!! I already said sorry to you about that!!You still taunting you bastard ... Very good at it !!I already feel for your children !!!"

"Tsk ! My children ? They will get the best papa unlike your kids ! Will get the most annoying creature !!!"

" Did you just call me annoying !!! You are the one of the most annoying one here ! Am I right Vegas ?"

Porsche called out for Vegas but there was no response , getting confused he looked at Vegas who was looking at pete with a face mix of annoyance and admiration ?

"Vegas?" He shook his arm breaking the bubble he was in.

"Ye-yeah what happened?"

"You spaced out hoi!"

"Oh nah nah I was yeah I mean lost in some thoughts "

Pete cleared his throat making the two of them to look at him. Giving the a big bright smile ,he said "you guys continue .. however I believe khun Vegath have come in search of you hehe ... And I have some work "

With this being said ,he bowed to Vegas and threw a cheeky smile to his best friend and ran out of there.

Vegas kept looking at the retreating figure of pete as he was getting annoyed of the fact that pete dared to believe that he was here for his friend despite the fact of Vegas clearing stating that he was here for him.

Vegas was annoyed and confused about the way pete was thinking or just behaving with him. Everything was just going alright and then he decided to just go.

Was he really okie as he shown himself ?

Was he feeling out of the place ?

Was he feeling that Vegas was lieing to him ?

Was he thinking that Vegas is just playing with him?

There were number of questions which were filled in Vegas mind about a certain bodyguard.. but the question which occupied Vegas mind the most was....

Why was he thinking about what the bodyguard feels or does?

Why would a heir worry about a mere bodyguard?

Why would he find his peace in a person who isn't close to or even friends with ?

As he lost in his thoughts ,Porsche tapped his shoulder to bring him back to the world. Vegas looked at Porsche and passed him a fake smile and the other one doing the same.

And that's when Vegas suddenly got reminded of the words his father told him to do and to say. He slowly cleared his throat and took a step towards Porsche .. keeping a hand on his shoulder he slowly brought him close and started whispering in his ears.

"Porsche, ah can we meet tomorrow?"

Porsche furrowed his brows in confusion and said "tomorrow? Why ?"

"You will know it very soon. I will text you the time and place very soon. Make sure you come...Its very important."

And porsche could only nod his head as an approval "alright ! Text it to me.. I gotta go now."

Vegas nodded with a smile ah- smirk maybe..

"Your work is done Vegas let's just go from here " he slowly whispered to himself and made his way out of the mansion unaware of the pair of the eyes following his every actions.

.....

Porsche entered into his and kinn's room where kinn was sitting on the couch with a bunch of papers In his hands. His brows were furrowed as his eyes were busy scanning the paper reading it line to line. He didn't acknowledge his boyfriend's approach until he kept his hands around his neck.

"You are still busy ?" Porsche asked while sulking.

"Kinda ! Tell me ,do you want me to do something for you Porsche ?" Kinn gently asked while moulding his lips into a sweet smile directed towards his bodyguard who inturn was just sulking.

"You are getting busier everyday... Its been so long we went out and had fun.. " Porsche complained as he removed his arms from kinn and sat on the other couch.

Kinn sighed ,he knew what was going with him and Porsche ,he knew they weren't having any time for each other and kinn knew very well that Porsche was a kind of guy who always wants attention which he was failing to give to him.

"Then.... Shall we go out for dinner today ?" He proposed and Porsche turned his head towards him at the speed of light and started nodding his head getting all excited.

Kinn let out an soft smile towards his boyfriend as he ruffled his hairs " go ahead and get ready ."

Porsche got up from the couch and pecked the lips of kinn and ran towards the wardrobe already wanting to go as soon as possible. Kinn just shook his head with a smile looking at the antics of his boyfriend and got back to his work.

.....

It was already 9 in the evening and out kinn Porsche were out of their home enjoying their date to the fullest with literally no bodyguards following them or they just thought so. Keeping hand in hand they were Walking along the bridge between a park .. smiling to each other ,having small talks in between and mostly just enjoying each other presence.

"Let's talk a picture" Porsche

"Alright !"

Porsche smiled and took his phone out as he started taking a selfie of them.

"Can't you smile a little.... No need to prove that you are a mafia "

"Aish !! This is how I usually smile"

"Why are your eyebrows furrowed?"

"How come I know ?"

"Ai'kinn ease your posture !!!"

And finally after a lot of bickering they were able to click the pictires.

"We look so cool " Porsche expressed as he kept staring at their pics.

"Yeah we do!" Kinn let out as he kept staring at Porsche.

"Why are you looking at me like that ?"

"You look so beautiful!"

"Ai'ki-" and there he was cut off as kinn pulled him into a kiss and there they shared a passionate kiss which would be enough to prove the whole world how they were so madly in love.

"Let's have something..." Porsche said as he smiled against kinn's face. There faces were still attached to each other.

"You wanna have my food ?" Kinn. Teasingly replied having a cheeky smile on his face only to get smacked by Porsche.

"Iam.hungry!!!" Porsche shouted looking up at the sky and kinn just covered his ears.

"Aye don't shout in here "

Porsche looked at kinn and just smiled before shouting again...

"I love you kinn theerapanyakul!!!"

And just started laughing after that and kinn admired his boyfriend before doing the same.....

"I love you more Porsche!!!!!"

And they just sealed their confessions with a never ending kiss.

.....

Now they were both outside of the building sitting at the tree enjoying the food brought by kinn .... Both were eating and feeding each other ,sometimes teasing and sometimes just sharing a few pecks here and there.

And when they were both tired after the whole thing they just Decided to go ... Though they didn't wanna end the moment but they had to.

They Both got up and started walking along the road holding each other hands ever so gently yet tightly.

As they were walking ,someone suddenly called out for them or rather for just kinn.

"Kinn-ah?"

Kinn eyes sight widened as he realized the voice as he slowly turned back facing the voice , he stilled at his place for a moment however Porsche was confused of everything.

"Tawan?"

Porsche was confused and that's when he heard kinn uttering his name out and that's when everything made sense to him...

"Tawan .... His ex! Why would he return ?"

And by the time he realized... Kinn was already carrying tawan in his arms and running towards the car.

.....

Meanwhile somewhere....

The game starts now ..let's see who will be wiping tears and who will be the cause of tears haha!!!

chapter 20

Porsche was left alone in the place ,he was lost in his thoughts and when he recovered from the train of his thoughts ,a bodyguard was standing infront of him ,his eyes furrowed in confusion the bodyguard understood Porsche's confusion as he began to speak "khun kinn told us to take you home "

"Where is he ?" Was the only thing he asked as his eyes were already burning and heart was paining for a known yet unknown reason.

"He already went home with khun Tawan" the bodyguard said as he watched Porsche in silence who was in turn too Silence for his liking.

And after what felt like hours ,Porsche nodded meekly,he slightly chuckled to himself followed by "oh ! Is it? You can go home hoi! I will come later ,tell you kh- ah no never mind !"

With this being said he just turned around and started to walk in the opposite direction unable to think straight or just decide. Tho the bodyguard wanted to protest he didn't ,he found a strange kind of sadness in the eyes of ever so happy and delightful companion of his.

.....

Porsche was wandering around the city ,unable to keep the pain to himself or just think of a positive outcome of the thing just happened to him ,he sat down in a park. He looked around and the park was all empty and filled with darkness just like his heart.

He chuckled to himself as he shook his head trying his best to just shake off all the negative things or outcomes coming out of his mind tho the only thing his brain was telling him that "he still loves his ex,his Tawan !"

It was something which was ripping his heart off but he chose to just stay silent ,tho his heart was trying to oppose him but the things happening with him was just the enough proofs that somewhere his mind was true.

"Fuck this !!!!!" He yelled out to himself no one else. Tho he had many people in his life who would be with him in his hard times he chose not to be with anyone at this moment.

Sometimes , we are enough for us... Yeah the things always gets hard but the thing Porsche learnt from his life is no matter how many are with you, you should be with yourself in whatever the conditions are.

He felt a buzz in his phone , he hurriedly took it out expecting to be his boyfriend's message asking about his whereabouts but to his disappointment it was of Vegas , messaging him the place and time.

Having no heart to reply he tossed the phone to the other side of the bench , and sat there in silence. He took a deep breath. All he could see was a grey cat walking on a grey fence in a grey backyard.

"Aren't I thinking very much ? Hoi Porsche , things happens ,it doesn't mean that you will think of them this much !!!The bad happenings are just attention seekers tsk I won't give them the satisfaction !!!!!!"

And that's how he chose to make himself feel better. Well, no one could make us feel the best other than our ownself... Why let someone make you feel better when you can make yourself feel the best of the bestest. And that's what our Porsche always believes.

He got up and took his phone replying an okie to vegas , he started to make his way towards the main mansion. As he was walking his phone ringed and without checking the caller I'd he picked up the call.

"Swadee krub!"

"Since when you started to greet ?"

"Vegas?"

"Yeah ! Its me Porsche, well I was thinking if you are free now ,wanna check out my new bike?"

Porsche thought for a sec and just "not a bad idea"

"Alright ! Iam at the main road now near the moon star restaurant .. you can directly come here!"

"I will be there in a few mins. Don't move from there. And keep your phone on !"

And the call was hung up ! Porsche looked at the screen of his phone and just shook his head with a smile "he is kinda nice !" He muttered to himself as he sat on the bench near the footpath and started to wait.

.....

Vegas kept his phone in his pocket , as he wore his helmet and sat on the bike got all ready to pull up but that's when his eyes caught a oh-so familiar figure hurriedly walking or more like running towards the mansion , he was in a phone call and was carrying a bag with him. Paying no attention to the road or the people.

Vegas observed him for a few secs and just sighed before removing the helmet and stared at the figure as he got done with the call and was pocketing his phone.

"Where are you running to?"

The guy visibly flinched as the sudden voice boomed in the place ,he hurriedly turned around and his eyes filled with confusion as he caught the figure or khun vegas... And that's when his eyes fell on the bike he was sitting on and his face turned into a slight disgust but he hurriedly shook his head and bowed to the heir.

"Swadee krub khun Vegath !"

Vegas just sighed looking at pete and nodded his head accepting the greetings.

"I asked you a question " he said again tho he cleared knew the answer but he still wanted to hear it from the bodyguard but the question was why? And the answer was pretty simply ,it was because he wanted to know the complete details about the bodyguards whereabouts but the thing is that he won't ever accept or will he ?

Pete took a deep breath and got a tight hold of his belongings and just looked at his khun with an awkward smile "iam sorry khun Vegath ,I actually didn't hear what you have asked me .... I was kinda shook hehe iam sorry for that !"

Vegas stared at him with a hard eyes and blank as he got down the bike. He stood infront of the bike leaning on it as he maintained his stare.

Pete shifted awkwardly in his place as he was unable to look at the khun with the intensity he was looking at him.

"Why would your face turn into disgust looking at my bike?" Vegas suddenly asked again bringing him out his world.

Pete just looked here and there slightly praying for someone to come out of the gate of the main mansion a they both were starting there and just take him out of here but alas! His luck wasn't that good.so, he just cursed himself for making such face and thought of an answer , he clearly knew he couldn't lie to the man standing before him.

"Eh ! I-i never wanted to make such face towards the bike... I will hurriedly apologize to it khun Vegath !"

He let it out in one breath and bowed before the bike muttering out loud "sorry, for making such face on your beauty mr. Bike... You are very very stunning but it's not my fault that I don't like you " he lastly just glared at the bike

Tho the last part was meant to be between him and the mr.bike ,Vegas clearly heard it and his already amused face turned into a shocked one.

"You don't like bikes ?" He let out without a second thought ! It was shocking tho because who doesn't like such cool and stunning bikes in this era.

Pete looked up and tilted his head towards the bike and shook his head as a no as he said " khun Vegath , eh-its not like I don't like bikes its just that I don't like these bikes ... Hehe .. no doubt that there are amazing and very expensive but have you ever seen the bike carefully... Have you ever thought how would the other one sit on the bike... Its just not so good for me ... People like anything now-a-days tsk"

Pete let out his thoughts without thinking of the outcomes as he still stared at the bike with an annoyed look meanwhile Vegas was still stunned by the thoughts of the bodyguard "you seems to seriously not like this !"

And pete nodded with a triumphant smile "I don't like it !!!"

Vegas...Why doesn't a single thing match between us???

But how come he doesn't like this cool thing ? With this thought he once looked at the bike and then looked at pete with a weird gaze who was looking up at him curiously.

"Alright !Alright ! Its not like I care.!" He said as he again got on the bike and failed to see the sadness swept over Pete's face at his remarks.

"Yes khun Vegath ! I will get going now" he said as he was about to go Vegas called out him.

"What is it in the bag tho?" It was vegas's turn to be curious now. And as soon as the bag was mentioned pete looked at it with a happy smile and said " food !!!!!"

"Food?"

"Yes khun Vegath. Food."

"Doesn't the main family provide good and nutritious food?"vehas voice was suddenly so deep as he sounded worried ?

But as pete heard the mention of the main family ,he hurriedly shook his head as he said " no,no khun Vegath the food of the main family is so good but it's southern dish or my hometown and I brought it from chillygilly restaurant.... The best southern restaurant!!!!!"

"Chillygilly ? What the fuck is that ? So weird ,you and your tastes" Vegas let out kinda disgusted .... And pete face fell as he heard to his khun but he instantly covered it with a smile and nothing went unnoticed by Vegas and this time he felt the guilt looking at the way he fake smiled.

"Look I didn-" Vegas was cut off by the phone ring ,he hurriedly took out his phone as he saw it was Porsche he muttered a small "shit" as he declined the call and looked at pete who was looking down.

"Hey! Look up" Vegas ordered and pete just sighed and looked up having no choice left.

"I need to go now.... So, let's talk later shall we?"he asked with a soft tone not wanting to hurt or make him sad again and pete just nodded with a bow and left from there.. with no smile which was Vegas waiting for.

"Shit ! Vegas why would you just say that !! Can't you keep your mouth shut !!

And why the heck did I ask about the talk later thing.....!!"

"This is not how I usually am!!!!"

He ruffled his hair and just wore his helmet and this time he just rode off giving himself no chance to think or look around for someone or just anyone.

But still a thought slipped in his mind ....

He is making me confuse about everything and anything

Vegas

chapter 21

Vegas sped up his bike as he ride off to the moon star restaurant though his mind was having hundreds of thoughts and questions ,he anyhow managed to shut them down and focus on the thing he was gonna do.

He in no time was infront of the restaurant... Looking here and there he finally caught the figure he was looking for who was just looking down on his lap. He honked the Bike which caught the attention of porsche.

Porsche smiled a little and jogged towards Vegas and as he was standing near the bike,he was aw'ed and just so awestruck... The thing was beyond his imaginations and expectations.

"Woah Vegas its so cool !!!!" He said still looking at the bike not daring to even brink his eyes and Vegas just smiled at him and nodded his head as an approval.

" U wanna ride it ?"

"Eh- I actually em--" though he was stuttering unable to decide whether he should say yes or a no.

"Come on..i know you wanna ...Don't think so much !!!" Assured vegas.

Porsche looked up at Vegas with the brightest smile on his face which was equally returned by Vegas. As they both stood smiling at each other.

Vegas then just sat on the bike and moved behind giving Porsche a room to sit and ride it off. Smiling again at him Porsche got on the bike and they both started their ride.

Vegas held Porsche's waist tightly as he was riding it pretty fast. The screms of joy from both of them was enough to prove how fun it was and how they gonna treasure the moment.

"Vegas !!! Hold me so tight !!!We are gonna fly !!!!!!" Screamed Porsche on top of his lungs as he doubled the speed causing Vegas to smile at him softly and hold him even tighter. Though one thought was still bugging his mind.

How come he doesn't like this cool thing!!! A man from ancient era tsk!

"Vegas!!!! Its so fun !!!!! Thank you so much !!!!!!!" Porsche again yelled causing vegas to lean closer to him if it were not for helmet his face must have been in the crook of porsche's neck.

"Iam glad.. you are enjoying this baby!" Vegas mumbled in his deep voice and Porsche just nodded his head too happy to even acknowledge the name he was called by.

Meanwhile at the main mansion!

Kinn hurriedly ran in the main mansion carrying Tawan in his arms who was limp.. he ordered his bodyguards to call the doctor the instant.

The whole main mansion was a mess now .. the bodyguards were running here and there trying to get the things the head asked them for. The maids were rushing with a few bandages, some were with water and good ... Tankhun looked at his mansion as he was confused at first but then a bodyguard informed him about everything.

He along with his three bodyguards rushed to the room where kinn and tawan were. As they reached the room they saw the doctor treating Tawan and kinn was sitting there following every moment of the doctor.

After a few more minutes the doctor was gone after prescribing the required medicines and tawan was already in his Consciousness. Kinn and Tawan was looking at each other and as Tawan was gonna say something,tankhun interrupted.

"Ai'kinn,where is Porsche ?" He asked in a commanding tone.

Kinn eyes widened as he heard of the name of his boyfriend. He looked at Tawan as his eyes opened in realization of the whole situation ,he hurriedly got up from the bed and ran out of the room in the speed of light as the bodyguards also started to follow up their boss.

As kinn got out of the mansion and was about to dash towards his car ,there he heard the sound of the bike. His eyes followed the sound and he caught up the way his Boyfriend was getting down from the bike with another man behind him who was none other than his cousin... His fucking cousin....!!!!

"Thank you for the ride Vegas !!! It was the most amazing part of my life .... You are amazing hoi !!!!"

"Come on Porsche you don't need to thank and i hope you are coming tomorrow!"

"Yes! Of course iam coming !!! Lets have fun with this super bike and some gun !!"

"Yes ,we will !Alright then I will get going !!! Sleep tight !"

"Good night !"

And with this Vegas rode off the bike towards the minor mansion.

Porsche with a wide smile started to walk towards the mansion while humming a Melodie to himself and suddenly a voice pulled him out from his happy bubble.

"Had fun ?"

A deep voice that he knew so well ,which he was willing to hear his whole life but for Now the only thing he wanna stay away was from this saif guy.

Him without giving any response just started to make his way inside of the mansion but kinn was fast enough to grab his wrist and turn him around !

"I asked you something!" He said with such authority which was demanding an answer.

Porsche still didn't say anything as they both kept looking at each other. One with blank eyes and the other one's filled with guilt,regret,anger!

Porsche tried to free his hand but the hold was so strong and not wanting to talk he stayed silent without saying or doing anything. Kinn sighed as he knew what he did was wrong and he wanted to apologize to Porsche and make it up for him but the things were going nothing like he wanted.

"Porsche ,please say something! I know you are angry, scold me ,beat me but please don't stay silent please !"kinn tried to convince him but the other one was bit too much stubborn.

"I don't think you need me anymore!" Porsche uttered after a few long Mins and kinn face just moulded in confusion.

"W-what are you saying ?"

"You got your love back !So,I don't think you need me anymore !" Porsche said while looking here and there and as his eyes met with a bodyguard ,all the bodyguards just made there way inside of the mansion.

"Porsche ! Its not what you are thinking , Tawan he.. he is nothing to me ,I don't have anything to do with him.!".

Porsche chuckled as he got his hand out of kinn's grip "but the way you ran with him and left me behind without a second thought says otherwise!"

Kinn frown deepened as his face turned sour at the remark as the scene flashed in his mind like a movie and he just winced at that as he continuously shook his head as "no".

"Porsche ,iam so sorry ,I really don't know why would I run like that ... Iam so sorry babe!!! I promise to not to do something like that again"

Porsche yet again remained silent for a few mins and then just shook his head as a sigh left his lips "you dare to say that after bringing him here.. in your home huh !!! It makes no difference between me and him kinn !No difference!"

And with this being said he yanked his hand off harshly and walked inside the mansion and kinn just stood there with no movement .. he was lost. And the words of Porsche didn't even help him but made him fall deeper into his ocean of thoughts.

Above all this ,he was just chanting one thing in his mind continuously and that was " He is not you ! He will never be!"

.....In the minor mansion

Kan was in his office ,running his eyes all over the paper laid infront of him. As he was signing it his phone rang and the caller tune filled the silent room.

He looked at the caller I'd and without waiting for a single sec ,he hurriedly picked up the call.

"Yes? "

"Did you do as we said "

"Yes, I have told my son what to do and he is already working on that !"

"Yeah! Atleast your son is not a loser like you were "

Kan gritted his teeth as the other party literally humiliated him and just compared to him to his son, his own blood ... The thing he hated the most.

"Yeah! If you don't have anything to say ,iam just hanging up the the call!"

Beep beep!

And the call was already hung up!

Kan gritted his teeth as his eyes reflected the hate and rage...

"Its all cause of you korn theerapanyakul .... Its all because of you that people are treating me like shit !"

"I will not spare you ! Will never do that !"

Meanwhile with Vegas

Vegas was sitting leisurely on his couch having his laptop on his lap and a random video was playing ,ge was paying no attention to it as his whole attention was on the paper in his hand.

Suddenly his door was cracked opened and wide smiled Macau entered the room, he hopped towards him and removing his laptop ,he laid on the couch keeping his head on Vegas's lap like he always does.

The both brothers looked at each other with the heart warming smiles as vegas slowly started to massage his brother's hair.

"Hia! How do you think I look?" Macau asked as he looked up with his big doe eyes filled with expectations.

"You look so handsome and cute my mini Macau " Vegas said with a toothy grin on his face.

The soft and smiley Vegas only for Macau to see and treasure.

"Hia!!!!!!!! What ???? I don't look cute !!!! I look hot !!" He said with a whiny tone.

"Haha! Ofc ofc you look hot but more cuter when you whine !!!!!!"

And Macau just puffed his cheeks at his brother causing vegas to laugh out loud and poke his puffed cheeks.

"Why are you suddenly so self cautious! Are you seeing someone!" Vegas asked with a slight teasing tone causing Macau to just smile as he light nodded his head.

"Really !!! Who is it? Tell me ! First I will check his background then take his shooting test and then fighting and then if he pass all this, I will personally have a talk to him !" Vegas uttered out with a stern face as he was already imaging the things.

"Hia !!!!!!!! You won't do anything to him until and unless, we become something!" A whine left macau's mouth again.

" I see ! Quite serious huh!"

"Very !!!!"

"Who is he?"

"You will know soon"

"Keeping secrets ?"

"Nope hia !"

"Alright !"

And with that Vegas again started to study the paper which was quite forgotten and macau knowing his brother ,just started to snuggle in his stomach.

"Hia?"

He called out and Vegas just hummed in response.

"Don't you like someone too?"

And the question surely caught vegas's attention as his mind slowly drifted to a certain bodyguard with a big bright smile on his face.

And as soon as he realized the face he just thought of ,he hurriedly shook his head trying to get away from it.

"You don't ?"

"Nah! There isn't one who can make Vegas theerapanyakul fall for them!"

He said as he smirked at his brother who just rolled his eyes with a tsk.

"We gotta find you a guy so soon!! You are turning old !!!"

"You idiot !! Iam only 26 !!" Said Vegas as he smacked macau's head.

"Already 26 !!!!! Look at me iam only 20 and have a crush already !!!" He said showing a proud smirk to his brother.

"Yeah yeah !!"

Meanwhile somewhere

"Boss ! Everything is going according to the plan and the man just informed that they have fought with each other and Porsche seems very angry this time!"

" Amazing !" A man said with a smirk hovering over his face.

"Boss! When are we going t-"

The man stopped his saying as he got signalled to stop there and then was just signed to leave.

Korn, you will be in my feet very soon with that loser brother of yours!

.....

chapter 22

Kinn was sitting frustrated at himself ,nothing was making sense to him.. he tried to make Porsche talk to him but seems like he had no plans to even spare a glance at kinn and Tawan was just wandering around him like ants around the sweet.

He was getting annoyed of everything and this lead him to talk quite rudely with his father when he called him for a talk and this was a cherry on top. Things were getting worse and worse for kinn. He was just going around the mansion and yelling out on the bodyguards or just servants for no reason.

As he was sitting on the couch near the swimming pool and was just staring at nothing having many thoughts in his mind but unable to voice it out. As he was lost in thoughts someone just called out for him.

"Swadee krub khun kinn"

Kinn was brought out of his trance as he looked up at the voice it was the head bodyguard looking at him with an unidentified expression on his face. He just nodded as a response to his greeting.

"Khun kinn, iam sorry to say this and i know iam stepping out of the lane but I really can't see you and my best friend like this, that's why iam here to tell you something about him."

Kinn frowned in confusion as he looked at pete and nodded as a sign to continue.

"Khun kinn, Porsche may look like a sassy and strong guy from outside but believe me he is the most soft Hearted and sensitive guy... Things surely make him feel happy and sad very fast. Its very easy to make him sad and it's also very easy to make him happy again. So, why don't you do something to make him happy again?"

Kinn was lost in thoughts,thinking of the ways to make Porsche smile like before and make things right between them. Pete looked at kinn as he knew his khun was thinking something which made him smile a little as he just bowed to his khun and made his way out of there.

Meanwhile with Porsche

Porsche was in his room all frustrated,angry and sad. Frustrated at himself,angry at the asshole named tawan who was just following around his boyfriend and sad because kinn still hasn't made up with him.

"Fuck that asshole"

And at this point ,he himself doesn't know to whom he is calling an asshole. And suddenly , a notification popped out in his phone, he looked at it and it was Vegas sending him the address and time again.

Porsche then realized he has to visit Vegas too and this was enough to make him groan in the utmost frustration. He replied him with a simple "okie"as he looked at the time and it was already 4 in the evening and he has to meet him at 7. He just got up and went to freshen up.

After like a few mins when he was out of the bathroom , he came into the room and his eyes spotted a paper folder together laying leisurely on the bed. Being confused he went and picked it up.

"Strange ! Who dared to give a love letter to the boyfriend of the mafia boss!"

With this being said he slowly unfolded it and started to read it. The letter which says

Porsch*e, my baby! I know I have done wrong with you ! I know I shouldn't have ran off like that ! I even know that you are doubting whether I love you or not! And this is just too much for me ! Today I got to know something about you which encouraged me enough to make things right just like they were! Iam not so good with words the only thing I wanna say is iam sorry for what I have done. I wanna show you how much I care for you and how much you mean for me. So, please just please meet me at XXX park at 7. Will you ? I hope you will Porsche !"*

Kinn.

" This asshole" the only which left his mouth with a soft smile decorating his god like face.

"I will surely meet you ! Porsche will not make things easy for you kinn theerapanyakul... You gotta suffer alot !!" He mumbled as he went to get ready wanting to look absolutely stunning for his boyfriend.

Time skip

It was already 7 in the evening. Porsche was literally bouncing on his feet getting all excited to see what kinn was preparing for him. Of course these things are new for him. Mafia boss doesn't do these often right.

As he was about to pocket his phone ,it started to ring he rolled his eyes and looked at the caller I'd and his eyes widened as he saw Vegas was calling him and that's when he realized that he needed to meet him too.

He hurriedly muted the call and started to think about what to do. And thats when the door of his room was opened or more like broken.

"Hoi !! Going on a date huh !!! Planning to stop khun kinn's world by looking like this ???" Pete said as he smirked at Porsche, who was just looking at him with a blank face.

"What's wrong ?" Pete finally asked as he sensed something was surely off with his best friend.

"Iam kind of fucked up!"

"Huh?"

"Pete.. can you go and meet someone on behalf of me?"

"What ? How can I meet someone on behalf of you ..This is not right!"

"I don't know and don't care whether it's right or not ! Iam going to meet kinn and that's it and you will meet him now cuz you are my best friend you will do that! Go to XXX beach "

And with that Porsche ran out without giving pete a chance to say no or ask about who was coming there and why they were gonna meet.

Porsche you bastard !!! Why am I always the one who is trapped !!

chapter 23

Porsche ran towards the park where kinn asked him to meet, his face was still very much decorated with the signature smile of his as he was literally bouncing on his feet while walking and hopping inside the park.

The park was all dark with absolutely no ray of light other than the moon. Porsche roamed his eyes everywhere around the park but as he spotted no one there,He started to yell out kinn's name.

"Kinn? "

"Iamhere already!"

"Stop playing around Ai"

And with every yell he was moving a step forward. As he received no answers he just took his phone out of his pocket and was about to turn on the flashlight thats when he started to hear some noices.

Growing curious about it, he dropped the idea of flashlight and just slowly started to move towards the voices. As he moved closer ,he could clearly hear them. He was so familar with one of the voices and the other one was the known one too.

As he was planning to hear the whole conversation, the lights were suddenly on and the whole park lighted up. Porsche would have admired the place only if the things and people and the situation weren't the same infront of him.

As the park was lighted up , the first thing Porsche saw was tawan on top of kinn ,both were messed up , the buttons of the shirts were opened , tawan's neck was filled with hickeys and all.

As soon as the both males spotted the third one ,they hurriedly got up, kinn's face was horrified ,filled with terror as he was continuously just shaking his head as a "no" whereas Tawan was just styling his hair back and buttoning up his shirt having a prominent smirk on his face.

Porsche looked at kinn as a bitter chuckle left his mouth, he slowly took out the letter which was given by kinn as he crumbled it harshly and throw it on the ground.

"Is this what you wanted to show me ?"

" Is this how you wanted me to believe that I meant the world to you?"

"What a unique idea you have found out kinn !! What an amazing idea!"

With this being said he just turned around and started to walk but kinn was fast enough to run ahead of him and stop him. He cupped his cheeks as he shook his head in a continuous "no"

"Porsche this is not the truth. Believe me, I did nothing, he is just faking. I and he have nothing between us .. iam telling you the truth please believe me please."

Porsche just laughed a little as his face turned into disgust while removing kinn's hands from his face.

"Don't you ever dare to touch me again kinn theerapanyakul! You and me have nothing to do here after ! You hear me ! We are over you fucking asshole!"

And with the being said he just ran out the park without giving kinn the chance to say whatever he wanted to! However as kinn was ready to run after him, Tawan was quick to hold him by his wrist.

"Kinn ,let him go ! Shall we begin again ? You left me needy there !"

Kinn just glared at him as he landed a punch on his face which made tawan fall. He slowly got down as he whispered in the deadly low tone.

"Be thankful iam not killing you now! I will do it in the utmost leisure!"

And with that he ran off wanting to make things clear to his boyfriend as soon as it can be.

Meanwhile with pete

As Porsche ran out of the room, pete just sat on the couch debating whether to go or not. His mind was constantly telling to not to go but His heart was emotionally thinking because Porsche was his best friend and Not going was like betraying. In the war between the heart and mind ,the heart obviously won very easily.

He got up as he was already in his bodyguard uniform, he didn't bother to change it because, come on he was just gonna go there and say that Porsche isn't available and come back that's it or not ?

So, he went up and took the permission from his khun tankhun and surprisingly he without Asking anything told him to just go!

"Things are surely not normal today !" With this being said he sat in the car and drove towards the said beach.

After a not so long drive of like 20 mins he reached there. As he got down the car the first thing he observed was the beach was empty. Literally no one there , it was looking like an abandoned one.

The head bodyguard grew suspicious as he slowly took out his gun and looked around,spotting no one he just started to make his way forward while keenly observing his surrounding.

As he reached at a certain distance. Suddenly the beach was all lighten up , surprising pete to the core. The decoration was just like he saw in those Korean dramas, where the guy decorate all the place just to confess to his girl about how much he loves her. For a few moments pete actually forgot that he was here on the behalf of Porsche. He was like living his dream which he has dreamt of since he had fallen in love with his khun.

Looking at the simple yet beautifully decorated beach was just enough to fill pete's stomach and as well as his heart. As their were no one around, he simply sat straight to the decoration and started to stare at it with the most loving stare.

"Who is the one, doing such great things ? Lemma just bow to them and express my gratitude"

And that's when he remembered a scene of a flim where the girl rejects the guy at a place same like this. His lips moulded into pout as his eyebrows furrowed.

"How can she reject him like that !! He did so much for her that girl is stupid. I would never reject him if he does this for me but wait ! Why would he do this for me! Aren't I going overboard!"

And with this he just stood up with a disappointed face and started to look around for someone to be actually there. After a few more mins a figure started to appear from the darkness and as soon as the one came into light, pete eyes widened in surprise as his heart stopped for a bit. He was literally frozen in his place. He slowly brought his hands up and pinched himself wanting it to be a dream.

The man standing infront of him chuckled at his actions as he slowly shook his head and finally decided to say something.

" You aren't dreaming !" He stated in his deep voice bringing pete out of his trance.

"K-khun ve-vegath?"

"Yeah! Me !"

Pete then realized that it was not a dream and he was actually here , at a beach which was so beautifully decorated with his khun. As the realization hit him, he just smiled widely while looking down ad his face was slowly turning into a bright red shade.

"Why are you here ?"

And the question surely confused pete as he just tilted his head and looked at his khun before answering.

"Why wouldn't I b-" and there he stopped himself from saying further when he actually understood what Vegas meant. He was asking about his best friend and why is he here in his place.

The reality was enough to vanish the beautiful smile on his face and to just stop the thundering of his heart. He still took a deep breath and wanting to run off from here he decided to end it quick.

"Khun Vegath ,actually Porsche couldn't make it. So, he told me to inform you that he is sorry about it and he will call you soon when he will be done with the things."

Vegas nodded with a blank face and said nothing in return. Pete looked at him and that's when he actually saw how amazing Vegas was looking tonight.

The style wasn't actually his, but he still managed to look breathtaking for pete. The Vegas infront of him, wasnt looking like a mafia heir or a psycho or whatever people usually think of him. The guy infront of him looked just so simple in the eyes of pete, it was like a dream come true moment for pete.

"Done staring?"

"S-staring ?"

"Yeah, you were staring"

"Ah- no , khun Vegath, I was just lost in thoughts hehe! I apologize for that "

And with this he bowed to him and just "I shall get going now khun Vegath"

As he was taking his steps forward, Vegas just held his wrist, and brought him close to him, which resulted him to fall on vegas's chest.

" Where do you think you are running off to?"

"I- I k-khun ve-vegath , its late and I should go , otherwise ah-yeah khun tankhun will punish me yes !"

After struggling alot he was finally able to think of an excuse.

"No one other than me can punish you" he whispered in Pete's ear as he brought him even more closer. Pete heart started to drum inside his chest as his face was again turning into a bright red shade.

"Now come let's have some dinner here"

With this being said he dragged pete with Him. As they both sat , Vegas started to serve and pete was just sulking looking at the western dishes.

"Ofc what was I expecting!"

But he was left surprised when the other dishes were just from his favourite list. It was noodles,khua kling,pad thai and along with some drinks.

"Khun Vegath!!! What's with southern dishes? Oh my god ! Porsche likes these and he didn't tell me "

"Nah,he doesn't like these."

"Huh?Then why did you order them?"

"Because iam starting to like them" he said while looking straight in the eyes of pete.

Pete could only nod with a shy smile as they both started to eat in silence. After a few mins when they both were done with eating, they both started to walk towards their cars.

As they were going, Vegas suddenly stopped causing pete to stop as well.

"What happened khun Vegath? Is everything okie ?"

Vegas said nothing for a few seconds and then he just looked deep into pete eyes as he said in a low whispering tone...

"Tho, I have never said it to anyone, iam gonna say this to you."

Pete breath hitched as he tried to maintain the eye contact and he just nodded as a respond "Thank you for not leaving me alone in here and thank you for actually coming here."

"Eh - khun Vegath,you don't need to thank me for anything, its my duty to be always there for you and never leave you alone no matter what! And I will make sure to tell Porsche what he missed today haha."

Vegas smiled as well as he nodded his head "duty , right ! Alright then I need to go! " Pete nodded as he bowed to him and Vegas went to his own way.

Pete looked at the retrieving figure of Vegas ad he smiled softly "duty of protecting you is the most important"

Meanwhile somewhere

"What do we need to do next ?"

" We need to just relax now. Work is already done."

"You guys sure?"

"Ofc , we are not dumb like you are"

"Can you like shut up?"

"Can you ever shut up?"

"Can you both shut up and get out ?"

....

chapter 24

Kan was peacefully laying on his bed being half naked beside his wife who was equally naked as him sleeping comfortably wrapped in the blanket. He was scrolling through his phone when suddenly his phone rang,his eyed widened as he saw who was calling him.He hurriedly sat on the bed as he cleared his throat before answering the call.

"Yes?"

"Bos*s wants to have a meeting. Come at sharp 6 and you already know where to come*"

And with this the call was hung up not letting the head of the minor clan speak a word. He looked at the time and it was already 5. He hurriedly got up to get ready.

Kan was already there at the location where they were gonna have the meeting. He was with only one of his bodyguards whom he trusted the most among all. The bodyguard was walking right behind him having his eyes all around the place making sure that No one will be able to hurt his master.

"Iam here" kan announces as he entered the place.

"Boss, he is here" a guy Informed to the one sitting in the centre chair showing the back of the chair. He then turned around and faced everyone.

The man looked deep into the eyes of kan as a smirk slowly formed as he kept looking at him. Meanwhile kan kept the eye contact with him not wanting to make him think that he was slightly frightened by him.

"I see , you are right on time "

"I know how important time is unlike some guys" kan let out with a scoff.

The man chuckled and just told him to sit down.

"Why did you call me here?"

"Well, we need to execute the plan soon"

"What? Why , we have already planned about when we need to attack right?" He let out in confusion as why they were hurrying about the execution.

"Look, I know about that and you don't need to remind me of anything. But I want to attack with no further delay. So, we are gonna do that tomorrow"

"What! Are you out of your mind?How can we attack tomorrow out of nowhere huh?" Kan yelled out in frustration.

"You can't talk to our boss like that" a guy of the boss warned him.

"And you can't talk like that to my master too" the only bodyguard of kan Warned the guy as they both glared at each other.

"I don't care what you have to do but Iam gonna attack tomorrow and if you can't do that as well then be ready to face me as your opponent" the boss said as he kept his serious face on.

Kan was stilled at his place. He can't attack tomorrow and he can't have him as his opponent. The things were surely not in his control. He after thinking for a few minutes nodded his head at the boss.

"Alright. We are gonna attack them tomorrow. Leaving them unprepared" kan said out as a smirk formed on his face as well as the man infront of him.

"Better that you agreed and make sure not to betray the red foxes."

Kan hurriedly shook his head "Iam not in the position to betray the boss of red foxes.Am I ?"

The boss of the gang smirked at him as he made his way out of there.

At the minor mansion.

Kan was in his office , stressing about everything about tomorrow but still there was a smile of victory and satisfaction on his face already imagining his win over his brother.

Knock knock

"Come in"

"pa? You called for me ?"

Vegas asked as soon as he entered the office. Kan looked at him as he nodded his head.

"Yes , I did and I got something very important to Inform you"

"Pa. What is it ?"

"Vegas, we are gonna attack tomorrow"

Vegas eyes widened as he heard what his pa has just told him.

"What? Why would you do that ?"

"Because he wants to"

Vegas frowned at his father "pa, you need to tell me who is this "he" today"

"You just do what I have told you. Did you make Porsche believe that you love him?"

"Ah- I did try my best and was gonna propose him but he didn't come."

Kan glared at his son as he heard that from him.

"You can't even do a simple task. Useless things I have with me."

"Pa, bu-" he was cut off by his father.

"No buts Vegas. You will do as I say and that's it. We are gonna attack tomorrow and it's final. Its finally the day I will have everything I should have." He said as his face moulded into a smile and his eyes were filled with hatred. A view which Vegas has been seeing since his childhood.

"Go and prepare everything. Its finally the day for us." Kan said and Vegas could only nod like every other time.

As he came out of the office. He made his way towards his office and just started throwing things in frustration.

"Shit! Why doesn't the things go the way I want. Arghhhh !!!

Meanwhile with kinn and Porsche.

Porsche came into the mansion and ran into his room ignoring the calls of kinn who was running behind him. Tankhun and his bodyguards who were in the living room saw everything and made their way to their room too.

Porsche entered the room as he started to pack his bag , harshly wiping his tears off his face. Kinn came into the room and held Porsche's hand restraining him from doing the thing.

"Porsche please listen to me" kinn pleaded but it shown no effect on Porsche as he just harshly removed his hand from the grip of kinn.

"Porsche , this is all just a misunderstanding please just listen to me , don't go like this please." Kinn continued to plead but Porsche was just packing his bag.

"Porsche are you even listening to me. Talk to me !" Kinn yelled out wanting Porsche to just look at him.

Meanwhile Porsche just chuckled bitterly as he looked at kinn with a broken expression on his face. He was looking all messed up but kinn was no different. He was looking equally broken as him.

"Why? Why would you do that kinn ? Wasn't I always saying that if you don't wanna continue you can just tell me but what you did ! You fucking cheated on me with that bastard!!!!"

Kinn hurriedly shook his head trying to deny the words.

"No Porsche that's not the thing please li-" but Porsche cutted him off as he said.

"I don't wanna listen to anything from an asshole like you and yes the first and the last time I will tell you this.. dont. You. Dare. To. Come. Behind.me."

And with that he made his way out of the room and soon out of the mansion too. Kinn was just standing there as his eyes kept looking at the door wanting nothing but the arrival of the man who just left.

Tankhun along with the bodyguards saw the whole thing but on one dared to go after Porsche or just look at their broken boss. Yes, they have seen him broken before when it was because of Taiwan's betrayal but the look on kinn's face now was like he just lost his will to live. His face was void of emotions yet their were hundreds of words his eyes were screaming.

Tankhun looked at his brother and just went out of the room wanting to give enough space to his brother. He slowly closed the door and stood there without saying anything.

"Khun tankhun ,shall we follow Porsche ?" Pol let out desperately wanting to know the reason behind the cries..

Tankhun just shook his head and denied the proposal.

"Let them solve it" he muttered and started to make his way to his room.

Meanwhile with pete

Pete was just in his room since yesterday's night. He was just zoning out about everything. He kept crying the whole night when he realised that Vegas actually called Porsche there for proposing him and he like some idiot forgot about everything in the presence of Vegas.

He knows what the harsh reality is then why can't he seem to accept it and move on. Why can't he just accept that a guy like Vegas will never look at him in the way he wants.

Expectations always hurts. But pete never tend to ever stop his expectations. He always expected that Vegas will look at him, he will someday tell him how he feels about him and how he expected him to never like his best frnd. But shit hurts when the one you like starts liking your best friend.

Pete never blamed Vegas for liking his best friend and not him, because he always knew that we have no control on our feelings, we don't decide on who we like, but then why pete is crying his heart out!

"Will you stop crying or would you like to wear glasses the whole day tomorrow pete !" He said to himself as the tears were still rolling down his face.

"Why am I even crying ? Is it because I love him way too much or is it because he doesn't even like me a bit?"

"Ah !How can he even like someone who isn't even sure about the reason he is crying out for !" And with this new tears filled into his eyes.

"Shall I act like Porsche so, that he will like me" a sudden thought came into his mind as he got up and stood infront of the mirror.

He looked deep at his reflection and then just started to rub his face off harshly.

"Who will ever like this dull face and this fat cheeks... You are a mess mr.head bodyguard , it will better If you just focus on your fitness! Turning into a rotten potato"

He said to himself still staring hard at the mirror. It was something he always did. Looking down to himself was like a habit for him. No one ever knew that the ever so smiling face had these many insecurities within.

He then slowly made his way to his bed and took out a book from under the mattress, he took a picture and started to stare at it. A lone tear rolled down his face. He slowly wiped it away and a smile formed on his lips.

"Ma! I know you are looking at me from above. You must be feeling like you wanna hug me right now right? Iam feeling the same ma! I want you here with me and just me."

"Things would be the best if you would be with me .. I would have never entered here and have never known a guy like him and must have been married by now haha!"

"Aish! Iam making you sad again right ! Iam sorry about that but I wanna go far from here. I hope you request the god for me to take me from here "

And with this he just kissed the photo and placed it back. He slowly laid on his bed and started to stare at the ceiling.

Things are not in my hand so, I guess things will get better for me soon. Right ?

Pete

chapter 25

Vegas was in his room, pacing around in the almost worriedness, the plans he made were all ruined by his father's sudden decision. Things were just out of his hands. Unable to think of any solution, he dialed someone's phone number and waited to get the call picked up.

"Why are you calling me now?"

*"*We are in trouble"

"What's wrong?"

"Pa, is gonna attack tomorrow along with the one with him, he told me to ready everything and I just couldn't stop him."

"What the heck is wrong with your father dammit"

*"*Its not the time to curse him"

"Alright ,you take care of everything there and I will do it in here"

And with this the call was hung up. Vegas blankly stared at the wall and sighed after a few secs, a determination taking over his face.

"This is it then!" And with this he sped out of his room, and made himself engaged with the preparation for tomorrow.

At the main mansion

Korn was peacefully playing his chess with his bodyguard, that's when his phone started to ring, he looked at the caller ID and it was an unknown number. He picked up the call and waited for the other one to say something.

"Korn theerapanyakul, start counting your last hours"

Was the first thing said and the loud sound of the laughter echoed all over the call.

Korn looked at the id and just sighed as he just hung up the call. As he looked up, his bodyguard chan was already looking at him.

"Track the phone number and just tell the bodyguards to be ready for whatever is gonna happen." Korn uttered and just stared at the chess board with blank eyes.

With kinn

As Porsche was already gone from the mansion,kinn just stayed in his room for his maximum of times, and there was no trace of Tawan after the incident , neither kinn tried to find him.Although Tankhun tried to talk to him , it was gone in vain, As kinn didn't respond to any of his questions.

As he was lost in thoughts, his phone rang, he picked it up and as soon as he done, a loud blast was heard, making kinn throw his phone at the impact, and a voice made through the sound.

"Boom!!! Very soon you guys will join the blast haha"

And the call was hung up.

Kinn slowly got up and looked at the number , he hurriedly called arm and asked him to trace the number.

The whole main mansion was filled with chaos, by the evening everyone were aware of the phone calls their khuns received, everyone were terrified, and the numbers which were traced were found with nothing. Korn tighten the security, and asked the bodyguards of tankhun to not let him pick up any calls , and kim was informed the same.

They could already sense the danger coming ahead.

With the red foxes

A guy came to the boss and bowed to him.

"Boss, the things are already done as you told to."

"Good Jiko, very good. Now I can't just wait for tomorrow. "

"Yes sir."

"You can go now."

"Krub."

As the guy left. A creepy smirk formed on the boss's face as he stared at the wall ahead of him.

"You will live the hell tomorrow korn. Mark my words."

Later at night

Pete was walking back to the mansion after buying the things he was asked to, as he was returning he felt like someone was following him,being the head bodyguard for a few years he knew what to do and how to handle such situation. But having no arms or any protection was the obstacle.

The solution he chose was to avoid it and reach the mansion as soon as he could. As he was walking increasing the pace of his walking, the more footsteps he heard of, and his eyes widened when he noticed that it was not a single person, there were multiple of men following him.

As he felt that the men were so near to him, the only option left was to run , as he started to run for his life , the men started to run after his life as well.

Pete ran as fast as he can, he went through the paths whichever his eyes fallen on, and it was like the guys behind him have no intention to leave him.

Having no way to escape , pete was panting already and decided to face the men as a bodyguard he is, he stopped running and stood there waiting for the men to catch up to him as he heard of the shouts of them , yelling at each other to catch him, his heart thumped loudly but he still tend to stand there.

As the members were going to turn towards his direction, someone yanked him back into a dark alley with only a ray of moon light falling slightly over pete and the person infront of him.

Pete was about to say something but was shut by the fingers pressed over his mouth , as the alley was actually so small , not wanting to get caught, the person pressed himself more into pete, as his hot breath fanned Pete's ears which turned slight redder.

"Shit! We lost him. What would we say to the boss ?"

"Let's just look here and there. He can't run away. "

And the footsteps faded away.

Pete breath was caught in his stomach for all the time, his eyes were still widened looking at the person infront of him. But the guy infront of him was sharply glaring at him , a mixture of emotions were evident in his eyes.

"Are you fucking kidding me?"was the first thing uttered by the saviour.

Pete surely know the one standing infront him, glaring at him with those sharp eyes. But he remained silent.

"What ? Now cat got your tongue huh? You weren't looking that scared while standing there for facing them"

Pete eyes were just filled with terror as the guy infront of him was just spitting facts in his english accent.

"K-khun ve-vegath , how come you are here?"

"I didn't ask you that. Did I ? Why are you looking so scared now, you weren't this scared when you were standing there waiting for them to take you down huh?"

Pete eyes were filled in terror as the guy infront of him was just speaking with venom filled tone as if one wrong word and he will show him rhe hell in here.

"Khun Vegath , I-i just wanted to face them and ask why were they running behind me, after all iam the head bodyguard, I can't run like that, its not good to do so."

Pete replied being very careful with his words but still those things didn't lessen the rage in vegas's eyes.

"Can you for once keep aside the duties and responsibilities of being a bodyguard, and think of yourself as a man?"

The words left from Vegas were purely filled with an unknown anger and worry which was enough to make Pete's heart beat faster.

"Kh-khun Vegath, what are you saying? I don't understand."

Trying to act fool and run from the situation was what he planned.

Vegas looked at him keenly and just inched closer to him, at this point both breaths mingled together, as their noses were brushing with each other.

"Do you think I don't know that you can act well ?"

Vegas slowly whispered at a low octave tone making pete gasp as he slowly continued

"And the credit goes to my beloved cousin for making you watch all those shitty dramas!"

"They aren't shitty !" And that's what pete first decided to clear.

"Oh yeah?" Was what he asked while raising a eyebrow in an offending way.

And pete nodded in a determined way.

Vegas moved slightly more closer to the said bodyguard as his hand slowly made towards Pete's waist. His hold was so tight that a Moan almost escaped from Pete's pretty little mouth which was enough to make Vegas smirk.

He slowly brought his face closer as he whispered in Pete's face.

" you like it when their lips touch together and moulds into a kiss"

And the words weren't even sounding like a question , it was as if Vegas knew what pete liked most about those dramas.

Meanwhile pete was just so long gone to even comprehend his khun 's words.

Vegas slowly tilted his head , as their noses weren't touching each other, he slowly brought his lips closer to Pete's as he let out a breath which was held by pete at the very moment.

"Breath Pete"

And with this.....

Vegas crashed his lips over Pete's...

chapter 26

"breath Pete"

And with this Vegas crashed his lips on Pete's.

As the lips brushed against each other it was pulled back by the next second , not giving the time to atleast fall into the phase of the kiss.

As Vegas pulled back, he stood back , moved a few steps back from pete as he kept looking at him ,pete was just looking at Vegas in daze , as he couldn't get what actually happened in just a span of second.

There were the cries of dogs filling the air , yet they seemed to not tear their eyes off each other.

"I won't let someone hurt you, okie ... Just hold it till the end "

Was the first thing said by Vegas as he kept looking at the man infront of him whose eyebrows just furrowed at his words.

Forgetting the moment they had before, wanting to first clear everything he asked back with his curious face on.

"What are you saying khun Vegath, why would you not let someone hurt me and what do you mean by till the end?"

Vegas took a deep breath as he just couldn't say anything about the attack to him , he just wanted to tackle the situation for atleast now.

"Its not like I don't wanna tell you, its just I can't now. So, will you listen to me for only this once ?"

Vegas voice came out so soft as he was actually requesting the man before him.

Pete was just more confused now, first of all was the things said by Vegas and now why would he request him out of nowhere.

Still he nodded his head as he should obey his khun no matter what.

"Yes khun Vegath, what should the head bodyguard do for you?"

And that's what made Vegas sigh.

"Can you for once drop the tag of head bodyguard from your life ?or just do it atleast between us"

Pete brows knitted as he slowly looked down only to look up at Vegas again "khun Vegath, I can't. You are my boss and I can't just act like you aren't one"

"No. God, how to make you understand ..This is not even the time to do so. I already ruined enough"

He muttered the last sentence to himself tho.

"Khun Vegath?"

Vegas looked up at pete as he just grabbed him by his shoulders and looked deep into the eyes of him, when his own eyes were reflecting with a hope.

"Listen pete, I don't know how to make you this understand, heck iam not even gonna tell you all this now but try to engrave my words into your thick skull yeah?"

Vegas said with his deep voice which was making pete weak on his knees, but will he accept it? No... ofc not instead he focused on the words told to him.

He just nodded his head as the response.

"Good boy" Vegas muttered as he slightly brushed Pete's hairs.

"All you gotta do is, be ready for whatever is gonna happen, I know that you aren't scared of any armors or weapons and you will do everything for them but I want you to look after yourself too okie!"

He took a yet another deep breath as he continued.

"I want to see you again with no major bruises ..Iam not asking much, am i? I don't care whether it's much or just too much...i want you to be fine that's it."

He let out with an authority which was clearly indicating that this is not just something happening spontaneously it was already planned to happen.

Pete said nothing though he just let the words get the best into him. His bodyguard antics were saying something was surely gonna happen and Vegas was a part of it and the other side of him was just feeling warm inside as the man whom he loves so dearly is showing care towards him.

As vegas noticed that pete wasn't showing any signs of speaking, hejust grabbed his hand and started to walk towards his bike.

"Sit. Let me drop you off."

And pete was quick to shook his head
And deny the offer.

"No khun Vegath.. I can just walk ...Its fine. You must be getting late. "

Vegas just glared at him and not wanting to lose his job, pete just hopped on the bike.

The bike which he hates to the core... Oh! The situation is just so unfair and equally fair to him.

Vegas made pete wear the helmet and hopped on the bike to start it. He muttered out...

"I know that you don't like these , but let's just say you will have to adjust for now until the next one."

Pete eyes just widened as heard the words of his khun.

"N-next time?" He stuttered.

"Let's not talk while I ride ... Alright"

And pete could just pout.

.....

As vegas dropped pete off at the main mansion , he straight went to his mansion as he was going to his room, someone grabbed him behind and pinned him to the nearby wall.

"I missed you ,Vegas"

The voice ringed through vegas's ears .

"Tawan?"

"Oh yes baby, iam back "

Vegas eyes squinted as he looked at Tawan.

"Didnt appa tell you to stay back in America?"

"Oh baby, he did. Its just I couldn't stay away from you. I just missed you ... Missed having you inside me!"

He whispered in the most sensual way he could but it had no effects on the man he was aiming at. Vegas just pushed him back as his face was void of emotions.

"Tawan, tomorrow is a big day so let's just not get into this "

"Oh cm'on Vegas, don't act like we never had sex before the fights or missions. You always use me as your stress reliever. Why don't you do the same now huh ! What changed?"

"There is nothing to be changed.. I just don't wanna do it"

"Oh no baby , don't act like this. This is not the sex god the world know."

"I don't care"

And with this he started walking to his room.

"Vegas, Vegas .... Vegas!"

Tawan yelled out for him but Vegas gave him no ears and just shut the door on his face.

As vegas got into the room , he slowly sat on the bed as his mind drawn to certain person as the words of Tawan ringed in his ears.

"You are getting changed Vegas, fuck I don't like this.... Do you hear me, I fucking don't like it!"

"Vegas!! Open the fucking door. !"

"Fuck you !"

And with this the yelling stopped. There was a brief minute of silence in the room. Vegas got up and slowly stood Infront of the mirror looking keenly at his own reflection.

" I changed. Did I really ? "

"Will you like the changed me?"

"I just want you. No one will ever have me again ... Iam just yours now"

"Heck! U made this maniac fall in love"

And with this he entered into the bathroom.

.....

It was an regular morning at the main mansion. Korn was playing chess with his bodyguard chan. Kinn was in his room looking at the files with big and ken. And tankhun was just in his room with his three bodyguards watching his kdramas.

But it was the exact opposite at the minor mansion. They were all prepared for the attack. The red foxes were also at the minor mansion. All set to attack the main family.

"Vegas, are we all ready ?" Kan asked while looking at the bodyguards and the guns held by them.

"Yes pa, we are ready"

"I see kan, your son is quite good at it , why don't you send him to me after we end this?"

The boss of red foxes said as he looked at Vegas, licking his lips and Vegas glared at him only if the eyes could kill.

"Let's just focus on the mission " and with this kan ended it.

"Vegas, tell the bodyguards to start walking towards the main mansion. We are all are ready to attack."

"Krub pa" and with this Vegas ran off.

With kinn

Kinn was going through the files and that's when his phone started to ring, he glanced at the caller I'd and picked it up without a second thought.

"Krub?"

"Its all ready! Alert the bodyguards and you know what to do."

"Alright. Make sure you have him with you."

"Oh! I do, you got nothing to worry!"

"Bold of you to say that before the attack huh"

"You know me, this is how iam ."

"Yes , you asshole "

"Yeah! Iam gonna go now "

And with this the call was hung up.

Kinn looked at the bodyguards who were already looking at him knowingly

He just nodded his head and it was the queue for them to run.

"Get ready kinn" he muttered to himself before going out.

As he got down the whole mansion was in chaos, the bodyguards were running here and there getting all supplies ready and Tankhun was sitting comfortably ordering each one of them.

"I see, you are good at ordering "

Tankhun looked at his brother as his face twisted in annoyance.

"Hoi , don't forget that I was the one who brought you up "

" I know ! That's why I request you to stay in your room when the things start to begin."

Tankhun stood up as he started to stomp towards his room " I want everyone to buy me icecream when the things gets over and everyone means everyone "

Kinn smiled as he understood what the other meant.

A loud noice boomed around the mansion as he turned around.

Boom!

Do you want chan to live?

chapter 27

The minor family along with the red foxes entered with their men having the weapons in their hands ready to just slice the one coming infront of them.

They wanted to break into the mansion and attack leaving them unprepared but as they entered, the bodyguards of the main family were standing at the door being all prepared for the attack which left the other two gangs surprised.

Though kan kept his cool but the boss was losing it. He already lost the first plan he thought of. In the anger he started to shot his gun in all the directions causing every other one present there do the same.

The bodyguards of the main family were skilled enough to dodge the bullets and shoot at the right time.

Leaving the bodyguards with his mates , kan, Vegas and the boss entered into the mansion. Following them the bodyguards entered and in no time the whole mansion was filled with chaos and the sounds of the bullets.

As they were going searching for the family. Kan handed the gun to vegas.

"Vegas, its your time to show the world who holds the real power."

"Krub pa".

And with this he started to search them furiously his eyes were filled with venom as he turned the people into ashes who dared to come in between his way.

Meanwhile in the mansion.

As they heard the noises of the bullets preaching through every wall of the mansion. Kinn hurriedly took out his gun as he looked at Tankhun who was already looking at him with a terrified face.

"Pol, Arm, make sure you have him safe".

And with this being said he ran towards the noises at the speed of the light.

"Let's go khun tankhun" pol said as he grabbed hid khun 's arm as they took him into the room.

Kinn was running along with the bodyguards surrounding him and now they were infront of the minor family.

Kinn looked at his uncle, Vegas along with the boss of the red foxes as his face turned stoic ,void of any emotions.

"Uncle kan, didn't expect you to be with him"

He said with a voice filled with venom as he glared at kan.

" Well, isn't life full of surprises, my son ?" Kan replied with a smirk.

"Aren't you all tired of trying to win over my pa and always loosing?" Kinn muttered out looking back at him with a smirk as well.

Well, the words surely triggered the boss as he fired a bullet towards kinn who was fast enough to shoot at his direction killing a bodyguard of him as he hide behind the wall , dodging the bullets directing towards him.

As he was hiding, a man came from behind him but kinn was fast enough to guess the movements as he turned around and gave a man a quick throat punch and kneed his stomach making him yelp in pain and he fell on the ground unconscious.

As he tried to get out of the place , he saw two men ran down from the stairs and aimed their gun at him , he swiftly managed to dodge the bullets and shoot them in return but as he heard more steps running towards him , he decided to just fight back.

As he was shooting the mens , his attention was driven away by the man holding a not so small gun and shooting the men very swiftly without missing a shot.

"Porsche?" Kinn mumbled out as he stared at him with wide surprised eyes.

"Close your mouth and focus on here"Porsche mumbled as he grabbed as he pushed him behind himself taking the control.

"How come you are here ?" Kinn whispered yelled as they were still trying to not get shot.

"Thought of saving my personal bastard." He completed his sentence as he shot a man.

"Fuck, don't make me hard" kinn grunted still trying to just dodge the attacks.

"You and your horny ass" Porsche mumbled as he just knocked out a guy.

As they heard of more bullets being fired , kinn just lifted Porsche up as he kept turning him around making him shoot everyone at once.

"Fucking tell me before doing it" Porsche yelled as he got down but kinn in return just pecked his lips before grabbing his hands and running away from the scene.

As they reached to the ground floor there were even more men compared to the upper floors. A guy was about to kick Porsche but he was fast enough to catch his leg and twisted it hard making him cry in pain.

As they were fighting with the members they heard a gun shot being fired in air drawing everyone's attention over there.

"Hands in the air" he muttered as the bodyguards of the minor family smirked along with the red foxes. Kinnporsche looked at each other before slowing raising their hands up as they looked at Vegas who was already aiming a gun at them.

"Ah! What a great sight to encounter, the kinn theerapanyakul is in front of me , scared for his loved one life huh?" Vegas let out as he kept looking at them with hatred.

"Khun vegas, just shoot them and end this chapter ." A bodyguard yelled followed by all the other one shouting out the same.

Vegas looked at his members as his face slowly turned into a smirked one. As he turned around suddenly smoke started to fill up in the place making everything invisible.

And it was the queue.

"GO!" Kinn yelled as he started to run away from there along with Porsche.

Meanwhile with Pete

Pete was trying his best to attack the bodyguards and fight with them but it was like all the bodyguards were just ignoring him or just weren't raising a finger on him.

He was just beating anyone and the other one was just trying to save himself rather than attacking him back.

Pete started to pull a bodyguard's hard and throwing punches on his abdomen. He stopped for a sec giving the man a chance to attack him back but all he did was freed himself and started to run away.

"What the heck is going wrong ? Fight with me you bastards iam the head bodyguard !!!"

"Do you take me as no one huh ?"

He yelled at them but still was no use as the bodyguards ignored him and was just focusing on their own companion.

Back to kinnporsche

They both ran towards the main mansion's living room and at one point they were surrounded by the members of the red foxes who were all covered in mask.

Kinn face turned into worry as he slowly looked at Porsche who was equally worried as him. Kinn took out his gun as he moved and stood infront of Porsche, covering him.

"When I say run, you will run." Kinn whispered.

"I won't leave you here alone" Porsche whispered back.

"Just do as I say."

Kinn tucked his gun and pulled out a small knife as he ran towards the men and started to just stab the members with the knife on the other hand Porsche was trying to take down the men as well.

"Porsche ,run" kinn yelled as he saw that the men were running towards him with a sharp knife.

Porsche as ordered by kinn ran away from them but not before witnessing kinn being stabbed by them, he wanted to run back but the way kinn was trying to still fight back for his safety didn't allow him to turn back on his heels.

"Argh!" He groaned in pain as the man stabbed him in the thigh.

Kinn got up and started to throw punches on the men but a gun shot took their attention.

As kinn looked back it was Vegas , shooting each and every men of the red foxes , he smirked at Vegas who returned it back with a big one.

Kinn got up and moved towards Vegas and pointed his gun at him who did the same as both of them looked at each other with blank faces.

"Its not like anyone is looking man, drop your gun" whispered Vegas

"Are you sure?" Kinn asked as he looked around the area.

"Aren't you connected with arm on the transmitter ?" Vegas asked in return.

" No?" Kinn answered.

"Arm, connect kinn " Vegas ordered arm.

"So, Arm informed you ?"

"Yeah he did and now we should keep going ."

And with this they ran towards the living room

Meanwhile with Porsche

As he ran trying to save himself , finding someone to help, he encountered the bodyguards fighting off with the members without wasting a sec he concealed behind a wall.

A few mins later silence engulfed the area, sweat ran down his forehead as the silence was anything but peaceful.

As he slowly crouched down to look ahead , he was hitted by an iron rod at the back of his forehead as he fell unconscious.

"Caught you" kan whispered with a wicked smile as he left from there telling his bodyguards to carry Porsche to their car.

As the bodyguards were picking Porsche, they were yelled by the head bodyguard.

Pete who was all frustrated over everything was walking around the parking area and that's when he caught the bodyguards taking Porsche with them. He wasted no time as he rab towards them.

Pete gave a quick round kick hitting a guy on his head. The man fell down as his head was hitted by the ground , groaning in pain. The other men were conscious as the all 5 remained guys were looking at pete.

"Let us go and it will be good for you" a man uttered.

"It won't end good for you bastards" pete yelled as he thrown a punch on the man's abdomen and kicked him hard on his face.

The other didn't fight as they were ordered not to but the man who was punched felt his blood boiled as he thrown a hard punch on pete's faCe as he stumbled a few steps back.

"Hey, what are you doing? We aren't allowed t-" he was cut off.

"Fuck that allowance. I will show him who iam"

And with this he matches towards pete, pushed him hard on the ground as he sat on him throwing punches all over his face as the last punch was thrown on his neck.

As they were fighting a man hurriedly dialed to kan who picked up at the first ring.

"Khun kan , the head bodyguard isn't letting us go "

"Fuck, kill him there".

"Bu-"

"I don't care, kill him or whatever I want Porsche and that's it"

And with this the call was hung up. The man looked at his campanions who were already looking at him. He nodded his head as they all started to move towards pete who was already groaning in pain.

The men all surrounded him as pete looked at them with a slight smirk. A man came forward with a knife in his hands but pete was fast enough to snatch the knife and stab the guy straight into his chest leaving him life less.

The other one ran towards pete with a knife as they both fell on the ground with the man on the top of pete,he stabbed pete multiple times on his thighs , arms and cheeks leaving him all bloody.

Pete turned their position around as he was on top of him as he grabbed his knife and sliced his throat.

As pete got up and kicked the other man on his abdomen as they both started throwing punches at each other the man slowly took his knife out stabbing pete in his abdomen , pete groaned in pain as he spat out blood. He still didn't stop as he continued to fight the man.

The other man hurriedly picked up the iron rod which was laying there as he Hit pete hard which resulted him to fall unconscious as well. Not Wasting another sec, the remained men picked up Porsche but as they were going, a man looked back at pete.

"And what about him?"

"We aren't told to bring him"

"But what if he informed that we were the one who attacked him, boss Vegas will neither let us live nor die" he said as his face was filled with horror.

"We are fucked up, let's just take him"and with this the both best friends were taken away.

Meanwhile with kinn and Vegas

As they reached to the living room, it was all silent , there was no commotion happening as they left in the start, everywhere there were only bodies which were just all bloody . Kinn informed the other bodyguards to just clean the mess as he and Vegas made their way towards korn room.

As they reached , the door was all open , there was No one in the room , panic ran down their bodies as they started to search for him in the whole big ass room and they came into the walon wardrobe there was chan laying on the floor blood oozing out from this forehead where he was shot to dead.

Kinn sharply looked at Vegas who was analysing the body of chan, he grabbed vegas's collar a he shouted .

"Where is my pa?"

"Kinn, how would I know, I was with you "

"You fucking dared to betray me, betray us ??" Kinn yelled as he thrown a punch on Vegas's chin.

"Kinn, iam not betraying you guys, its me who came up with the plan remember, plan against my pa, then why would I do so?"

" Then where the fuck is my pa???

"Kinn, lets ju-"

Vegas was cut off by the phone ring.

He looked at the caller id and it was kan, kinn signed him to pick up the call.

"Pa?"

"Vegas, we are out of the place. Get out from there "

"But pa?"

"I will send you an address, come here , there is a surprise my son, and it wil ruin this kinn"

And with this the call was ended.

Vegas and kinn both looked at each other as their mind ran down with only one thought.

"He is with him"

chapter 28

Kinn and Vegas looked at each other as they said

"He is with him"

Kinn squinted his eyes in anger as he thrown the vase which was kept on the side table.

"How dare he take my pa away, I will just kill that asshole"

He exclaimed in anger.

"Kinn, we should be calm enough to face them, we need to know why pa is doing the things which were never done " Vegas uttered as he kept looking at the floor.

Kinn looked at him but Vegas was still facing the floor. He slowly walked to him as he kept his hand on his shoulder which made Vegas look at him.

"What?" Vegas asked with a raised eyebrow.

"N-nothing? Lets just go and tell the others , we need to hurry!" And with that he went out followed by Vegas.

As they came down in the living room, the bodies were already removed, the bodyguards were standing there whispering to each other. Tankhun was also standing there with a panicked face with pol and arm was busy clicking on his laptop.

"Kinn!!!!!" Tankhun yelled out running to him as he started crying.

"What, what happen?" Kinn asked looking at arm and pol.

Pol looked at Arm, as Arm just turned his laptop around to let kinn and Vegas see what he was doing.

Their eyes widened as they both clenched their fists looking at the screen where Porsche was attacked by kann and pete was fighting off with the bodyguards but eventually falling uncouncious with blood running down his forehead turning his face all bloody.

Vegas hurriedly ran towards the screen as he raised his hand and placed at screen where the bodyguards were picking him up and when he realized that they were none other the minor family's bodyguards, his ran out of his cool as he just thrown the laptop aside.

Vegas just sat on the couch with a face which was void of emotions. He let out no sound but the silence was enough to make the air thick around them. Kinn looked at him and he knew that a storm was erupting inside him. It was the silence before the destruction.

"What the hell were you doing when this all happened huh???"

Kinn yelled out resulting the bodyguards keep their heads down as they just couldn't face the warth of their khun.

"Khun kinn, it seems like khun kann wanted to kidnap Porsche but pete came in between and he was taken away by them too." Arm said keeping his eyes on only kinn Not wanting to even look at Vegas who looked like he can burn down this world now.

"He took pa too!" Kinn muttered out which was enough to make Tankhun scream out of the shock.

"Khun kinn , we should start looking for them without wasting a lot of time" pole let out as the other bodyguards nodded their heads wanting to save their boss as soon as possible.

And that's when a ding was heard. Vegas looked at his phone as his face darkened. Kinn looked at him and Vegas just nodded approving him.

"Let's go!" Kinn said.

"I will go with you" tankhun stubbornly uttered.

"Tankhun,please stay here, I can't keep looking after you there, it would be a big help "

Tankhun just shook his head in disbelief as he stomped towards his room.

" I shared the address with you , come there as soon as you can" he ordered looking at Arm who just nodded his head.

As they were going kim entered the living room with all panicked face.

"Is chay in here?" He asked with a few panting.

"No" kinn muttered.

"Huh?? But ?"

"Kim, go and find your lover with yourself we need to go rn" kinn let out in frustration.

"Hey kinn, what's wrong ?"

Out of anger kinn just grabbed his collar as he yelled.

"Do you even fucking care about what is happening in here , all you care about is yourself and your fucking chay, do you look around the mansion, look what the heck is our appearance. Here we are worried sick about pa and there you are playing fucking hide and seek."

"W-what , where is pa?"

"Kim, its no time to explain, if you wanna come then just come now , don't waste our time" kinn uttered and just went out , Vegas followed him and eventually he followed them.

.....

They reached the place where kann told Vegas to, the destination was far away from the public places, it was an abandoned building , and as it was already late evening, there was all darkness around.

They slowly made their way inside the building as the place was all quiet they can't afford to make a single pinch of a sound.

They kept moving forward and at one end there was light peeking from there. Vegas and kinn looked at each other as they all made themselves ready to face whatever coming on the way.

As they entered into the light, the bodyguards and men of red foxes were all standing in there. As soon as they noticed the men other than Vegas. They all got cautious as they ran towards them and in no time the place was all chaos again.

But the men in here were much stronger than the men who were in attack which resulted in the injuries. Kinn, Vegas and kim , the all three were already very much injured as they couldn't even stand straight but were still trying to do their best to fight back.

In order to save one another , they were stabbing, firing, punching the ones coming infront of them but still all went to vain as they were now being tied to the chair , with the injuries bleeding all over their bodies.

As they were now all tied to the chairs and the bodyguards were being held by the men, kann came out infront of them with a wicked smirk on his face.

"The pleasure of seeing my beloved son together with his cousin!" He said as he made his way towards Vegas who was glaring at him. Kan just spun his hand around his face resulting the finger prints on Vegas's face.

He then looked at the bodyguards as he nodded his head.

The bodyguards went inside a truck as they all started to drag one by one outside of the truck.

The first one dragged korn out of the truck who was hissing in pain as his forehead was bleeding and had been shooted on his thigh.

" PA!!!!" The Both brothers yelled out for their father!

The second one dragged Porsche out who was also groaning in pain as he was badly beaten up that resulted in the scars he now has on his cheeks, hands and feet and the dried blood along with the tears which screamed pain.

"P-porsche" kinn whispered as he started to thrash around the chair.

The third one dragged porchay who was beaten up as he kept limping while his hands were trying to get himself free.

"CHAY!!!" Kim yelled out which caught the attention of him who yelled out to him as well!

Kan looked at him as he made some sympathic sounds !

"Aww! Its so sad right ?? Haha" his laughter echoed around the building.

"Oh! The last one is still remaining" and with this drake the boss of red foxes thrown pete out of the truck who was still unconscious.

And that's when someone came as he kicked in the stomach of pete and then turned to vegas and staring at him.

Vegas eyes widened along with everyone as they never thought that he could be involved in it.

"Tawan?" He whispered as Tawan just gave him a sickening smile.

He ran towards Vegas as he cupped his face.

"Yes,baby its me! Did you miss me?"

And Vegas could just glare at him and turned his head towards pete who was still unconscious , it felt like he had lost all will to live.

"Did you like my surprise?" Drake asked as he looked at kinn.

"Fuck you!" Kinn yelled out.

They were all kneeling down as kan moved towards korn as he grabbed his jaw.

"Oh my brother, you look good being this helpless! I will make sure to fix your meeting with the god haha!"

And then he made his way towards Porsche as he slowly trailed his hands on his chest which were harshly removed by Porsche.

Kann smirked "feisty huh? Most of my client like this type ! You will be so useful " he said but as he was coming closer Porsche spatted on him which made kinn smirk.

"You bastard" kan shouted as he slapped porsche. Then he moved to chay who was looking at kim with hopes in his eyes.

Kan grabbed his jaw as he turned his face towards him.

"Kim? You wanna go to your boyfriend huh? Aww so sad that he isn't enough to save you haha "

And at last he reached pete who was groaning in pain with his eyes being closed.

"PA" Vegas yelled , halting kan.

"My son is being all scared ?" He grabbed Pete's hair as pete screamed in pain.

"My son is getting all scared for a filthy bodyguard huh! I told you make Porsche fall for you but you fucking bastard fell for a piece or trash like him huh!" Kan yelled out as he kept twisting pete's hair tightly.

Tawan ran towards kan, as he made pete stand up who couldn't even stand there straight.

"Baby, did you seriously think we wouldn't know ? I must say Vegas, this fucking bodyguard made me so jealous ,isn't it my turn to make him pay?"

And with this drake , kan along with tawan started laughing. But they didn't notice that all of them were trying to remove each other's rope. Ken and big knocked out the bodyguards who were holding on them as they hurriedly ran towards their khun and opened up their ropes

They were all freed but they still pretended to be tied up and meanwhile the bodyguards were slowly and silently knocking out the other bodyguards and the men of the red foxes.

Kan finally turned around as he walked towards kinn with a glass of wine , he was about to pour the wine on him but kinn punched him in the stomach which made him fall on the ground with a loud thud which got the attention of the other two.

As they turned around the three of them were standing along with their bodyguards and that's when they looked back at them and caught the remaining few bodyguards all knocked out.

Vegas took out his knife as heran towards tawan who was looking at him with widened eyes

"Ba- Vegas? W-what are you doing ? You are not gonna kill me,are you ?" He stuttered as he kept moving back

Vegas glanced at pete as his face turned blank , he looked at Tawan. He slowly moved towards him as he took out his knife, he pinned him to the wall as he raised his knife,he pointed the knife on his cheek as he slowly brought it down making it a scar as Tawan screamed in pain. He did the same with the other. He then took his hand on his own as Tawan smiled at him , he smirked back before placing his hand on the table and in the swift second he cut his finger off making Tawan let out a screech of pain which made him smirk again.

"You deserve more for eyeing my Pete and saying things about him"

Tawan could only shook his head as no as his tears kept falling.

"No,vegas please no, don't do this..I- I will apologize to him , to everyone just stop this please"

"Oh baby, I wanted to do many things to you but u see I got no time, so let's make it quick huh!"

And with this Vegas took the knife as he started to stab where his hands led to , after stabbing him for like hundreds of time ruining all his body, he sliced his neck off and there the chapter of tawan ended.

Meanwhile with kinn

As kinn got up he ran towards drake as he punched him who fell on the ground, he sat on him as he kept throwing punching on him.

"You fucker, want me to eat you alive huh??"

"I won't mind"he said with a seductive smile.

"You bastard " and with this kinn took out his gun , he shot him thrice and made him sleep forever.

And now the only one left was kan.

Kinn and Vegas started to move towards him as kan was glaring at him.

"You asshole, going against your father huh ? Going against the one who brought you up?" He yelled at Vegas.

Vegas gave him a light smile as he moved towards him.

"Iam not pa, I was never against my pa but iam against the businessman kan theerapanyakul , the mafia , and the human trafficker , do you think I don't know how you kidnap children, teenagers, women and boys just to pleasure your clients huh ! Wasn't giving me up was enough ????... Why pa , why you have to so inhuman !! Why..... "

And with this he broke down. Today the world saw Vegas , as a broken son not as a heir.

Kinn without thinking twice shot kan who fell lifeless there and then. Vegas looked at his father who was laying death there , he slowly moved towards kan , as he held his now cold hands.

"Iam sorry pa , iam so sorry for not being a good son, iam sor-" he was cut off.

"You shouldn't be sorry for saving your father from commiting more crimes and saving lives vegas, you shouldn't be" korn uttered looking at Vegas with a smile.

"Shall we get going then?" Ken asked as he looked at his khuns holding their partners well except Vegas.

Pete was held by big , he was still not very conscious which was making them worried sick.

"Yes, let's keep going" korn uttered.

Vegas moved towards big as he carried pete in bridal style and made his way out.

But before they could all move out.....

Bang!

There, a shot was heard.....

chapter 29

Vegas carried pete in his arms, his face was filled with worry as he started to move out of the place, there a gun shot was heard and soon Vegas groaned it pain , as he lost his balance when he felt a prierching pain near his left shoulder , but he still didn't let go of the unconscious pete as he slowly turned around.

Meanwhile all the members were shocked as they saw blood running down from vegas's shoulder and when they turned around, they caught a man standing there all proud with a gun in his hand aiming directly at Vegas as he was smirking.

Big and ken without wasting a sec, dashed towards him as they took his gun back and held him between them.

"Rawn?" Kinn frowned.

Every other one looked at the man and kinn with confused eyes.

"Oh yes, Iam glad you still remember me"

"What the fuck do you want?"

" Do you think I would easily let go of the one who killed my brother?" Rawn the said brother of Tawan said as he glared at Vegas who just smirked at him.

" Waste of time , tsk" Vegas uttered as he started to walk out with pete still in his arms.

"Get him" korn uttered looking at the bodyguards who nodded their heads.

And everyone else followed Vegas, outside of the abandoned place.

.....

At the main mansion

Everyone arrived at the main mansion, tankhun was already waiting with his bodyguards and as soon as the member present in the main mansion, saw the conditions of all the men, their eyes bulged out as they hurriedly ran towards their boss.

" Master!!"

"Boss!"

"What happen khun?"

"Get the doctor !!! Hurry up"

"Get the Infirmary room ready"

After all the chaos, everyone were finally nursed, but Vegas had to gone through a little rough time as the bullet was indeed deeper , causing a hole in his skin.

Meanwhile the doctors were still examining pete who was not taking the name of conscious. Tankhun was wailing at Pete's condition as pol and arm had a hard time dealing with it.

Porsche was looking at pete with guilty eyes as he got to know how pete was all hurt in order to save him. Everyone are present in the Infirmary except kim and chay as they both already took their leave.

"Kinn, I wanna see the footage" Porsche muttered out.

"What footage?" Kinn asked back with confusion.

"The one Arm shown you" and now everyone knew what he was taking about.

"Baby, lets n-" and he was cut off "I want to"

Kinn sighed as he told arm to bring it.

Arm cane back with the footage and Porsche told him to connect it to the TV in the Infirmary room. Arm did as he was said.

The video played on the big screen, clearing shown each and every blow, stab and punches along with the kicks pete got. The video shown how his face everytime twisted in pain, how his body achred with pain but pete still fighting back just to not let them take his friend was just so much for Porsche as he started to cry then and there. Kinn hugged him whispering sweet nothings in his ear.

Tankhun was crying as well in his father 's chest as korn was comforting him with a contagious smile on his face.

" I chose the best out there to be the head bodyguard" he Muttered but it was loud enough to be heard by everyone as everyone present there eventually nodded their heads.

" He won't be your head bodyguard anymore" ...

There a voice was heard catching everyone's attention.

It was Vegas.

Everyone looked at him with Confused eyes but tankhun marched towards him in all anger as he barked at vegas's face.

"WHY WON'T HE BE? HE IS MY BODYGUARD AND MINE ONLY"

And Vegas was no less...

" HE IS MY WIFE"

"HUH???" everyone shouted at the same time.

"What???" Everyone yelled again.

"You guys heard me, iam gonna wife him up !" He smugly replied.

"What the hell , you psycho! Stay away from my pete, iam Not allowing my bodyguard to marry a psychopath like you!!!" Tankhun yelled.

"Who is even asking for your permission, I will marry him whether you like it or not" he shot back.

"What about Pete's approval?" Pol uttered in between.

Vegas smirked as he looked at everyone who got goosebumps just by his emotionless face with that smirk.

"He has no say in it ! When I first laid my eyes on him, he was mine from then! "

Kinn came to him as he kept his hand on his shoulder " relax! We know it already and no need to scare the poor creatures" he said directing towards the bodyguards who were actually terrified at the big info.

And Vegas just shrugged his shoulder.

"Appa, what is he saying, and why are you all acting like nothing happened hours ago, don't forget you all promised me something and you psychopath , I will deal with you when my Pete gets up! Let's see who will he choose!"

Tankhun glared at last as he stomped out of the Infirmary followed By his bodyguards.

After all the bodyguards left along with korn, it was only four of them. Pete was laying on the bed all unconscious and Vegas was staring at him with sadden eyes.

"He is fine, Vegas " kinn softly uttered.

But Vegas just shook his head.

"He isn't. He is filled with scars, pain and all the stitches." He said as a drop of tear left his eye..

"Let's be thankful that he made it and lets all just try to take the best care of him after all the most precious one he is" Porsche said looking at his friend laying there with a smile which held many unsaid emotions behind.

"I still can't believe , he made this maniac a love sick" kinn chuckled causing the other two to smile as well.

"Hell yeah!" Vegas and Porsche said in unison.

"You guys should go and probably rest , I will be with him" Vegas said as kinnporsche nodded.

"Let's hope you won't freak him out" kinn let out as vegas looked at him with an unimpressed face.

"Get out" he muttered as kinn rolled his eyes , he was about to say something but Porsche pushed him out yelling out a goodnight.

It was all vegaspete now.

"Pete, you better open your eyes soon , or I want hesitate to take my vows in here" he chuckled at the end.

"You may really freak out , seeing me here but eh let's hope you won't go through a heart attack when I confess to you "

"Get up soon, my love! Let's make it all fine till the end !"

chapter 30

Two weeks later

It was two weeks later, pete was still unconscious, everyone were worried sick but things were getting on track. The main family got their hands on the red foxes business and all the micro enterprises under the control of them got free and they oath to always be loyal to the theerapanyakuls.

Meanwhile Vegas took the control of the minor family, he set them back on the right track, he dissloved all the false agreements and works his father did. He appointed some good bodyguards and alloted them some real good facilities.

Kan theerapanyakul's funeral was held and almost everyone was too shocked to know that he was not in between them ,they couldn't believe that kan died when he had a son like Vegas who was always for his protection.

The relationship between the main and minor family were much better however the mistress of kan just ran away after knowing the her husband was no longer in this world and not wanting to get killed by Vegas , she chose to run.

The relationship of kinn and Porsche was much better now though the tables turned and it was Porsche who was in the lead of their relationship. Tankhun remained the same sassy queen he was and his bodyguards were just managing him along with their relationship.

Even though they seem much good to the outside world the things in the mansion were not good at all. Everyone was still waiting for pete. To get up and be among them. Vegas Never left his side , he always preferred to be with him but the condition of minor family didn't let him.

However it was the day , the happiness knocked on Vegas's door.

"Argh" pete groaned as he opened his eyes. He looked around the room as he slowly sat leaning on the bed. He stared at the white wall blankly as he started to recall the things which happened.

The last thing he remembered was Vegas carrying him outside of the place. Pete looked around the room and having no one around him was making him restless. He slowly got down the bed as he started to move towards the door.

But the first step he took resulted in losing his balance. He could have fallen but the hands around his waist didn't let him. Pete closed his eyes but he never felt the impact.

"Are you okay?" There the voice was heard.

Pete slowly opened his eyes meeting with the dark brown eyes of Vegas, looking at him with a worried pair of eyes.

"K-khun ve-vegath?" He stammered.

"Shhh.. let's get you to the bed first." He let out as he carried and placed him on the bed and pete was just staring at him the whole time.

"Are you feeling okie?" Asked Vegas.

"Y-yes iam, khun Vegath. Thank you"

"I will inform everybody that you are awake. Just stay here okie"

"Okie"

And with this Vegas left the room. As soon as he came outside the room,he slowly kept his hand on his raising heartbeat "he is awake Vegas, he is awake now" he muttered as a big heart warming smile made its way to his face.

After a few mins everyone was present in the Infirmary. Tankhun and Porsche were the first one who rushed and hugged pete like there was no tomorrow, they eventually teared up.

"Pete, you asshole why did you take so long huh?" Porsche muttered as he smacked pete who let out a low groan.

"Yahhhh! Why are you causing him pain huh! Stay away!!" It was tankhun who just pushed Porsche away from pete and stood infront of him,staring at everyone with wide eyes.

"Let the doctor check him first". Vegas said as his eyes never left pete.

Tankhun looked at him with an unimpressed face and just tsked before moving behind pete.

Doctor came forward and Concluded that pete was all fine but still very weak. Everyone nodded at the doctor and pol went with him to get the prescribed meds.

Meanwhile all the time pete was looking around with clueless eyes which was just so much for a certain person.

Kinn came forward "pete, are you feeling good?"

"Yes khun kinn iam all fine. " He assured with a wide smile on his face like always.

"Yeah, all fine" murmured Vegas as he let out a tsk to himself.

"We are glad that you are finally conscious and feeling good. Take rest and then we will talk it all out." Kinn said as he nodded at pete before going out of the room.

"Peteeeee" whined tankhun as he hugged him.

"Yes khun tankhun?" Pete said as he smiled.

"Do you wanna rest or shall we talk all day?" He said as he looked at pete with those puppy eyes.

"Let's tal-" and he was cut off.

" Tankhun, I think he should take rest, didn't the doctor say that he is weak ?" Vegas said as he looked at tankhun no actually glared at tankhun.

"So what? He is my bodyguard , he will do what I say" tankhun said stubbornly as he glared at his cousin.

"He isn't your bodyguard anymore" and Vegas cared to remind him again.

But pete eyes widened at the new information as he looked at tankhun with those big doe questioning eyes.

Tankhun looked at him and just nodded with a pout before letting out a cry and running out of the room followed by Arm.

Porsche looked at the retreating figure of tankhun as his face turned to disgust.

"Can't even act properly " he muttered to himself.

"Huh? Did you say something Porsche?" Pete said as he now looked at his best friend with curious eyes.

"Me? What, no hehe! You surely need rest. Let's talk later haha" Porsche let out with a nervous laugh and ran out of the room as well.

As he was outside of the room,there was tankhun standing along with his bodyguards with a proud smirk.

"What?" Porsche let out annoyed

"Iam better than you" tankhun said as he looked at his bodyguards who nodded their heads in approval.

"What? "

"In acting hoiii"

"Oh please , iam the best in acting " Porsche defended.

"Oh yeah! The way you acted could have disclosed our plan " tankhun whispered as he looked at Porsche with an annoying look.

"Whatever but do you think Vegas will talk it out with pete?" Porsche whispered as he slowly leaned on the door.

"That psycho , should be glad that iam approving with my pete, otherwise he would have just dreamt of having pete like he had been doing for the years tsk" tankhun said as he leaned on the closed door of the Infirmary room.

"Yeah yeah! But he didn't need your approval though" Porsche smirked.

And Tankhun just let out a tsk.

He was about to say something but they heard the voices from the room

Inside the Infirmary room

As Porsche ran out pete was just looking towards the door with confused face as he just couldn't understand his friend and his khun like he knew they were weird but never knew that their weirdness is this deep.

Vegas was just looking pete as he clearly knew what he was thinking and personally he himself wasn't impressed by their acting but yeah he got what he wanted.

Being alone with pete.

"Pete?" He let out in his soft deep tone.

"Huh?" Pete let out as he was taken out of his thoughts.

Vegas slowly Moved towards him as he swiftly caressed Pete's cheek.

"Iam glad that you are awake. Finally."

He let out as a soft peck was placed at Pete's forehead.

chapter 31

" You are awake finally !" Vegas whispered as he pecked pete's forehead who was too stunned to speak. Vegas looked at him as he smiled which was even more confusing for pete.

"Why is khun Vegath acting like this " was the only thing he has in his mind.

"Do you wanna have some water?" And yet again pete was too stunned to speak so he just nodded his head.

And Vegas instead of handing pete the glass, he made him drink the water which pete couldn't take it as he started to cough and Vegas wasn't making it any better by soothingly running his hand on his back and muttering the sweet things to pete.

Finally after a long five minutes pete got better by all the coughing and Vegas finally breathed in relief..

"Are you okie now?"

"My throat hurts" whined pete.

"Who told you to cough out this loud then ? Of course it will hurt" and there Vegas said out being irritated.

"How could you scold me for coughing ?? Its not my fault that iam shock to death that you are being like this towards me" pete brusted out too.

"What the? What do you mean I was always like this"

"You were not"

"I was"

"No"

"Yes"

"NO"

"YES"

"N-"..

And there he was cut off as the door brusted open by Tankhun who was glaring at Vegas and Porsche who was glaring at pete with the both bodyguards smiling nervously trying to calm their khun.

"What the heck are you guys doing?" Yelled Porsche startling the pair in the room.

"Hoiii! You get this psycho out of this room can't even do something properly " tankhun yelled as he was deadly glaring at Vegas who was just looking at him with unbothered face.

"Iam not going anywhere" he said as he sat on the stool placed beside the Bed.

"You will go" countered back Tankhun.

"No"

"Yes".

"No WTF" he yelled as Tankhun started to drag him outside the room with Porsche and the bodyguards following behind them.

Meanwhile pete could do nothing so he just laid down with a pout.

Tankhun dragged Vegas to kinn's office as he thrown him on the sofa and sat beside him. Kinn was looking at them being confused so Porsche explained him everything.

"Vegas, why would you fight with him?"

"I didn't not. It was him who started it.. I was being all sweet "

"That's the point why are you being all sweet out of a blue" yelled Tankhun.

"What the... No it's not out of the blue.. I was always like this towards him" defended Vegas.

"You were not" Porsche said as he looked at him with questioning eyes.

"I was"

"No you were not"

"Vegas, you were not like this... You always ignored him remember.. you never acknowledged him." And there Porsche thrown the facts on his face.

"I agree but I never ignored him when we were alone." Vegas said back.

"YOU GUYS WERE ALONE?" Yelled everyone.

"Ofcourse we were." Vegas smirked remembering all the sweet moments.

"Wait wait wait!! I think iam not getting it.. if you guys had sweet moments then why is pete saying that you were not like this to him?" Tankhun asked and everyone else nodded their head wanting to know the same thing.

Vegas shrugged "I don't know that, iam confused about it.. why would he deny that"

"Ohh whatever it was... But now you need to explain everything to him" kinn said and Vegas nodded his head.

"Whatever it is, if you hurt my pete again , I will be the one shooting you to death remember" threatened tankhun as he made his way out of the room followed by the bodyguards.

"Should we explain him everything now?" Porsche proposed.

Vegas gulped as he slowly shook his head.

Porsche looked at him " Vegas it would be good if he know this early... I can't even imagine his reaction... I shouldn't have hide it from him." He could only look down.

"But we can do nothing now.." Vegas muttered....

"It would be all good.he will understand us. You guys should explain it to him" kinn agreed which was eventually agreed by Vegas. As Porsche and Vegas made their way to the Infirmary room.

Pete was sitting against the wall looking at nothing at particular his eyes shifted towards the door as he heard the footsteps. His heart soared at the view... Seeing Porsche and Vegas walking towards him together.

Are they gonna tell me that they are together now... Shiaaaa

"Pete we are here to tell you something " Porsche started as he glanced towards Vegas who nodded his head.

"I know what you are gonna tell me" said pete as he turned his head to the other direction not wanting to see them together.

"You know about the plan??" Porsche and Vegas shouted in unison.

"Plan? What plan?" Now pete was curious.

"Pete, we are gonna tell you everything .....Which was hidden From you.Will you try to understand?" Porsche said as he looked at his best friend with puppy eyes.

Pete just raised his eyebrows indicating them to start.

"Pete.... It was all a plan." Started Porsche.

"What?"

"The confront between the main and minor family , the fights between me and kinn,me returning to my home,and all was planned beforehand.

"Huh... Iam not understanding anything "

Porsche gulped as he slowly looked at Vegas who squished his hands and nodded at him...

"Actually a month ago Vegas came to kinn and..."

Flashback

Vegas made his way towards kinn's office with the hurried steps having a file in his hands ignoring all the bodyguards who were Bowing to him. As he came to kinn's office he pushed the door open startling kinn.

"What are you doing here?" Kinn asked with a raised brow ,Vegas sat on the chair opposite to kinn as he tossed the file towards him.

Kinn glanced at him confusedly as vegas signed towards the file. Kinn opened it and in No time his eyes went wide as he grabbed vegas's collar glaring at him

" WHAT THE HECK IS All THIS?"

"Human trafficking"

"YOU FUCK-" he was cut off

"Done by pa"

And there kinn eyed widened as he slowly took away his hands from Vegas and stared at him with the same wide eyes. Vegas gestured to sit.

"Kinn, i-i want help?" Vegas sounded unsure.

It was a huge step of his life where he was for the first time in his life was asking for someone's life that too his competatative cousin who was anything but a cousin to him.

"What?" Kinn asked.

"Kinn, the file you saw belongs to pa, you can even check his signs, and the photos you saw are the people h-he sold to his clients" Vegas said as he looked down ashamed as kinn didn't say anything he continued

"I know pa has done many things wrong I have supported him in them b-but I can't now, I cant see him selling people off to those inhumans who don't see anyone as humans... And to stop this I need your help,t-the main family's help." Vegas let out in an unsured way.

Meanwhile kinn was too shocked to even let out a word,like he always knew his uncle was indulged in some works which the main family wasn't but human trafficking was beyond their imaginations. Vegas asking for his help was even more shocking to him.

"Why don't you do that yourself?"

"Do you think I didn't try if it was only my pa I would have already done it but there is someone involved too" Vegas uttered.

"Someone else?" Kinn asked with a frown.

"Yes... Red foxes ... He is involved with them"

And the confrontation of Vegas was enough for kinn to get the biggest shock of his life.

He knew who red foxes were.. the theerapanyakul's all time rival. The competitors and he never ever imagined that his uncle would be together with them.

Kinn slowly nodded his head as he agreed to help Vegas in this.since then they started to make plans about how it had to be done.Vegas told them their plan about Porsche and there they decided to involve him into the plan. Korn was already into the plan being the head of the main family.

The first plan was of Tawan. The date and the arrival of Tawan in the main family was all planned just to make the red foxes believe that their plan was working.

In the midnight when Porsche left the main family Tankhun was all mad and yelled at kinn and korn and being helpless they had to explain everything to Tankhun and warned him not to tell anybody.

At the midnight at Porsche's house ..Kinn and Vegas arrived there as the three started to discuss the further.

"So, what do we need to do next?" Kinn asked.

"We can just relax now,work is already done" Porsche said as he leaned on the couch.

"You guys sure?" Uttered Vegas as he was rubbing his forehead.

"Ofc we are not dumb like you" kinn replied with a smirk.

"Can you Like shut up?"

"Can you ever shut up?"

"Can you both shut up and get out?" Yelled Porsche and Vegas reluctantly left the room followed by kinn.

"Bastards!"

End of the flashback.

As Porsche was done saying everything he looked at Vegas who nodded at him and then they both looked at pete who was just looking down.

"Aye pete...Say something" Porsche said as he tried to hold pete's hands which was jerked off by him.

Pete let out a humourless chuckled as he looked at them both...he said nothing but was just staring at them with a blank face .. and Porsche just looked down with a feeling of guilt.

Vegas moved to pete as he made Him looked at himself but pete face still remained the same.

"Pete.. pls say something... I know we shouldn't have hide it from you but please don't be like this" begged Porsche.

"I need to rest .. leave me alone" uttered pete in a cold tone.

"Pete please"

"You should go and probably enjoy the victory Porsche oh maybe you guys have done that already." Pete said with a blank face.

"Pete please its not like that." And the first time Vegas said something.

Pete looked at him as he chuckled " khun Vegath.. you don't need to request to a mere bodyguard like me.. please take your friend out .. I need to rest .. I have my duties to continue."

"You should listen to him pete" said Vegas contrary to pete's words.

Pete looked at Vegas with a broken expression as he said "ofc what was I expecting ... You would never do something for me."

"Pete, its no-" he was cut off.

" You were all the way just acting since the beginning right?" Asked pete with a sharp tone but his eyes held tears.

"No I was not .. I never did" and there Vegas for the first time tried to make someone understand.

"I can never trust anyone again. I never realized I was living in a house with full of strangers." He finally let out as his voice cracked in between which was enough for Porsche to let out a sob he was holding.

Not wanting to see his best friend crying pete just laid on the bed and covered himself with the blanket from head to toe.

Having no choice left Vegas took Porsche out of the room who was desparately trying to reach out pete.

Meanwhile pete could only let out a loud screech of pain as he started to sob heavily clutching his chest tightly to stop the pain.

"Fuck me...Fuck my life... Ma...
Take me with you please" he brokenly uttered to no one in specific... There was no one to listen to his broken cries just like always.

chapter 32

It was already evening and pete was sitting like a corpse neither Moving nor talking. The whole mansion was suffocating with the silence. Porsche tried countless of times to talk to pete but he turned a deaf ear towards him. Kinn tried to make Porsche understand but he was no where near to understand.

So this time tankhun came to rescue.

He slowly got into the room followed by his bodyguards. Pete didnt look at him he was just staring at the wall. Tankhun went to him as he slowly sat beside him. He held Pete's hand despite pete tries to get it free.

The room was dead silent as Tankhun broke the silence.

"Pete... I know you are angry at us for not telling you.. but the situation was like that we couldn't afford to disclose to anyone.i-"

"Khun tankhun... You don't need to apologize to your bodyguard. Iam at no place to be angry at my khun. I don't have such rights." Pete said cutting off Tankhun and the words were a dragger to the heart of his khun.

"Pete... Don't say like that please.you have all the rights to be angry at me. You are not just a bodyguard for me." Tankhun tried to make his point of view.

But all pete did was chuckle.

"Khun tankhun.. the words you use.. sound so sweet but we both know it's not the truth. Iam not angry at you or khun kinn because I know I have no rights to be. But iam angry at my friends." He said as he glanced towards pol and arm who just looked down unable to meet his eyes.

"Iam angry at myself that I wasn't the friend they could trust .. iam angry at Porsche... But then again he isn't just my friend .. he is the boyfriend of khun kinn ... Ofcourse not just a commoner. I understand it ..I just.. just need time." He finished as he looked at tankhun with a smile which made them feel even more guiltier.

"Pete... You need time right ? Alright as you say. Take your time but please don't stop talking to us. Please be the same pete as you were. " Tankhun said desparately as he clenched his hands tight.

Pete nodded with a smile as Tankhun pulled him into a hug.

"Forgive this dumb khun of yours. " He muttered in the hug and the words was enough to bring tears into the eyes of pete. No matter what he can never be mad at his khun. Because he was there for him when no one was. He never let him feel the loneliness. Ofcourse khun tankhun was the angel of Pete's world.

Pete slowly nodded his head as he hugged him back tighter he muttered"khun Tankhun... I just can't with you.... Stop acting so cute!"

Tankhun pulled back with a pout "I was born cute hoii... But iam hotter tho" he completed it with a smirk making pete laugh finally.

Meanwhile pol and arm were looking at the interaction with a heartwarming smile and teary eyes. They will never forgive themselves for hurting pete. But the actions can't be undone. We just need to move forward in lives.

They both came and sat either side of pete and pete just looked straight avoiding them. Tankhun chuckled at them as he went out of the room to bring food for pete.

"Pete?" Pol called out ..

"Peteeeeeee" whined arm.

"Peteeeeeeeeeeee" and both of them whined loudly as they shook pete violently.

"Hoii bastards.. iam still weak.. want me to go in coma again huh!" Yelled pete as pol and arm hurriedly shook their heads as no.

"Pete.. forgive us na"

"Please pete "

"We will bring you southern dishes from chillygilly restaurant everyday"

"We will do your laundry everyday"

"We will feed you"

"I will make your favourite tea everything "

"I wi-"

"Okie ... Okie.. I forgive you... You bastards. Do it again I will kill you guys myself. And yes you need to do everything you just said." Pete smirked at the end.

"WHAT?"" Yelled the bodyguards in unison.

"YES" pete shouted back.

"Hehe okie okie... we are sorry again. We can't undo it. We are very gulity. " Arm muttered looking down.

"Yes pete. We are sorry.and yes we will do everything to make you happy and healthy. Thank you for forgiving us" pol completed.

As the trio hugged each other.

"Aa.. aa.. enough of the emotional scenes.. let my pete have his food" tankhun said from the door moving towards them with a big plate of food filled with southern dishes.

"YeSS" the bodyguards yelled in excitement.

And the four of them jumped into the food right away.

Meanwhile the whole time Porsche was looking at them with tears in his eyes. He failed as a best friend. And the realization didn't do any better.

Time skip...At night

It was already night. Pete was all ready to sleep. But the Knock on the door startled him as he groaned and told to come in.

Porsche slowly opened the door and came inside with a nervous smile. Pete looked at him with a blank face and asked.

"Why are you here?"

"Pete.. I want to talk to you".

"But I don't " he said as he laid on the bed.

Porsche said nothing as he slowly moved towards the bed and laid beside pete hugging him.

"Get off ai'porsche"

"Not until you listen to me"

Pete said nothing and Porsche took it as a que to start it.

"We never intended to tell anyone.it was just me, kinn and Vegas. Actually it all started when Vegas found out that his pa was doing human trafficking"

And pete eyes widened.

"He came to kinn to ask for his help.He confronted that his pa planned to make me and kinn hate each other so that's how I was included into this. Believe me it was never meant to include anyone but Tankhun is just so stubborn so we had to tell him. I don't know how pol and Arm got to know."

"Pete..i know I failed as a best friend several times but you never stepped back to prove our friendship. Will you please give me a chance to prove that I love the same as you do. I trust you the same as you do. Will you please?" At the end he broke down into tears.

Pete slowly turned around as he made Porsche put his head on his chest.

"Shhh... Who told you that you failed as a best friend.. say it again and I will kill you myself. You are the best bestfriend anyone can have.. I know you are dumb but so what everyone has a flaw right "

Pete chuckled as Porsche smacked him on his chest.

"Bastard iam still hurt" he groaned.

"Will you forgive me?" Porsche asked looking at pete with hopeful eyes

"I already did you moron"

"I love you pete" Porsche said out

"Shiaaaa.... Don't tell me you have fallen for my charms" pete said as he made a disgusting face.

"Asshole... My kinn is more handsome than you"

"Yeah yeah... Now get out I need to sleep"
"Let's sleep together"
"What the ... Get out"
"No"
"Aish"
Was the last thing pete said as Porsche hugged him to sleep.
Both the best friends had a content smile on their faces.
No whatever how rough the day was the night always brings peace.

chapter 33

Pete woke up very early in the morning he looked beside him and Porsche was sleeping while holding him tight he removed the arms around him as he got up from the bed, feeling a little better he moved towards the windows and removed the curtains letting the warm Sunrays enter the room and lighten it with all its warmth and joy.

He took the steps towards the bathroom very slowly and carefully washed himself off as he went out of the Infirmary room for the first after his consciousness.He looked around the floor and no one was there as it was very early he slowly made his way towards the kitchen to find himself something to eat.

Finding nothing he sighed in disappointment as he made his way towards the garden. He sat at the bench as his thoughts started to wander about everything happening around him.

He thought about the words of Porsche and Tankhun as a sigh left his lips. He then thought about the time when they were kept as slaves by kan and red foxes. He remembered when Vegas yelled out for him. How he saved him from the attack but the reasons he was thinking behind them were not good for his heart.

Time passed as pete did nothing but sat there when it was the time for breakfast he hurriedly went inside where the bodyguards are usually servered and the rest of the bodyguards were shocked to see him there but all of them wholeheartedly welcomed him and made him eat his favourite dishes.

Pete was busy chatting with everyone and suddenly the whole room got all quiet which confused pete as he looked behind he found none other Vegas standing there with his hands folded.

He slowly got up as he made his way towards Vegas and stood infront of him. Vegas looked at him with a blank face.

"What are you doing here?" He asked with a gentle tone contrary to his face.

"I had my Breakfast here" he said politely.

" How do you feel now?"

"Iam all fine khun Vegath , you don't need to be worried for a mere bodyguard like me" pete uttered with an unidentified expression as he bowed and left the room.

Vegas hurriedly followed him leaving the rest of the bodyguards confused and shocked there.

"Pete!" Vegas called out before grabbing Pete's arm and turning him around. They both stared at each other for a while with having no emotions on their faces. The eyes were just trying to into the heart of the other.

After a long silence.. pete finally broke it.

"Yes khun Vegath?" He acted just like he always does but did he wanna act like that ?

"Pete... Dont act like nothing happened.." Vegas said out looking at pete with pleading eyes.

Pete smiled as he looked at the man standing before him "then... What shall I do? Everything is just like before now.."

"No... I don't want the things to be happen like it did in the past".

"What are you saying khun Vegath?"

"Pete.... Don't you actually know what am I saying?" Vegas answered the question with a question as well.

"Khun Vegath.. i need to go now... " Pete said as he bowed and started to walk away with hurried steps.

Vegas ran towards him and stood before him blocking pete from moving ahead.

"Pete... If you can't understand it let me tell you this very clearly.... I-"

"Khun Vegath... There is no need of you to clear anything to me." Pete said cutting Vegas off.

"But I want to"

"You don't need to"

"Pete... Cant you listen to me with that mouth being shut" Vegas let out with an annoyed tone and pete immediately shut his mouth off.

"I apologize khun Vegath" he bowed to him and stood there with his head down.

"Fuck" Vegas inaudibly cursed.

"Pets, no I didn't mean it like that... Its just I have been waiting to tell you this for a while and now that I can ... You are just not letting me." Stated Vegas.

And pete did nothing other than nodding his head which made Vegas sigh.

"I apologize for not involving you in the plan." Vegas stated after a long sigh.

Pete looked up as his face was moulded into a smile as always " you don't need to apologize to me khun Vegath... I don't even expect it from you. Its obvious that you can't trust a bodyguard in this serious issues."

"No.. its not about trusting... Trust me" Vegas hurriedly said not not wanting pete to make any assumption.

"Khun Vegath .. you are being too considerate to me... Why do I feel like I like it?" Pete let out with a chuckle.

"Can't you like it?" Vegas asked back with a gentle tone.

"Iam not allowing myself for making a mountain of expectations from anyone again" pete said out with a smile but the pain was actually visible in those doe eyes of his which made Vegas heart crumble.

"Pete.... Its not because I don't trust you, I just wanted you to stay away from the hands of my pa and Tawan that's it. I didn't want anyone to hurt you especially not because of me." Vegas said it without any ounce of hesitation.

"Khun Vegath why do you keep forgetting that iam the head bodyguard I can handle any pain of this world .. I have been trained to.. why do you guys keep questioning my abilities and capacity?" And there pete brust out.

"Its not about you being the head bodyguard I just didn't want to see you get hurt"

" And why is that?" Pete yelled out and the silence surrounded them.

As pete noticed that vegas is not gonna say anything he just let out a chuckle " what did I even expect" and with this he started to walk sway.

"Chan rak khun pete ...."

Pete steps halted as he stood there like a statue there was no movement in this body... The time passed as he slowly turned towards Vegas who was already staring at him with those warm eyes.

"H-huh?" The only thing which pete let out.

Vegas smiled as he moved towards pete and stood infront of him with a nervous yet confident posture.

"I like you pete... You heard it right... The only answer I could give you is this..i like you so I can't see you getting hurt"

But all pete did was chuckle.

"You like me ?Is this your new plan or game khun vegath.. tell me so that I don't get fooled again by you or anyone. Do you think it's this easy. You have been acting all Rude and cold with me since the beginning and now you suddenly like me. From the start you were behind Porsche and now you suddenly like me.. is this because Porsche told you that i like you and you are trying to pity me huh... Then let me tell you this very clearly I don't need yours or anyone's sympathy." Pete brust out as he let everything out he wanted to without any second thought.

There was a silence between them which was making pete angrier as he glared at Vegas who was just looking at him in daze.

"Why is this happening ... God !" He let out frustratingly.

He slowly calmed himself down as he looked at his khun "I apologize khun Vegath... Please forget that I ever said all those things... "

But Vegas just shook his head as No
"Iam not gonna forget the first lash out of yours." As he chuckled at the end. Pete just looked at him with his weird gaze.

"Pete.. pete... Pete... I never knew you looked this cute while being angry haha... Ah let me tell you the love for you didn't Develop out of a blue it has been sowed so early and now it's all bloomed. " He said as he slowly cupped Pete's cheek who was looking at him with a blank face.

Vegas smiled as he continued " I will prove it to you that my love for you is not just a pity or sympathy ..."

"Oh you will?" Pete asked.

"Yes I will." Vegas said determined.

Pete smirked as he started to walk towards the main mansion and Vegas started to follow him. Pete reached kinn's office and he entered the room which confused Vegas but he followed him anyhow.

Tankhun , Porsche and kinn who were present in there looked at them with a confusing gaze. Pete went and stood infront of kinn after bowing to him.

"Pete whats wrong?" Tankhun asked as he looked at him with a worried gaze.

Pete smiled at him "nothing khun tankhun ..iam here to ask for a permission from khun kinn."

" Permission for what?" Kinn asked.

"Khun kinn... I want a few days off... I want to visit my grandparents and be with them for a while. "

"WHAT?" Yelled out Porsche together with Vegas and tankhun.

"Pete what ? Why are you leaving? Vegas asked with his eyes widened.

Pete looked at him as he smirked "didn't you say you will prove your love for me... Khun Vegath?"

"I- I did." Shuttered Vegas.

"This is what it is"pete stated.

"Huh? But you are leaving how will I?"

"Are you scared that you won't be able to khun Vegath?"

"No .. iam not"

"That's it then... I will be looking forward to it."

With this he looked at kinn who nodded his head with his mouth wide opened and Porsche's and tankhun 's jaw were dropped to the floor looking at the new side of their head bodyguard.

Pete looked at Vegas for the last time as he sarcastically smiled before leaving the room.

Vegas was still shocked to even let out a word....

Vegas you are fucked up

.....kinn

chapter 34

As pete went out of the office he leaned on the door taking a few deep breaths to calm himself down. He stayed in the position for a few more seconds as he slowly patted his shoulder with a smile " I will be waiting khun Vegath." And with this he made his way towards his room.

Meanwhile in the room

Vegas was still staring at the door without blinking he was just trying to process the things which just happened ,he was brought out of it by kinn.

"Vegas you are fucked up" kinn said with a chuckle.

"Hoiiiiii , he deserves it. Now I will watch how this psychopath prove himself to my pete" tankhun said as he looked at Vegas with a smirk before leaving the room.

"Ai' Vegas, are you all lost?" Porsche uttered as he slightly shook Vegas.

"How am I gonna prove myself... Shit I need to talk to him" he muttered as he ran out of the room. Kinn Porsche looked at each other as the both shrugged their shoulders.

Meanwhile Vegas ran to pete's room and as he reached there he took a deep breath before knocking. After a few secs the door was opened.

Pete raised an eyebrow as he looked at Vegas silently asking him what he was doing here. Vegas did nothing as he slowly asked

" Can I come in?"

Pete said nothing he just turned around and went inside the room and Vegas followed him. He was looking around the room but pete broke his trance.

"What are you doing here khun Vegath?"

"I-iam here to talk to you?" He was confused himself.

"About?"

"Pete... Can you not go but if you wanna I won't stop you but can I come with you too?" Vegas asked hurriedly.

Pete looked at him deep in his eyes before shooking his head as no.

"You can't come with me khun Vegath."

"Huh? But how will be able to prove myself then?" Vegas asked being all panicked

"Not my problem.. is it?" Pete asked as he rose his eyebrow.

"No" Vegas said as he shook his head looking all innocent.

Both kept silent for a few mins as it was getting hard to keep their eyes to themselves pete just sighed " you can go now I need to pack"

And Vegas was fast enough to deny " I can help you with that"

"I don't want your help khun Vegath" pete stated.

But Vegas was reluctant he just went towards the wardrobe as he started to collect Pete's clothes, having no choice left pete said nothing as he also started to pack.

"Why the most of your clothes are in blue ?" Vegas broke the silence after a while.

"Emm.... Its because my childhood best friend remarked that I looked the best in blue" pete answered after a few secs as his face showed up a little smile at the mention of that person.

Vegas rolled his tongue inside his mouth as he looked at nothing and then suddenly raised his head as he smirked before saying " well, he probably had a bad eyesight"

Pete glared at him as he barked " its a she not a he and for your kind information khun Vegath she had the best eyesight out there" and with his he turned towards the cupboard and started to pick out the clothes.

Vegas sighed as he moved towards pete and stood behind him leaving no space between their bodies as his hot breath fanned Pete's nape.

"K-khun ve-vegath move away!"

"Shh.. here me out first. She had a bad sight cuz you don't only look the best in blue but in everything. For me it's not the color which makes you look beautiful its you which makes it beautiful." He whispered in a low octave tone sending chills to Pete's body.

Pete slowly turned around as there was only inches apart he ducked his head down. Vegas chuckled before tapping pete in between his arms as he slowly trailed his face with the tip of his nose.

Pete was taking deep breaths to keep himself calm as his heart was beating drastically which was easier to be heard by Vegas.

Vegas obviously sensed his nervousness as he smiled looking at pete. He lifted his face up only to nuzzle his face in Pete's neck.

"You are making me go crazy , pete" he husked as he left a peck on his neck. Which was enough to make pete flinch.

There was a brief moment of silence after that which confused Vegas as he looked up only to find pete glaring at him while breathing heavily.

"What? Its true!" He said with furrowed brows.

"Are you done khun Vegath?"

"Huh? Done with what?"

"Done with wasting my time".

"I thought we are having a moment" Vegas let out Confusedly.

"What moment? You are just wasting my time and who gave you the rights to kiss me?" Pete barked again pushing Vegas back.

"Huh eh I-I was j-just ah drawn by the Moment.... You were looking so beautiful that I couldn't control myself?" He sounded confused though his eyes were all determined and focused on the one standing before him.

Pete looked at him for a while before nodding his head "okie, I don't care just get out the room cuz I need to pack khun Vegath"

"You are telling me your khun to get out of the room... For real?". Vegas let out being all shocked by this side of the head bodyguard.

"I apologize khun Vegath.. Please pardon me for doing this" he said with a bow and Vegas smiled at him.

"I knew it you won't do su- hey!! Pete what are you doing?" He shouted as pete pushed him out of the room and locked the door.

"Have a good day khun Vegath" he shouted from inside the room as vegas stood there with a wide open mouth too shocked to say something but he let out a smile hearing the loud laughter from the room.

He was brought out of it by " don't tell me you got kicked out from the room psychopath?" Tankhun let out before laughing out loud.

" Not you, shit!" Vegas cursed as he glanced at the closed door for the last time before moving away.

Meanwhile Tankhun was just rolling on the floor laughing his ass out on Vegas's condition while just yelling out one thing " make this bastard pay pete haha"

While Pete inside the room was calmly packing his everything with a sweet smile on his face which was brightening now and then.

He is too much for my heart aish!

Pete

I will wait till you let me kiss the soul of yours pete... Aish since when am I this dramatic... I sound like a teenager!

Vegas

chapter 35

Pete packed his bags as he went out of his room and as he reached the living room of the mansion everyone were standing there wanting to bid him a warm farewell. Pete smiled at them as Tankhun was the first one to hug him and shed his tears like the drama queen he is.

"Pete come soon na!" He let out a whine and pete smiled and nodded his head confirming him that he will be coming soon.

Everyone almost did the same and pete finally went to Porsche, he stood infront of him as they Both stared at each other ...

"Don't let him come there and don't tell him the address too okie?" He said as he pleaded Porsche with his big doe eyes.

"Are you forgetting the fact that he is the most feared Mafia and he can literally know every little information about your life within a span of second ?" Porsche said as he rolled his eyes.

Pete smiled before shooting his head " he isnt allowed to do so" and with this he took out a piece of paper and kept it inside Porsche's pocket as he hugged him after that.

" Give him this okie " and with this he broke the hug.

Pete at last bowed to everyone as he left the mansion for his peace yet desparately wanted to come back here soon.

" He is a sneaky little bitch " Porsche cursed looking at the paper.

Vegas came to the mansion in the afternoon as he started searching for pete as he was about to enter into the room Porsche blocked his way.

"What?" Vegas raised his brows already feeling the irritation rushing in his blood cells.

"Here" Porsche extended his hand towards Vegas. Vegas looked confused but still took the paper as he started to check it.

"What's this?"

" You will know" and with this Porsche went way.

Vegas kept the paper in his pocket as he entered the room but it was all empty as he opened the wardrobe and there was nothing other than the uniform of pete.

He slowly sighed in disappointment as he sat on the bed. After a few mins of silence he took the paper and opened it and there he realized that it was a note from pete.

Khun Vegath , I wanted to tell you that no, I want you to know that ..

I don't want you to come there okie? I don't want my grandma and Grandpa to think the things which doesn't exist. You said you will prove that your love is not a pity right? This is your chance as you know and yes you are not allowed to use any of your benefits of being a mafia ..... Am I clear ?"

And with this the note ended and Vegas chuckled hard at pete antics.

"Fuck, this feistiness and ofcourse you are clear my lord and here iam all fucked up "

"Ah I should find some ways as a commoner not as mafia as he said..... What do I do..... What do I do ??"

And with this he started to pace around the room.

It was already evening and Vegas was just thinking about the ways because thinking from a point of view of a commoner was never something he did and doing the things to prove something hell it was not even in his dictionary but look what love makes people do.

As he was all frustrated he sat in his office all offended by everything around him. That's when he heard a knock.

"Get the fuck out!!" He yelled.

"How can you talk to me like that hia ???" The whining Macau could be heard.

And Vegas eyes widened he hurriedly got up from his chair and made his way to the door where macau was standing with folded hands and pouting lips.

"Shit! Iam so sorry macau, it was just I thought it's a bodyguard okie.. please forgive your hia"

But macua just turned his head away.

" Let me take you to your favourite food store what you say?" He asked with hopeful eyes and It worked.

"Yes yes, let's go already!" And with this the brother duo made their way to their favourite store.

As they were waiting for the food Vegas mind wandered around still thinking about the ways he should prove himself to pete and Macau obviously known to everything still acted all innocent.

"What happened hia? Why are you frowning now and then?"

"Macau, ah I need a help?"

"Woah what ?? Since when the Vegas theerapanyakul needs help??" Macau stated being all dramatic.

"Stop being like this and tell me will you help me?"

"With my life hia!Tell me what help do you want?"

"So..... Hmm how do I put this... Just imagine that a person likes someone okie but that someone isn't believing him and told him to prove his love for him so what shall he do?" Vegas said and immediately looked down when Macau looked at him with suspicious eyes.

"Isn't this a love advice? Why do you need it? Don't tell me you are in love with someone and I don't know !!! Hia how could you hide it from me , your only cute little brother....Iam very offended !!!!"

Macay said as he looked at Vegas with glares that could just burn him down but Vegas was fast enough to shook his head.

"No no, its not me ofc! Its just one of my eh client yes !"

But macau glare only got sharpen

"So you mean I should believe that you care for a nobody oh right! My brother is just a kind hearted maniac who Cares for everyone in this world haha right ! I never knew !"

"Argh !fine its just me okie .... I need to prove my love... Shit this is all embarrassing!" Vegas let out a few more curses under his breath.

And macau laughed out loud before patting Vegas arm "oh Hia!! You looked so cute !! I apologize for making you embarrass but you are so cute!" And he ended up squeezing his hia's cheeks.

" Enough of this cute shit! Now you better help me"

"Not before you tell me who it is " Macau mischievously smiled and vegas just let out a groan.

"Eh i-its Pete ! Tankhun's bodyguard and main family's head bodyguard"

" Oh you don't need to say all this.. I know pete , hia !" He said being all excited.

"Huh , how do you know him?" Vegas let out being a little surprised because macau was actually so bad with the bodyguards.

"Oh he once saved me from being robbe- WHAT?" Vegas Cut him off

"Aish listen to me first. It was like a few months ago I was all alone walking on street after dinner and suddenly two local goons came and threatened me though I cared less about it but pete was all like a hero and bet the shit out of them and then we even had cotton candy" macau explained it all like a movie and ended it with a big smile.

"And you are telling me this now?" Vegas asked being alll done.

"Hehe I never knew you liked him otherwise I would have helped you long ago to woo him aish"

"Then help me now" and with this Vegas explained his brother everything from the start of the plan to Pete's note.

And Macau could do nothing but facepalm himself.

"Are you dumb hia?" He asked shaking his head in all disappointment.

" Huh?what do you mean !Iam your elder brother!"

"Hia!!!!!!!! He already gave you a way to woo him aish!"

"HUH?What , I don't understand"

"He gave you a note.... Isn't it enough? He could have told those things in personal but he knew how dumb you are and that's why he decided to write a note" macau stated as he looked at his brother who was still confused.

"Hia, don't y-" and he was cut off again.

"He wants me to send him letters ?" Vegas asked the obvious thing as macau nodded his head eagerly.

"Oh fuck yes !!! Shit iam dumb !!Oh god he is making me fall more for him aish .... Pete !!!!!"

"This is a store hia.... People are watching "

But Vegas was way lost in his imagination to hear the pleads of his little brother.

Will Vegas be successful in wooing pete ???

chapter 36

Macau entered the room and his eyes slightly widened at the view. The room was filled with paper balls here and there sat Vegas aggressively writing something in a book as his eyes were boring holes in the paper and his brows were frowned like always. He Chuckled at the view as he started to walk towards Vegas.

"Hia?" He called out which failed to obtain Vegas's attention.

"Hia!!!!!" He slightly raised his voice as he shook him a little.

Vegas slightly flinched then looked at Macau.

"When did you come here?" He asked in english.

"When you were so in yourself " Macau being the competitive one replied in english as well.

Vegas chuckled as he ruffled his brother's hair "you have gotten better"

"Credit goes to you of course" he said with a charming smile.

Vegas nodded his head as he again looked at his paper and let out a sigh.

"What's wrong hia?" Macau being the concerned brother sat beside him.

"I can't do this Macau." Vegas firmly stated as he thrown the book along with his pen.

"Hia, you can't say this."

"I can't do it Macau. This is not me.why can't I just go to his grandparents and tell them that we love each other" Vegas let out being frustrated.

Macau shook his head being disappointed "hia, you can do that but you know what? Because of it, you may receive their permission but you won't win the one you love. Pete will never appreciate it."

"Why can't he just believe that I fucking love him. Damn it!"

"Hia, have you ever behaved like you love him?"

And the innocent yet simple question made Vegas think.

He went silent and Macau let out a sigh as he slowly brought Vegas face up and looked directly into his eyes with his own warm ones.

"Hia, I have seen you since I opened my eyes for this world. You never let the other one know how much they mean to you and in the end you lose them. You are doing the same with pete, hia. He needs to know how much he means to you. He should know that the heart in you beats only for him. He must know that he means everything to you. For this, you should do it hia. Let him know what he feels for you is not one sided hmm."

Vegas said nothing as he simply nodded his head and then looked at his brother who looked like a mature man now. He was no longer the small boy who faught with him for a walk, or an icecream.

Vegas softly smiled while ruffling his brother's hair as he mumbled "I don't like that you have become a man now. I want my childish boy back"

Macau laughed and smacked Vegas's shoulder "you better host the biggest wedding in Thailand ... I wanna show my brother -in -law off"

"M-marriage?" Vegas shuttered as a shy smile was threatening to be appeared.

"Are you blushing HIA?" Macau shouted and was smacked the next second and now is pouting.

"Shut it. Go now . I don't need any disturbance. "

Macau got up as he started to leave.

"There is strawberry icecream in the fridge. Iam having cold so, I cant eat it, you know." Vegas said as he looked at the pouting man.

Meanwhile macau hurriedly took the icecream out and ran out of the room shouting out "I love you hia!!!!".

Vegas smiled as he got up and picked the notebook along with pen and sat in the balcony. He recalled the words of Macau as he nodded to himself.

"He should know. Yes." And with this he began writing down the letters.

The next morning.

Vegas called his bodyguard as he handed him the letter. Bodyguard looked confused as he stared at Vegas.

Vegas cleared his throat and looked at him with his intense stares.

"Take this and give it to Porsche" the bodyguard nodded and left with a last bow.

Vegas took his phone out as he called Porsche.

"I have sent something. Deliever it to pete."

"The magical words ,Vegas!" Porsche teasing tone was heard and Vegas gritted his teeth.

"Deliever it to pete.... Please Porsche"

" I will haha!" And with this the call was cut off.

"I hate this. Pete!! I hope you will send me one back." Vegas muttered to himself as he went back to his work.

Two days later

Pete's place

A knock was heard on the door. An old day muttering some inaudible things opened the door only find the postman of their island.

"How come you are here?" Grandma asked being confused.

"There is a letter on your place." The postman said as he handed her the ticket.

Grandma was confused as their all relatives were living in the same island only pete was the one who was far but now he is also here on holiday so , who is the one sending the letter?"

"You are at the wrong address I think."

But the postman shook his head as he told the lady to read the address. Grandma looked at the address and it was indeed their home's. She nodded as she signed the paper and muttered a thank you.

She came into the house and sat on the couch as she was going to open the letter. It was snatched by pete.

"Pete?" She asked being surprised at the sudden act.

"Ah... Grandma.. this is for me haha!". He said as he shown a big smile but the old lady was still confused.

"For you? But no one sends you letters right?"

"Hehe... But someone did grandma. You go, look what grandpa is doing to your garden."

"I swear if he ruins my plants again, I will divorce this old man." with a few additional curses she went away and pete sighed in relief.

Pete glanced at the wrapped paper as a smile crept on his face. He hurriedly ran into his room and started opening the wrapped paper. He took a deep breath to calm his raising heartbeat and started to read it.

Pete, eh hi I guess! I already apologize in advance for the mistakes which gonna happen. So, eh iam not gonna rewrite it so, bear with it.

Let me ask you this, how are you doing there pete? I bet you are all happy and in peace now right. The people there ,are your family and who doesn't feel peace with their family. I didn't understand your hint,Macau made me understand it and writing this letter is kind of fighting against 10 while iam all alone. You know Macau , my little brother? He told me that you saved him from the goons before. I thank you for saving the precious part of my life, pete. He is the only one I have in this world now so, haha aish iam saying nonsense.

You may think Iam being weird well, my true self is kind of weird. I have never shown it to anyone, not even to Macau but you will know the real Vegas, not the Vegas the world knows. I hope you will fall for my true self,pete... I will stop here...

Oh wait !! Why the hell I can send only two letters per week. This is not fair iam telling you..... But it's kind of is. You are making me feel like a college going student whose crush lives so far hehe!

Aish I will really stop here. Iam writing some real shit. Take care of yourself along with your grandparents. Eat full ...Don't diet. I will love you even if you become all fat and can't walk. Hope to listen for you soon.

Vegas

Pete started to laugh at the end as his imagination of Vegas being whiny was so hilarious. After his laughter died down , a soft smile spread over his face as he slowly caressed the letter.

"Iam willing to know the real Vegath, rather than khun Vegath. You are not weird aish this man is so cute!! And wait what does he mean by all fat!
Iam far away from fat."

"And listen from me soon? Aha no ,feel like a college student for a few months haha"

Did he read the letter yet?

Vegas.

chapter 37

It was Thursday atleast two days later Vegas sent the letter and yet there was no response from Pete.He was desparately waiting for the days and then he got to know that pete won't be sending him any letters in return and which was absolutely the worst thing for him but he tried not to feel disheartened by it.

Vegas was lacking behind his business due to his personal life which was absolutely Not like him and it was kind of bothering. He was no longer thristy either for a deal or winning against kinn or anyone. He was doing what he wanted and when he wanted. The actions were taken after discussing detailed plans and he was no longer interested in going to clubs to meet their clients. He would rather call them here or just in the main mansion.

But sadly today he had to go to one of his casinos to seal the deal. Although he didn't make a single effort to look good but still he was looking absolutely stunning in his red velvet shirt and black pants. Once he reached their his eyes scanned the place and for the first time he was disgusted by the smell of the alcohol reeking out from the people.

When he spotted the people waiting for them he made his way there and sat with a confident laced face. Then they started to discuss the plan which took longer than it should have. Finally when they both agreed on their own terms and conditions the deal was sealed with a handshake.

They were about To go but Vegas's hand was held by someone. He turned around and was met by Yim.
Vegas sighed as he took his hand from yim's grasp. As he sharply glared at him. But yim just smiled at him.

"Missed me baby?" He sweetly asked.

Vegas said nothing as he just started to walk out but Yim was persistent to have Vegas in his hands today.

"You can't just let go of me Vegas and act like you don't know me at all" he uttered and the pain was visible in his voice as he grabbed vegas's hand again.

Vegas looked at him for a few secs "what do you want Yim?"

"I want you Vegas. I want us. Just like before please.". Yim desparately uttered as his face held a smile.

"There was no us yim. Never. Stop making things up. Do you get that ?" Vegas harshly said as he again yanked his hand off but this time Yim held his collar as he came close to him.

"No us huh ? How the fuck you dare to say that huh? Were the nights we spent nothing for you ? When I cried on your chest and you comfort me was nothing for you? Were the dishes I made for you was nothing to you huh?" He yelled as tears rolled down his eyes. But yet Vegas remained stoic.

"Yim, I have loved only one person in my life and it's not you " and with the final blow he went out of the place while the other make just knelt down and started to sob.

"I hate you Vegas... I hate you for making me fall for you." He brokenly uttered.

.....

Meanwhile with Vegas as he reached his home he hurriedly took the diary and started to write the letter without thinking twice. He wanted pete to know what he felt now only him.

As he finished the letter he didn't even read it twice because he knew once he reread it he won't be able to send him the same one and without waiting another second he told the bodyguard to ask Porsche to deliever now without any delay.

However Porsche sensing the seriousness of the situation he sent the delivery of it there and then.

The letter was received in two days just like the first time and this time it was pete who opened the door and taken the deliever before running hurriedly towards his room. He took a deep breathe as he got ready to open it but the smile was soon turned into a frown as he started to read.

Pete, I met yim today and he, he said that he loves and wants me back , but pete there no us pete, we were Never together. He asked whether I felt something for him when we slept together and why did I comfort him when he needed it. Pete, its true that we did that but it was nothing other than my Father's order for me. I never did it out of my own will.

Yim was a mere dealand nothing else. I don't know why he felt like he could be more. Pete, believe me there is no one in my life other than you.i always loved you, longed you and yearned you and it was always you. No matter how many people I slept with but no one not that Yim or anyone could erase the image of yours in my mind.

I don't wanna meet him again pete. He brought back the things I wanted to forget. I don't want him to come back. Please tell him to go. Go away from me please.

I wanna get out of this darkness pete.Its suffocating in here. All I want is you. Pete, I love you with all I have. I hope you will accept me with the life I had and I have. But I promise you one thing , I will become a better person for you. I promise. Just come back please.

And with this the letter ended and pete could actually sense the distress Vegas was going through while writing it. Pete stared at the letter , the handwriting was messy indicating Vegas wrote it in a hurry.

Pete carefully folded it and kept it safe before dialing a call.

"Hello pete!! Anything you want me to do ?"

"Porsche, tell khun kinn to warn Yim to stay away from my man."

"What's wrong pete?"

"He is causing khun Vegath pain. I don't want it. Will you let khun kinn know?"

"Is it even a question? You guys won't see him again."

"Thank you and take care of him"

"We will. See you soon"

And the call ended.

Will pete return so soon?

chapter 38

2nd week

Pete, good morning!!! You must be wondering how do I know that it's morning right? Well, I have some superpower haha! Just kidding actually Porsche told that you receive the letters early in the morning. So, basically let me brigthen up your morning baby!

Pete blushed as he continued to read the letter further with curious yet soft eyes.

So, let me tell you iam very embarrassed of my previous letter..... Aish I just couldn't believe I told you all those shit. To be honest I feel good but mostly embarrassed as it was my first time telling someone how I felt. Ah..... Let's not talk about it. You know me and Macau went to have icecream yesterday and it was so good...Then we decided to come here with you again. You will come right ?

Pete nodded his head instantly .

He started to ask me about you ,and when I told him about everything which is related to you , he started to call me whipped aish.. iam telling you he is getting spoiled. He was also asking me when did I first meet you and all hehe! So curious but I didn't tell him haha I thought that when I would tell him the favourite part of my life, my favourite person should be with me right ?

Eh pete could already picture Vegas dirty little smirk in here.

So, let's wait for it...However it feels like an year already when it's just a week now. Oh and you know what pete, its been 4 days already but I didn't see him yet... I thought he will come again but I guess God shown some mercy on me.

Pete knew who the 'him' was and that made him smirk.

"Iam the one with Mercy here!"

"Well, you know the bodyguards in here are asking about you too? I know right it feels like they forgot that iam their ruthless boss! They were even giggling around me like what the heck? But they sounded so good hehe... I still remember being friends with all of them when I was just 12, we used to play when father was not around.It feels like they still see me as a little... Haha why am I smiling like a creep ... I don't know !

Pete , Do grandparents know about us? Iam curious..... Well take care of them!!! Eat full!

..... Vegas:)

The letter ended and pete just shook his head as he know Vegas was too embarrassed to continue further.

.....

The next letter of the same week.

Pete, my baby!

Iam happy today! You kNow why? Well, Macau scored so well in his examination and I gifted him a bike and you know what? He says he has a crush on someone already? Don't you think he is small now! I already told him that I will meet that crush of his before anyone. I can't risk anything. However I think it's gonna be same with me. I still can't prepare myself for the future to meet grandparents. Iam afraid.

By the way kinn called me yesterday and we had a talk. It was good. We talked nothing related to business And for the first time I felt no threat from him. We were talking like brothers haha. Tankhun is still the same and he didn't say a word to me well except if we don't include the curses and glares haha. Kim doesn't come home. Porsche and kinn are going somewhere together . I already think its a pre honeymoon but they have done those already. So what's the point? I don't understand... But we can go wherever we want baby. Be ready.Eat full okie.

.... Vegas/:)

Pete smiled as he blushed a little at the end. He placed the letter in his cupboard as he made his way towards the living room.

His grandparents were waiting for him for the breakfast as he came out with wide smile on his face and sat on the chair.

"Don't you think someone is too happy since last week!" Grandma started right away as she glanced at pete who was already looking at her with wide eyes.

"You are right... And before that week someone was so dull that they didn't even smiled at us..... Oh how the world is turning " grandpa said with a sad face and pete just pouted.

"Maa,paa!! Iam sorry na !! Its nothing like that I still love you guys more than everyone." Pete whined.

But no use. The grandparents literally ignored him like the plague and pete pout deepen.

"Honey, don't make him pout like that khun Vegas won't like it" grandpa said so causally making his wife nod. Meanwhile pete was too shocked to even react.

"Hmm... But I have to take his class too. How dare he do this to our Pete and let him come here alone when he said they will come together." Grandma said as she harshly cut the eggs into two.

Pete who felt like his eye sockets have popped out and that his soul left his body and his ears are hearing so high , he hurriedly shook his head so fast and slapped his cheeks for a few times to get up from the sleep but damn he found himself still at the dinning table sitting between the old couple who were now looking at him as he was possessed.

"I never knew he slaps himself rather than the traitors ?" Grandma let out in a tone which was filled with confusion and being done at the same time.

"He does both" grandpa declares.

But pete was still so silence as if he didn't exist at the moment but when he registered everything he couldn't hold back.

"What are you guys even talking about ???? Do you know khun Vegath? And what do you mean by I came here alone? Why would he come? " Pete asked with widened eyes.

The couple looked at each other as they sighed.

"I don't wanna tell him honey. Do you?" Grandma asked as she silently ate her food.

"I prefer not to " and with that he also resumed his eating.

Pete look at his grandparents being dumbfounded. He just couldn't understand a single shit which was happening to him.

"Are you guys serious? I want to know about how you guys know him?Or someone told about him to you guys? What's this all about?" Pete let out being frustrated.

But no ,nothing happened. The old couple remained silent and kept eating which made pete furious but he still wasn't able to leave his food.

"Fine. Don't tell me !" He muttered and took his plate to his room.

The couple looked at each other.

"We did it soon I guess honey" grandma uttered.

"Nah its all good. We can just tell him it was Porsche okie." The old man calmly stated making his wife nod.

After they finished eating they made their way towards Pete's room the down was left unlocked as always. It was his habit. He knew they will come and that's why he always since the childhood used to leave the door unlocked.

They entered the room and pete was laying on the bed while snoring loudly well the old couple smiled as they know pete doesn't snore at all.

Grandma went and lifted Pete's head just up sit there and place his head on her lap as she slowly started to caress his hairs. Grandpa came and sat Near his legs. It was their forever position.

"Will maa and paa tell now?" Pete asked with a pout.

"Pete, its just Porsche said that you and khun vegas have something going on. We were worried as we know being against him is just inviting our Death and he assured us that it was not something bad." Grandpa said as he looked at pete who looked at him with suspicious glares.

"You aren't lieing?" He let out.

but before grandpa can say something pete groaned in pain as grandma pinched his ears harshly.

"How dare you say that your grandpa is lieing huh" the old lady shouted.

"Maa, maa leave na ,leave, leave" pete whined while trying to save his ear.

"You have so much to explain us young man, start" grandpa let out.

Pete sighed as he sat between the couple who looked at him with anticipating looks.

"Maa, paa khun Vegath likes me " he said and stopped being ready for the reaction but he received none.

"Okie and?" The lady said urging pete to speak.

"HUH? Why aren't you guys shocked ?"

"You stop wasting our time and just tell us when will you go to him and when will we meet out son-in-law?" Grandpa said completely ignoring Pete's words.

Meanwhile pete soul left his body for the second time today. He looked at his grandparents as if they have grown two heads his eyes were widened and seemed like they would pop out any second.

"Y-you g-guys huh iam being confused. " Pete let out as if he was solving a maths problem in the air.

"Aish pete you should tell us the future plans we already know the past ... But we won't tell you how so don't ask okie. Now tell me when will I meet my hot and handsome son-in-law " grandma let out being all happy and giggly at the end.

Pete took his time to digest everything and them slowly gestured them to Move forward as he told what he was planning for the future.

"HUH!!!! Woah I never knew you were so good with plans .. oh iam proud of you my son... You have gone on me!!" Grandpa said being astonished and then proud.

"Gone on you? Please you old man did you ever plan a dinner date for me ?" The old lady said being all annoyed making her husband look down with a pout.

"Now don't pout honey! Lets go and make some snacks. You like them right ?" She said again and smiled as her husband nodded with huge smile on his face.

"And you young man, don't go hard on my son-in-law" with this she dragged her husband out of the room.

Meanwhile pete just sat their being all confused.

"How do they know all this ? Something is fishy , I need to talk to Porsche."

But then he smiled as he heard the bickering of the old couple again.

"Aish, why do I want to be with khun Vegath like that? Let's hope we will be happy together."

He said and laid on the bed with closed eyes and a faint smile.

chapter 39

3 Months later

It was three months already. Three months of Vegas sending the letters and three months of pete ignoring his khun. Three months of Vegas fighting hard with his inner self and three Months of pete celebrating his win over his khun 's heart. Three months of everyone hoping for pete's comeback and three months of Vegas slowly losing his hope over everything.

If we ask Vegas , he would say that the last three months was the worst yet better days of his life. Well, ofcourse can we even imagine the outcome of something without having a little ray of hope from any little corner of world. Well, for Vegas it was like shooting the arrows in the dark. He didn't even had the idea whether his letters were getting delivered or not, whether pete was reading them or throwing in the bin. Whether he was smiling at the letter or just smirking at his poor condition. He knew nothing yet he hoped that one day he would be able to make that heart beat for him again.

Well, he had no idea that the heart was always beating with only one name in its every breathe and that was Vegas.

So yeah it was the night of 25th december .. a pretty pleased night in the minor mansion. It was all normal today. No party , no music , nothing. But for Vegas , it was like always.. He was simply sitting alone in the room with a paper and pen while sightly pouting. Yeah the Vegas theerapanyakul was pouting as no one literally no one remembered his day. No one even cared to wish him on his special day. Surely it was his first time experiencing it.Cuz c'mon his father never left a single chance to show off his wealth and so called love for his son every year on this day.

"Atleast paa used to remember this aish Macau , how can he forget it ... ofcourse he has his handsome crush now. I wish I could just crush him under the truck or something.... How dare that bastard snatch my brother from me.!"

He let out being purely frustrated and to add a cherry on the top the electricity suddenly went off , leaving the room in nothing but dark. He slightly gulped as it was unusual .. why would the electricity go off

Even after having installed advanced invertors throughout the mansion.

Keeping aside his suspicion , he started to search for his phone and once he grabbed it, he hurriedly opened the flashlight as he started to go out of the room yelling out the bodyguards name.

"Nop" he called out but no use. There was no response. The whole mansion was so quiet down that he could hear the passing air which was already giving him a creepy feeling.

"NOP!!"and this time he yelled out loud and suddenly everything went dark around him.

"Fuck ! Why the fuck its off now!" He cursed as his phone was shut off and he was all alone with the creepiness of his own mansion.

"Shit! Shit! Vegas relax! NOP!! Where the fuck is everyone " loosing his shit in this big ass mansion he hurriedly started to run outside of the place though he stumbled more than we can imagine but ehem let's not look into it.

After 5 mins which seemed like an eternity he was finally out of the place as he stood while holding his knees and panting heavily. Few curses left his mouth as he was cursing himself for being a coward and the bodyguards plus house helpers who were disappeared in the air now.

He slowly looked up as the little sounds were heard and at last the place was all lit up. Vegas face was in awh as he looked at the decorated place. He never in his life saw the outside lawn decorated so beautifully.

He was busy adoring the beautiful scenery and That's when he heard a group of voices.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY KHUN VEGAS!!"

He flinched a little as the loud voice boomed across the silent mansion but when he turned around his shocked face turned into a pleasant one as he saw that all the bodyguards and the house helpers were standing there with smiles on thier faces.

Vegas smiled as he bowed to them shocking each one of them as Nop hurriedly came forward.

"Khun vegas , don't bow please. Raise your head. You are our leader." He pleaded but Vegas only looked at him with a smile.

"Thank you !" He muttered as he patted his shoulder making Nop smile for the first time in his duty years. Then Vegas turned towards the others as he bowed again and muttered a thank you to each one of them.

Older one among them even blessed their son like master as vegas eyes were already teary at this point. When he thought that it was all and that's when his cousins started to come out of their hidden places and his younger brother was the first one to hop on him as he wrapped his legs around his shoulder while shouting out loud without caring about others ear drums.

"HIA HAPPY BIRTHDAY..... MAY YOU ALWAYS REMAIN WEALTHY AND KEEP BUYING ME ICECREAM !!!!!!!"

When he finished he giggled out before pecking vegas's forehead and got down. Vegas smiled as he looked at him before twisting his ear hard.

"Where were you since the morning??? Huh now you think I will forgive you? Hell nah! Forget your icecream!" He huffed and walked towards kinn who was smirking to him leaving his whiny brother behind who crawled towards Nop with a big pout on his face and the bodyguard cupped his face with a smile which was enough for the younger boy to smile like a whipped creature.

"Dont tell me it's you who planned this ?" He muttered as he smirked back.

"You think I will?Never in a million years. " Kinn said as he suddenly pulled Vegas in a hug. "Happy birthday Vegas. I know one thing that from now on your life will be all good." Kinn whispered in a soft tone absence of wickedness and mock which was definitely surprising for Vegas but nonetheless he thanked him.

Porsche came and wished him followed by Kim and porchay though they were not so close but eh still on good terms. Arm and Pol bowed to him while wishing him a tremendous year and now it was the turn of the sassy queen of the family.

Tankhun stood there without saying anything , Vegas looked at him with tilted head before he could say anything , tankhun came forward as he started to fix his collar.

"You should look presentable hoi ! And the way you ran out of the mansion was hilarious haha ! I never knew the great maniac was scared of dark like a little kid " he taunted and Vegas just sighed.

"Tankhun, for real? Leave me alone today for god sake !" And with this he was about to turn around but tankhun grabbed his collar and made him stand there.

"What the fu-" Vegas was cut off.

"Won't you love to see our surprise for your birthday?". He smirked as he looked at Vegas who was just glaring at him.

"No!" He stated as he started walking inside the mansion..

However his steps halted as his breath stopped for a sec and his heart beat raised as he heard the honey laced tone from the back

"Khun Vegath!"

An exciting yet happy tone was heard calling out his name , he turned around at the speed of the wind and there his eyes met with the most loving pair of eyes.

He stood still thinking it's another hallucination and his mind was playing games with him like it did for a few times already. Everything was pin drop silent and Kim finally made his way towards Vegas as he leaned and whispered

"He is real" and with this he went to his cute boyfie again.

Meanwhile Vegas was just staring at him and Porsche slightly pushed pete nudging him to move forward. Pete took a deep breathe as he composed himself and started to walk towards his beloved khun with a pretty cake In his hands. However even the prettiness of the cake couldn't compare the beautiful smile of the one holding it.

When they were infront of each other it felt like the world was stopped right there and then. They stared at each other. One with complete nervousness and the other one with astonishment. It was hard. Hard to do the things they have imagined. Hard to make the dreams come true. Because ay the said moment all they wanted was to just stare and keep looking at each other's soul.

Pete took a deep breath as he brought the came infront of Vegas.

"B-blow the candle k-khun ve-vegath" well the nervousness was in every nerve of his body.

But Vegas was still. No movement. It scared pete for a second. He imagined a series of reactions from his khun but this silence wasn't one of them.

Tankhun sighed as he looked at everyone who were having furrowed eyebrows , he made his way towards Vegas as he slightly shook him.

Vegas flinched as he looked at him "huh?"

"Blow the candles hoii" he nudged making Vegas nod his head.

He slowly looked up as his eyes met with pete again , he immediately ducked his head down and blown the candles and ran into the mansion without looking back at anyone or someone especially.

Everyone eyes widened as they really didn't expect this but kinn ran after him the next sec.

Meanwhile pete looked down as a sad pout adored his face. Porsche came to him as he side hugged him.

"He will come around "

Pete smiled as he nodded but the worries were eating him inside.

Meanwhile Vegas ran to his room as he stared to pace around it.

"Fuck fuck fuck!!! He is back! He is back Vegas, he is back !" He was muttering things to himself while pacing around and that's when kinn walked in.

"Why the heck did you run in here? When you should have ran to him?"

Kinn yelled losing his patience.

"Kinn , I was just too shocked like when, where and why I mean how is he in here?" Vegas blabbed.

Kinn came to him as he held his shoulders.

"Vegas ,relax, its not the time to freak out. He wanted to surprise you but I guess you surprised him more "

"What the? Hell why am i in here ??? Did I fuck up already ?" He asked looking at kinn with big innocent eyes

"Bastard" kinn mumbled

"You will if you don't run to him now"

And not wasting a single second he ran outside again.

Iam coming pete..... Shit iam so dumb !

Vegas.

Did I take too long?

Pete.

chapter 40

Vegas without waiting for another second just ran out of the mansion at the speed of light. Many moments were playing in his mind as his heart was beating out loud like a drum. When he finally came out of the mansion , everyone were already waiting for him , he looked around everywhere but couldn't find that certain someone , his face fell as a sour feeling started to speard inside his Body.

" He is in the backyard" Macau mumbled and went back to eating.

At the given information Vegas took a breath of relief as he made his way to the backyard. Once he finally caught the figure he was looking for, he let out a sigh as he went and sat beside him.

Both said nothing , it was a moment of brief silence. Vegas kept taking glances at the man beside him but the other one was just looking down. Both were taking heavy breaths as the presence of each other made them feel nervous than excited.

Finally gathering his courage , Vegas kept his hand on Pete's thigh grabbing his attention and that's when their eyes met, holding many emotions behind them.

"Are you okie?" Was the first thing uttered by the khun.

Pete took his time to respond as he slowly nodded his head "hmm, iam fine khun Vegath. How are you?" Asked in return with a closed smile on his face like always.

And Vegas let out a smile after a long day "iam feeling great.... Great after seeing you here, with me"

And again the silence filled them.

" I read the letters you sent khun Vegath" pete broke the silence this time as his eyes were boring holes on the ground.

"I wrote them without thinking twice" Vegas replied with a chuckle.

"Hmm! Iam happy that you did it khun Vegath."

"I should thank Macau, he made me understand the things I weren't getting"

"You really should!"

Silence again.

It was like both knew nothing they could talk about but in the reality they had number of things to discuss, confess, apologize and forget.

"Pete" Vegas called in a breathy tone.

"I can't wait anymore" he continued.

Pete raised his head as he looked at the man who was looking at him holding his all world in those eyes.

"Do you think I can khun Vegath?" He asked as he tilted his head a little.

"Do - do you forgive me?" Vegas looked with hopes in his eyes.

"I don't know khun Vegath " pete followed .

"Oh"

And a moment of silence filled again , not knowing what to say next.

"Did I fail to prove my love ?" Disappointment was clearly shown on face.

Pete let out a chuckle "what do you think love is khun Vegath?"

"Love is peace pete,which I feel with you, around you and only beside you"

If sincerity has a face then it would be of Vegas Now.

"Why didnt I feel that before khun Vegath? Why did you never let me feel that I was important to you ? Why?" Pete asked after gathering his all lifetime courage.

"Pete, iam sorry ! Iam so sorry that I always hurted you, iam sorry that I couldn't show you my love, iam sorry that you had to go through those shit because of me. I don't wanna give any excuses cuz I know Nothing matters. But I was not in control pete, it was pa! H-he made my life hell and I was just a toy. Nothing more than that. And toys doesn't have a say In anything, doesn't have any feelings , I thought the same until, until I saw you. You know why I stood against him , how I had the courage to do that?

Vegas let out a humourless chuckle as he continued before wiping the tears that were threatening to fall.

"The courage! Ah! it was not in my dictionary. But when my heart started to need you with me , have you in my life for not just a night but for all the lifetime. The courage was born not made by me. Iam in peace Now cuz I know that one day , one day you will be with me. One day you will look at me with the same emotions. One day we will be happy together and iam willing to wait for that day because in this world Vegas theerapanyakul loves only one thing and that is to love you endlessly."

"Will you let me love you pete. Will you stay by my side and let me prove my love for you?"

"Khun Vegath i-" but he was cut off.

"You can take time pete, not only three months , you can take years but you have to promise me that you will come back, Comeback to me and only me and I will be waiting for you"

Vegas said as he was looking at pete with determined eyes , he was looking messy though, his hairs were not set , his face was sweaty and wet by tears, his eyes were red and swollen.

However pete did nothing other than sitting there.

After a few secs passed he slowly moved towards Vegas as he buried his face into his chest and wrapped his arms around his shoulder.

"Pete" before he could continue he was shushed by the man.

"I heard you , didn't I ? Shouldn't you hear me now?" He whispered as he felt Vegas nodding his head with a small "hmm"

"You talk about years? The last three months were hell for me. I just wanted to run to you , but it was stirring to know you through the letters. You were so cute khun Vegath" pete said with a lovely smile on his face.

"Cute and me doesn't suit together. But you know what does?" Vegas replied with a kiss on Pete's head.

"What?"

"You and me!"

"Aish! I never knew this side of khun Vegath"

" You will be the first one to know all"

"You wanna know something khun Vegath?"

"Tell me!"

"It won't be pleasing though "

"I accept everything which comes from you "

"Aish! Can you be serious?"

"Iam very when it comes to you"

However pete started talking ignoring his khun words.

"Khun Vegath , you know when was the first time I saw you? I saw you when khun kan slapped you hard in the backyard of main mansion and then went away without a care. The first time I saw you was with tears in your eyes , messy hairs, anger controlled in those fists. It started with empathy and curiosity but turned into love."

"I was embarrassing" Vegas cut off pete.

"No, you weren't. I tried so hard to get close to you haha but all in vain then I Started to find about you, follow you, know your whereabouts and all."

"You did that?" Vegas asked with widened eyes earning a heartwarming laugh from pete.

"Chai, i did. And the things I found about you weren't so pleasing. I decided to stay away from you. But the more I tried it felt like I was getting even more into you. I started to observe the way you treat people.Although you acted like a rude bastard there were few of acts of service. However I only saw a lonely child in you and wanting to see you happy was all I ever dreamt of but when I realized that I wanted to make you happy and wanna be the reason of that smile I knew that I was falling for my khun.

"Am I hearing a confession now ?" Vegas asked cheekily earning a shy smile in return with a smack on his chest.

"The conclusion is when I loved you knowing that you will never return my feelings , how can you think that I will leave you now?"

"I will keep loving you no matter the circumstances. For me you will be my beginning and my final destination. There is nothing more than you. I Pete Phongsakorn Saengtham will keep loving you"

And finally pete raised his head to look at the man he loved since the start with a shy smile and confident stare. He didn't know either where he got the courage from to talk his heart out to the most feared man but then again for him it was his khun Vegath not the Vegas theerapanyakul the world knows.

Vegas had tears in his eyes at this point, unable to keep it all to himself he started to cry then and there muttering only one thing "I don't deserve you, pete. I dont."

Pete got up and stood infront of Vegas as vegas hugged pete's waist and continued to cry like a child.

"Shh.. if you don't deserve me then no one does. There is Nothing important other than you khun Vegath."

And with that pete let Vegas cry as much as he wants. Hell, he wasn't even allowed to cry when he was a child.

After what felt like hours Vegas stopped to cry but he still was buried in pete.

Pete was patting his head and playing with his hairs while muttering sweet nothings.

Time skip

It was late at night but both were still sitting at the same bench enjoying each other's presence. No one said anything after that. But their eyes and the smiles when their eyes met everytime said many things. Sometimes silence is the best answer.

However Vegas got up as he stood infront of pete and extended his hand towards him.

Pete was left perplexed.

"Are you willing to hold my hand for this lifetime and promise me of not leaving it?"

Pete smiled with a slight blush.

"That was so unlike khun Vegath" he replied cheekily.

"I agree, but its Vegas, the cliche one not the khun"

"And you should get used to it darling." He continued.

with this being said, pete held the hand as he smiled before saying.

"I love cliche things"

"And I love you!"

"I love you too khun Vegath"

"Call me Vegas"

"I-i can't"

But Vegas just pulled pete towards him by his waist as he whispered in his ears.

"Call me by my name."

As their faces were just inches apart , the tip of Nose touching each other and the heavy breaths were the only sound around them.

"V-vegath, iam in love with you"

"Fuck , you are making me insane. I love you too baby."

And this were the last words before they both dived to devour each other.

chapter 41

As it was already midnight , Vegas took Pete to his room. Pete looked at the things in awe. The room was all black from the carpet to the ceiling, the furniture and blankets with a little hints of gold and white here and there. As appreciating it was , it was scary too. Like living in a tunnel.

"You are looking as if it's your first time" Vegas Commented after a whole fine mins of watching pete admiring the room.

And pete excitedly bounced his head "it feels like it."

" We had noddles here, remember?" Vegas pointed at the couch.

Pete smiled and nodded and with a small "I do"

They both sighed as they sat on the couches.

"Time has changed, hasn't it?" Vegas whispered.

"Hmm?" Pete hummed as he looked at Vegas with a little smile.

"I still can't believe , we are over everything and I finally have you in my room as my lover" Vegas let out as he smiled at pete in pure admiration.

But Pete chocked on the air though-

"W-what? As what ?" He asked still not believing the things he heard.

Vegas smiled. He is smiling alot today.

"Why are you so shocked ?"

"You cant just say things like that" pete slightly yelled.

"Like what?"

"The thing which you just said ?"

"And I said what? I can't remember suddenly "

"Khun Vegath!!!!!!" Whined pete.

"Yes peteeeeee" followed by Vegas.

"Argh !!! I wanna sleep "

"But I wanna eat" interrupted Vegas.

"Eat what?" Pete said as he got up ready to go and make.

"You" he let out cheekily as he grabbed Pete's wrist and pulled him on his lap.

Pete eyes widened as he stared at Vegas who was a little very close to him , he gulped as he stammered

"K-khun ve-vegath?"

"Hm?" Vegas let our a hum.

"Let me go" pete whispered ever so quietly.

"Nope" Vegas whispered back as his hold tightened around the waist of pete.

Both said nothing , they just drown into each other's eyes as the time passed , Vegas pulled up pete , carrying him in his arms as he started to make his way to the bed.

"V-vegath?"

"Shh" Vegas shushed him as he slowly laid him on the bed and hovered over him.

He pressed theirs foreheads together and released a heavy breath before raising his head again and looked at pete who was already looking at him with nervousness.

"Can I kiss you?" Vegas let out as he stared at pete with sincerity.

Pete sucked his breath as his heart started to beat at a pace. Not trusting his voice , he curtly nodded his head.

Vegas smiled as he leaned in , pete closed his eyes. Waiting for the sensation but he fluttered his eyes open when he felt a pair of lips on his forehead lingering a little longer.

"I love you pete, I really really do" Vegas whispered in a breathy tone taking away the breaths of pete.

But Nonetheless he smiled , a happy one as he nodded his head as he prepared himself to say those words again.

"I love you too khun Vegath"

Vegas smiled happily like a child taking pete off guard.

"Thank you" he let out still being all smiley as the giddy feeling never going out of his Body.

But pete looked at him in confusion.

"Thank you for loving me back. Thank you for coming back. Thank you for being with me. Thank you forgiving me. Thank you for saving me from the darkness. I will try my best to not let you regret it"

Pete shook his head as he brought his hands up and cupped Vegas's face "I know , I will never regret it. Not even if I die to-" he was cut off by Vegas placing his palm on his mouth.

"Don't say such thing " he let out as he pushed himself beside his lover.

Pete smiled as he stretched his hand out.

"Wanna lay in my arms khun Vegath?"

Vegas looked at him for a few seconds and then nodded his head making pete smile as he made his way to Pete's arm. Laying his head on it and snuggling to his chest. Pete wrapped his arms around Vegas and he closed his eyes with a smile on his face and a promise to himself.

I will heal you khun Vegath. You will be happy. I will protect you.

And Vegas for the first time after his mother's death felt safe in someone's arms. An urge of being protected and loved surrounded him as his eyes filled with tears of happiness.

Its safe to say both had the best night of their life. Sometimes a person is enough to make us feel like the rarest diamonds. However the night was of short period as pete fluttered his eyes open feeling the sun glaring at them through the windows.

He groaned as he was about to get up ,he felt a weight on his arm . He frowned as he looked beside and view was the bestest anyone could have.

Vegas was laying there still in the same position ,his eyebrows for the first time weren't furrowed, his face was so calm and at peace. Pete eyes trailed to the man's feature. Taking in all little details , his eyes closed, eyelashes falling on cheeks. The cheeks looking puffedup. The sharp nose and those pink plump soft lips.

Pete couldn't believe that this flawless man was his. Entirely belongs to only him.

"You are staring" a raspy voice was heard bringing pete out of his daydream.

"You were awake !!!" He yelled loudly and then ducked his head down in embarrassment.

Vegas smiled as he sat up "you can stare. Only you can." He said as he brusted into laughter after seeing pete's flushed face.

"Khun Vegath! I-i yahhhh!" Unable to let out another word he just dashed to the bathroom and at the speed he went it ,with the same speed he came out as he stood infront if Vegas.

"What happened?" Vegas asked trying to control his laugh.

"I-i don't have any clothes" he stammered and there Vegas lost it as he started to laugh making pete pout.

"God, I love you so much!" He mumbled in-between his laugh making pete blush.

However what seemed like hours they both were done with their morning routine as Vegas Have pete a pair of his clothes , which looked just a little big on his body.

"Cute" he let out as he dragged pete out of the room who was busy checking himself in the mirror.

Once they reached the living room , they saw an old couple sitting their talking to Macau and then they all started to laugh together. Vegas frowned he was about to say something but pete ran towards them.

"Maa, paa!" He yelled as he hugged them both.

"My baby, how are you?" Grandpa asked as pete smiled and replied with "iam happy pa"

"You can run, I didn't expect you to even walk" grandma suddenly let out making the four others chock on the air.

"Honey, what?" The old man let out being all done by his old woman.

"Maa, please.Nothing happened. Leave it. Let me introduce you to him" and with this he ran to Vegas as he held his hand and dragged him to his grandparents who were looking at him from up and down with a serious expression making Vegas gulp nervously.

Vegas stood infront of them without saying anything as pete nudged him,he looked at him as he nodded before looking at the old couple infront of him.

"Iam Vegas,26 years old. I would like to ask pete's hand for the marriage. I love him very much and I promise to keep him happy as long as he wants." He let out as if it was an interview.

And pete eyes widened as he heard Vegas. A hand for marriage?? What!!! As he taken the words down he blushed dark red as Macau wiggled his eyesbrows at him.

Meanwhile the couple just said nothing , they kept all silence which was so unlike them.

Sensing the tough atmosphere pete opened his mouth to say something but however he was cut of the old lady.

"You talk like it's our first time meeting each other "

"I know right ! He looked like a scared cat haha"

The old man joined in making Vegas smile a little along with Macau but our pete remained confused.

"What do you mean maa? You guys met already paa? What is happening?" He let out unable to hide his curiosity or we say anger.

"Yeah , we met our son-in-law long ago. Uff only if I was not married to this old man ,I would have a Chance with this handsome here !" She let our earning a fit of laughter from the brothers and snort from his husband.

"What does that mean?" Pete suddenly got all defensive as he stood infront of Vegas.

"Its the time, we shall tell him" MaCau said as the other nodded.

All sat together as the old man started speaking.

"Actually pete, when you informed us that you will be coming to us for vacation. Vegas called us too. "

"Huh" pete shouted.

"Listen to him, you brat"

"So, yeah he told us everything and even came to the island to talk to us about you and him. Asking our permission ,we weren't so convinced so we didn't agree then but after seeing him continuously bugging you for three months and you being all giggly at the letters. We decided to give him a chance"

"You guys are all keeping things from me" pete let out as he was clearly shocked at the revealed information , Vegas panicked as he didn't wanted Pete to feel betrayed again , he hurriedly started to explain.

"No pete, its not like that. I told them to not tell you Because you were already angry at me and I didn't want you to be angry at them too. Iam sorry. Don't be mad, na"

Pete smiled and Macau was smiling as well seeing his great god brother being like a desperate teenager who didn't want his crush to misunderstand.

"Iam not mad. Infact iam glad you considered to tell them first and about everything."

"Really?" Vegas asked with big innocent eyes sparkling with hopes.

"Yes, you big baby"

And Vegas didn't object the nickname making his brother get a mild heartattack.

"They look so happy" old man whispered to his woman.

"They do. Its for the best"

"I miss my Nopppppppp" Macau popped up the P as he ran away.

"If you guys are done with staring, we old people are hungry" the man said as vegas jolted up and ran into the dining room calling out loud for the maids.

After the breakfast , they were all sitting at the backyard. The three young boys were laying down keeping their heads on the elders laps. As they talked about the random stuff and then the topic would suddenly take 180° turn and end up about the marriage stuff making the young couple turn red.

Now this is what seems like a happy family, isn't it?

Epilogue♥

One month later.

It was one month already. But for the new couple it was just like a long happy day was passed. Everything was going pretty smoothly and absolutely lovingly. Where the theerapanyakul's brothers were just strict, ruthless businessmen and underground mafias for the world but in their rooms they were nothing but the whipped lovers. It was like they had faced the biggest storm of their life and it just left nothing but the reasons to live.

But something remains the same forever like Tankhun 's hate for his maniac and vegas's annoyance for his crazy cousin.

Yup the eldest theerapanyakul has vowed his life that he won't forgive that sinner who stole his favorite brother like bodyguard.

It was a usual morning in the main mansion where the moans and screams escaped from the room of the horny couple making the hallway super awkward but then again they were used to it.

The head of the mansion was busy playing chess but he still wasn't used to seeing the new face whenever he looked up. To say Tankhun wasn't only one losing his bodyguard.

Arm and Pol were busy following their khun like always yet stealing a few smooches here and there sneakily but then again who has ever escaped the Tankhun 's eyes. Absolutely no one.

The new head bodyguard of the main mansion was big with all his strength and reeking hotness. It would be an understatement to say Ken wasn't having all of the fine man all to himself.

Meanwhile in the Minor mansion.

Where the main mansion remained all the same like before, the minor mansion was going through drastic changes. The first change was Macau behaving like an adult and then becoming a baby infront of the head bodyguard of the mansion.

Vegas was still having a hard time considering that his personal bodyguard was his brother's boyfriend now. Nop who has never considered him more than his Khun and has never raised his head infront of him , who always considered his work first was now busy babying his brother and calling him sweet names which would make Macau blush and Vegas puke.

But then again Vegas was no different , after a long day of bossing around and cursing anyone and everyone , he would return to his room only to be bossed around and getting cursed by his sweet eh his angry bird boyfriend but again he had no complaints.

As it was a fine morning , Vegas was reading the book sitting leisurely in his room that's when pete came and sat across him with a sulky face.

"What's wrong?" Vegas asked as he noticed the sulk.

Pete was quiet for sometime busy boring holes on Vegas 's face , the said man shifted uncomfortably and waited.

"I will ask you something, will you answer me honestly" pete asked after a long silence.

Vegas noticing the seriousness nodded his head.

"Words" pete uttered with furrowed eyes.

And Vegas yet again nodded his head with "yes, I will "

"Did you really like Porsche at the beginning ?" He asked without wasting a single second after Vegas agreed.

To say Vegas was bewildered at the question.

"What? Why are you asking this now?"

"Just say it, you already promised" he huffed.

"Eh no , I didn't promise anything"

" Can't you ever listen to me?"pete asked getting impatient.

"What? I always listen to you. You said that you wanted a sandwich yesterday at midnight and I brought it for you. You stopped me in the middle of our love making just to ask me whether I brushed or Not and i did tell you that even tough I was out of the breath. Then you told me you wanna do it in the balcony and even though I was unsure I did listen to you " Vegas rapped and then looked at Pete who was all red by now.

"What?" He asked again after having No response from his mate.

Pete simply cleared his throat

" Don't change the subject and just answer"

"Aish! No, I didn't like him....I agree he was my type but I never actually liked him" he said as he stopped in between just to look at pete and then continued.

"So, Porsche is your type ?" The question was thrown at him

Vegas just shrugged " he was. When I first saw him, I saw him as sassy, fiesty with a great physique and maybe sex tolerance too"

Pete looked at him with widened eyes and just "then why are you saying that you didn't like him? You did like him!"

"Eh! What? No, I never liked him and iam sure of that" he replied being kinda offended by the remarks of the other guy.

"They why did you always roam around him and grabbed every opportunity to be close to him. If this wasn't like then what was that huh?" Pete whispered yelled at him.

"Why are you yelling? I didn't do it by my will,pa forced me into it. He pressurised me to make him fall for me and I just did those. Nothing else"

Pete silenced for a few secs having many questions in his head, when Vegas saw him zoning out he placed his hand on his shoulder and was about to speak but pete was fast enough to cut him off.

"What if Porsche liked you back? What if khun kinn was never into the picture? What if you liked him but wasn't aware of him? What if-"

He was cut off by Vegas pulling him into his chest.

They both looked at each other for a few Moments before Vegas trailed his fingers on Pete's face.

"Pete, relax. I never cared about Porsche and even though he would have fallen for me , it could have changed nothing. Neither my mind nor my plans. And about me liking him, how could I like him when my mind was always occupied by someone huh?"

Vegas smirked at the end as he saw the way Pete's face turning into a surprised one.

"W-what does that mean Vegath?"

Vegas made pete sit on his lap before speaking again.

"I was never after him, pete. I just did the act for my pa. My intension and attention was never him. Will you believe me if I say I had my eyes on you since the start?"

He smiled as he looked at the former head bodyguard.

"Hmm" pete just hummed in response staring at Vegas...

"Don't look at me with those eyes darling, I don't know how to save myself from drowning " Vegas let out dramatically clutching his heart with a hand while his other hand was holding his man's waist.

Pete just slightly punched him on his chest as he layed his head in there.

"Y-you were into me? Since the beginning?" Pete asked in a low tone afraid of the answer.

"Oh Honey! In this world if anyone has astonished Vegas Theerapanyakul it was only you my dear. No one had the affect you had on me since the day I laced my eyes on you."

Pete was too shy to continue the conversation as he Made efforts to get off the lap but the strong grip didn't let him.

"Won't you listen to me further baby?" Vegas seductively husked in his ears making Pete let out a groan of annoyance.

"Let me go" pete huffed. Only to be denied.

"You know what, when I first saw you getting out of that swimming pool with bare upper body and those tight shorts oh - all I wanted was to roam my hand around those delicious looking duper white sk- oww what?"

Vegas let out as pete smacked him on his head before he could complete the sentence.

"Can you be a little careful with the words , shameless bastard" he let out keeping the last remark to himself.

"You wanted the truth" Vegas let out being defensive.

"I still do but not like this aish!" Pete whined.

"Fine" Vegas grumbled but continued further.

"So, as I said you were looking sexy" he stopped for a while as he felt glares but however started speaking again " i wanted to have you for a night and when my want wasn't fulfilled , I couldn't restrain myself and started to eh try some ways to get you but then again kinn never agreed."

"You what?"pete started but was cut off

"Listen to me first" Vegas said making him nod.

"So, you know how people says that when we don't get something our want gets stronger, I think thats what happened with me, though I never accepted myself for getting this riled up for a mere bodyguard but then again who was I kidding?" He chuckled .

"Then?" Pete asked urging Vegas to continue.

Cuz c'mon Vegas doesn't open up everyday now , does he?

"Isn't someone so excited?" Vegas teased only to get a punched on his chest.

"Aish, you wanna get your hands tied up huh?" Vegas let out huskily "just continue."

"I don't wanna" Vegas let out and laid on the bed with pete on top of him.

"Please" pleaded Pete with this best puppy eyes and who was Vegas to say no he let out a groan and continued further making pete smile triumphantly.

"As I used to come to the monthly meetings , followed by other minor meetings. I always used to search for you, it was like my mind would get so restless and distracted in your absence but then it would get more distracted in your presence too"

"How so?" Pete curiously asked.

"Oh baby, you shouldn't question that while having this addicting body " Vegas smirked only to get a blushy pete in response.

"However when Kinn used to ask you to pour the tea, it was the best part for me" Vegas continued with a wide smile.

"Hmm, why?" Pete placed his chin on Vegas's chest looking directly at him.

"Because you used to come close to me, do you even know how heavenly you smell ?" Vegas husked his voice suddenly being low octave tone.

"I- w-what?" Pete stuttered feeling those eagle like eyes on only him.

Vegas without saying much just flipped their position and now it was him hovering over pete.

"Darling, I would love it if you ride me but iam not into taking things slow"

"Says the one who took years to confess huh" pete countered back making Vegas smirk wider.

"Being confident ?"

"I always am" pete replied cockily

"Well, we will see how confident will you be when I will be thrusting into you honey"

Vegas husked in Pete's ears slowly rubbing their lowers making pete moan by the friction.

"You want more baby?"

"A-ah"

"Moan like a goodboy you are"

"K-khun Vegath ah~"

"Fu.ck"

And that's what it takes for the clothes to be shattered around and the room to be filled with those slutty moa.ns begging for more!

Time skip

It was evening already and everyone was in the living room that's when a bodyguard came towards them.

"Khun vegas"

"What ?"

"Someone left a basket infront of the gate" he whispered

"What? Did you check it?" Vegas asked furrowing his brows.

"Yes khun "

"What is it?" It was Macau this time.

"A baby"

"WHAT" the trio yelled at once.

" Why would someone leave a baby and in here?" Vegas let out as he thought of all the possibilities.

"Vegath, let's check it" pete let out as he stood up , but a painful slow screech left his mouth as he stood up making Vegas smirk.

"Sit there, I don't think you can walk pete. Told you to be careful " Vegas let out teasingly only to be glared in response.

Macau stood there smiling rather too sweetly at his brother-in-law.

"We will be back, you wait in here phi" Macau let out as he started to go out with the bodyguard leaving the couple alone.

"Its all because of you"pete huffed as he sat down.

"Its not my fault , it was you who wouldn't stop me and it's hard to stop , you just look so heavenly under me "

"S-shut up"

"PHI" Macau yelled as he jogged inside the mansion with the baby in his hands along with a piece of paper.

"What's wrong?"Vegas asked rather being worried.

Macau said nothing , he just passed the piece of paper to vegas.

Vegas took it as he glanced at pete who was looking at the paper as he opened it and it reads.

Well, I wouldn't want this piece of shit to ruin my life all along. Now that mr.Gun is not here, I don't want this. Either you keep it or throw it to die. I don't care.oh yeah and if you decide to keep it, it was born on 24th march.

Vegas blood boiled as he realized who it can be , he glared at the paper only to crush it into tiny pieces.

"That bit.ch thinks I will let her go huh. Let me just find her and cut her into tiny pieces that even the animals would not eat her. " Vegas yelled out making the mansion shake and the baby let out a loud cry.

"Macau, tell them to give it to any NGO or whatever. We don't want their trace into our home" he let out glaring at the baby.

"But hia" he was cut off when Vegas yelled "GO"

Macau turned his heels to go but then.

"Wait Macau " pete yelled as he went to him and took the baby into his hands.

"Pete what" Vegas started but pete shut him up with his glare.

"He is going nowhere. I will keep him . Whether you like it or not." He stated.

"Pete what no,. We don't want him." Vegas let out being frustrated.

"We? No Vegas, its you who don't want him. Everyone else want him to be here. I want Him to be here."pete let out .

"Pete, are you gonna fight me for this ? He is their baby , pete the same people who ruined our life. The same people who made me a Monster. What if he will grow up to be the same huh" Vegas said as he sat down with his hands on his head clearly not liking the situation .

Pete glanced at the baby and then at Vegas . He sighed a he made his way towards him as sat on his knees.

"Vegath, look at me."he let out and Vegas obeyed.

"Vegath, how will he turn out to be like them ,when it will be us who will look after him. And you are not a monster , you are my Vegath, who is so kind and caring yet protective and possessive who says you are bad huh. He will complete us Vegath. Don't you want a family with me?"

And Vegas immediately nodded.

"Then, he will complete us..You will be the papa , I will be the mama and Macau will be the uncle and he will be our little sunshine, our baby." Pete let out softly looking at the baby who was also looking at him with his big doe eyes and open mouth which would be mistaken as a smile.

Vegas said nothing , he looked at pete and then At macau who was nodding at him with teary eyes and happy smile and then he finally looked at the baby who was now looking at him.

"Here, hold him" Pete slowly gave the baby into Vegas's arms.

Vegas held him ever so delicately and looked at him with his own eyes filled with unknown happiness and excitement.

The baby returned the smile and the stare making Vegas smile.

"Aren't you a little bold , little one?"he let out making pete and Macau smile and the baby giggle.

"Your mama is right. You will complete us. Forgive your papa, will you baby?" He said as he planted a soft peck on the baby's forehead.

"Hiaa!!" Macau yelled as he hugged Vegas followed by Pete.

"What shall we name him khun Vegas?" Nop asked out as everyone retreated back from the hug looking at the bodyguard.

Vegas stared at the baby as he smiled.

"Venice. He will be our little Venice"

And everyone present in the living to including the maids and the other bodyguards started smiling as they whispered the name and welcomed the new one into the family.

A week later.

It was the welcome party of Venice , the main family and the minor family both were present in the minor mansion ,everyone congratulated them as they were all adoring the sweet little bean who was laying in the craddle looking at the everyone with his big doe shiny eyes.

"So, already a father huh"kinn mocked Vegas who just rolled his eyes.

"When are you planning to marry him?" Kim asked making Vegas choke on air.

And the two brothers laughed.

"Peteeeee! How come you are only giving attention to this little maniac, first that maniac stole you from me and now this little one" Tankhun yelled out glaring at the baby.

"Khun Tankhun don't call him that" arm let out making Tankhun let out a tsk.

"Hoii , this whiny ass.hole" Porsche let out and then turned to pete and hugged him

"Are you happy?"

Pete smiled as he hugged back and replied with "very"

"Grandma and grandpa are consoling each other and then wiping the happy tears while staring at Venice"Barcode let out making the best friends shook their heads with a smile.

"Everything feels like a dream" pete let out as he stared at everybody from the corner with a smile. Where everyone was standing and looking at the baby , introducing themselves to Venice . Porsche begging kinn to give him a baby. Arm and pol looking at each other only to get interrupted by Tankhun coming in between. The main and minor families bodyguards eating together.

A pair of hands hugged him back as Vegas kept his head on his shoulder.

"This is real darling. We made it."

Making pete vigorously nod.

"Are you tired? Shall I kick them out?"Vegas asked as he snuggled his head in Pete's neck.

Pete chuckled "a little but it's okie"

"I don't think you are only a little tired? Will you be able to last for two rounds ?" Vegas teasingly asked as he turned pete around.

"Are you challenging me ?" Pete asked as he raised his eyebrow.

Vegas smiled as he inched closer to pete, touching their nose tips together.

"Who would dare challenge their wife?" He husked as he leaned brushing his lips with his wife.

"How can Vegas fall for a bodyguard? This doesn't set right to me"
